GUEST SPEAKER - SAM PAYNE STORY TELLER AND SONG WRITER

SUN 8:00 PM - RED CANYON ROOMS

Sam Payne travels the world telling stories and singing songs about growing up the son of a folk singer and the grandson of a World War II veteran in the American West.

He has brought his stories and songs to halls in Canada, Bulgaria, Tokyo, and coast to coast in the United States. He's been featured on concert stages and at festivals large and small, including the Timpanogos Storytelling Festival and the Weber Storytelling Festival in his home state. Sam also hosts "The Apple Seed: Tellers and Stories," a daily national radio show on the art of storytelling for BYU radio.

Most of Sam's songs come from his own ideas, but he says that some of the most interesting work he does has to do with making songs and stories from other people's ideas as a songwriter-for-hire. He's written songs about Joseph Smith, Butch Cassidy, George Washington, all kinds of Mormon Pioneers, Eagle Scouts, soldiers going to war, fathers and sons, Cowboys and Indians, Space Shuttles, and more. He also works as the front man for a super-cool jazz quartet called "Savoy," telling the story of America through great American songs. Sam worked as an LDS seminary teacher for thirteen years before going on to write history books for elementary school students, and to direct a high school for the performing arts as its principal.
