LIVESTOCK RISK PROTECTION (LRP) is designed to protect against declining market prices. A variety of coverage levels and insurance periods are offered that match the time the livestock would normally be marketed.

INSURABLE LIVESTOCK:
• Feeder Cattle • Fed cattle • Swine
Applications may be submitted anytime during a crop year if no other LRP policy exists for the applicant, and specific coverage endorsements can be purchased throughout the year.

These livestock programs are designed to manage risk on a national market basis. All prices used to quote and determine ending values are derived from the Chicago Mercantile Exchange (CME) and the Chicago Board of Trade (CBOT).
