BY JAY BOBBIN

Christopher Meloni

OF LAW & ORDER: ORGANIZED CRIME ON NBC/PEACOCK

Q: Now that “Law & Order: Or-ganized Crime” is over, is there a chance that Christopher Meloni will appear in “Law & Or-der: Special Victims Unit” again?

A: Normally, we’d leave that at our usual “anything is possible” type of answer — but in this case, the chances of it happen-ing are much stronger than that, thanks to comments made by “Special Victims Unit” star Mariska Hargitay in the aftermath of the news of the “Organized Crime” cancellation.

Her comments indicated that her Olivia Benson and his Elliot Stabler (played by Christopher Meloni, “OZ”) will be reunited on her NBC and Peacock show again in some manner, whether that turns out to be guest appearances by Meloni or a longer arc. Hargitay did a number of “Organized Crime” crossovers, so the characters’ relationship has continued (and actually deepened, as regular viewers undoubtedly have noted) and is primed to keep moving.

Meloni posted a video on social media thanking the franchise’s faithful for their loyalty to him and to Stabler, who was Ben-son’s professional partner on “SVU” for 12 seasons. Hargitay said she was “surprised” by the “Organized Crime” cancellation, also ex-pressing the pleasure she takes in working with Meloni ... and since she’s an “SVU” executive producer as well, she has a lot of say about what happens on her program.

That might not mean that Meloni will appear there immedi-ately when the new “SVU” season begins this fall, particular-ly since show makers know there’s value in keeping viewers hooked as they wait for something that they’re anticipating to happen. With that being said, it’s all but certain that more Stabler-and-Benson re-matches are on the horizon.
