

HEALING AMERICA'S VETERANS THROUGH THE THERAPEUTIC ART OF FLY FISHING.

Project Healing Waters aims to foster restoration, resilience, community, and lasting connections in the journey towards healing.

PHW is excited to offer a new group in Central/Southern Utah

PHW Meet-and-Greet | February 21, 2026

Join Project Healing Waters for a casual meet-and-greet during the Southern Utah Military, Veteran & Family Wellness Fair on February 21st (10:00 AM–2:00 PM) at the Gardner Student Center, Utah Tech University in St. George. Stop by our table to connect, ask questions, and learn how fly fishing supports wellness, community, and recovery.

PHW First Fishing Day | Junction, Utah | March 7, 2026

You're invited to our first PHW fishing activity of the season on Saturday, March 7th (11:00 AM–until complete) in Junction, Utah at the USU Extension Offices. Lunch will be provided, followed by a hands-on fishing seminar, then we'll head to the river together to put skills into action. No experience needed—just come ready to learn, connect, and fish.
