celebritypipeline BY JAY BOBBIN

Another ‘Blue Bloods’ alum heads to Boston

Q: Is it true that Will Estes will be back in his “Blue Bloods” role as Jamie Reagan in “Boston Blue”? — Dana Hart, Palmdale, Calif.

A: Yes, and photographic evidence confirms it. In early August, a social media post by series star Donnie Wahlberg showed him, Estes and several of the other “Boston Blue” regulars in a shot captioned with a “Welcome back!” message for Estes. As the “Blue Bloods” faithful are well aware, Wahlberg and Estes played law-enforcement brothers — in both the spiritual and literal senses — for 14 seasons in the CBS and Paramount+ series (still seen in plentiful repeats on several cable networks), and it looks like Jamie is making his way to Boston for an upcoming reunion story.

Whether that is for one episode or more than that remains to be seen, but the mileage has varied for other “Blue Bloods” veterans who have turned up in “Boston Blue” so far. Bridget Moynahan played Erin Reagan again in two episodes of the spinoff last season, and she also has been a director on the show. Len Cariou made a single “Boston” appearance as Henry Reagan, and Will Hochman came back as Det. Joe Hill in a first-season “Boston Blue” episode. Many have asked whether Tom Selleck will play Frank Reagan again by showing up in “Boston Blue,” but there’s been no definitive answer to that thus far.
