Re: Legal right to withhold consent for child's participation

Dear [School Principal],

Recently the Oklahoma State Superintendent Ryan Walters has released a directive regarding incorporating the Bible as an instructional support in Oklahoma classrooms.

We hereby exercise our legal right to withhold consent for our minor child, [Child's Name], to participate in, or be given access to, any class, lesson, instruction, curriculum, assembly, guest speaker, activity, assignment, library material, online material, club, or group, that is teaching, quoting, requiring reading or otherwise extracting content from The Bible.

Should State Superintendent Ryan Walters mandate any further curricular changes in our child's school, we would like a chance to review any and all changes before they are presented to our child.

We thank you for treating our child, and all children opted out of any lesson with dignity and respect.

If the requests in this letter are not honored, or if our child experiences discrimination or any other mistreatment, we will pursue any and all legal and equitable remedies available to us through state, federal, and constitutional law.*

Sincerely,
