

Racial disparity in those charged with election fraud

Black Wisconsinites make up less than 7% of the state's population, but from 2012-2022 were defendants in 27.9% of election fraud cases, largely driven by Milwaukee County prosecutions.

White Black Native Am. or Alaskan Native Hispanic Asian or Pacific Islander

Percent of election fraud cases

Percent of state population

Note: In 20 of 192 election fraud cases – 10.4% – Wisconsin Watch could not confirm the race of the person charged.

Chart: Matt Mencarini/Wisconsin Watch • Source: Wisconsin court data provided by Court Data Technologies, additional data from the U.S. Census Bureau. • Created with Datawrapper