

Senate Bill 339

By: Senators Ligon, Jr. of the 3rd, Shafer of the 48th, McKoon of the 29th, Tippins of the 37th, Miller of the 49th and others

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

1 To amend Article 2 of Chapter 3 of Title 20 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated,
2 relating to the board of regents and university system, so as to provide for the establishment
3 of free speech policies for institutions of the university system; to provide for a cause of 4 action and remedies; to provide for related matters; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other 5 purposes.

6 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

7 SECTION 1.

8 Article 2 of Chapter 3 of Title 20 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to the 9 board of regents and university system, is amended by adding a new part to read as follows:

10 "Part 1D

11 20-3-48.

12 The board of regents shall develop and adopt a policy on free expression that contains, at 13 least, the following statements:

14 (1) That the primary function of an institution of higher education is the discovery,
15 improvement, transmission, and dissemination of knowledge by means of research,
16 teaching, discussion, and debate. This statement shall provide that, to fulfill this function,
17 the institution must strive to ensure the fullest degree of intellectual freedom and free
18 expression;

19 (2) That it is not the proper role of the institution to shield individuals from speech
20 protected by the First Amendment of the United States Constitution, including, without 21 limitation, ideas and opinions which they find unwelcome, disagreeable, or even deeply 22 offensive;

23 (3) That students and faculty have the freedom to discuss any problem that presents
24 itself, as the First Amendment permits and within the limits of reasonable viewpoint

25 neutral and content neutral restrictions on time, place, and manner of expression that are 26 consistent with this part and that are necessary to achieve a compelling institutional
 27 interest; provided, however, that these restrictions are clear, published, and provide ample 28 alternative means of expression. Students and faculty shall be permitted to assemble and 29 engage in spontaneous expressive activity, as long as such activity is not unlawful and 30 does not materially and substantially disrupt the functioning of the institution, subject to 31 the requirements of this subparagraph;

32 (4) That any person lawfully present on campus may protest or demonstrate there,
 33 provided that protests and demonstrations that infringe upon the rights of others to engage 34 in or listen to expressive activity shall not be permitted and shall be subject to sanction.
 35 This policy does not prohibit professors or other instructors from maintaining order in the 36 classroom;

37 (5) That the campuses of the institution are open to any speaker whom students, student
 38 groups, or members of the faculty have invited;

39 (6) That the public areas of campuses of the institution are traditional public forums,
 40 open on the same terms to any speaker;

41 (7) That a range of disciplinary sanctions shall be established for anyone under the 42 jurisdiction of the institution who materially and substantially interferes with the free
 43 expression of others;

44 (8) That in all disciplinary cases involving expressive conduct, students shall be entitled 45 to a disciplinary hearing under published procedures, including, at minimum, the right:

46 (A) To receive advanced written notice of the charges;

47 (B) To review the evidence in support of the charges;

48 (C) To confront witnesses against them;

49 (D) To present a defense;

50 (E) To call witnesses;

51 (F) To a decision by an impartial arbiter or panel; and 52 (G) Of appeal.

53 When suspension for longer than 30 days or expulsion is a potential penalty, students 54 shall be entitled to a disciplinary hearing under published procedures, including, at 55 minimum, all of the above procedures, plus the right to active assistance of legal counsel;

56 (9) That any student who has twice been found responsible for infringing upon the 57 expressive rights of others shall be suspended for a minimum of one year or expelled;

58 (10) That the institution shall make all reasonable efforts and make available all
 59 reasonable resources to ensure the safety of invited speakers. An institution shall not 60 charge a security fee based on the content of the inviter's speech or the content of the

61 speech of the invited speakers and may restrict the use of its nonpublic facilities to invited
 62 individuals;

63 (11) That no institution may deny a student organization any benefit or privilege
 64 available to other campus student organizations, or otherwise discriminate against a 65 student organization, based on the content of that organization's expression, including any 66 requirement that the leaders or members of such organization:

67 (A) Affirm and adhere to the organization's sincerely held beliefs;

68 (B) Comply with the organization's standards of conduct; or

69 (C) Further the organization's mission or purpose, as defined by the student
 70 organization;

71 (12) That individual students, faculty, and staff of the institution shall be free to take
 72 positions on the public controversies of the day, but the institution itself should attempt 73 to remain neutral, as an institution, on the public policy controversies of the day, except 74 insofar as administrative decisions on such issues are essential to the day-to-day
 75 functioning of the institution. The institution may not take action, as an institution, on 76 the public policy controversies of the day in such a way as to require students, faculty, 77 or staff to publicly express a given view of a public controversy; and

78 (13) That this policy supersedes and nullifies any prior provisions in the policies and 79 regulations of the board of regents that restrict speech on campus and are, therefore,
 80 inconsistent with this statement on free expression. The board of regents shall remove 81 or revise any such provisions in its policies and regulations to ensure compatibility with 82 the above policy on free expression.

83 20-3-48.1.

84 The board of regents shall create a Committee on Free Expression, consisting of no fewer 85 than 15 members. The Committee on Free Expression shall report to the public, the board
 86 of regents, the Governor, and the General Assembly on September 1 of every year. The 87 report shall include descriptions of the following:

88 (1) Any barriers to or disruptions of free expression within state institutions of higher
 89 education;

90 (2) Administrative handling and discipline relating to these disruptions or barriers;

91 (3) Substantial difficulties, controversies, or successes in maintaining a posture of 92 administrative and institutional neutrality with regard to political or social issues; and

93 (4) Any assessments, criticisms, commendations, or recommendations the committee
 94 sees fit to include.

95 20-3-48.2.

96 Institutions of the University System of Georgia shall include in freshman orientation
97 programs a section describing all policies and regulations regarding free expression
98 consistent with this part.

99 20-3-48.3.

100 (a) The board of regents is authorized to adopt regulations to further the purposes of the 101 policies adopted pursuant to this part. Nothing in this part shall be construed to prevent 102 institutions from regulating student speech or activity that is prohibited by law.

103 (b) Except as further limited by this part, institutions shall be allowed to restrict student
104 expression only for expressive activity not protected by the First Amendment, including 105 the following:

106 (1) Violations of state or federal law;

107 (2) Expression that a court has deemed unprotected defamation;

108 (3) Harassment, as described below:

109 (A) Peer-on-peer harassment, to be defined as conduct directed by a student toward 110 another student on the basis of such student's membership or perceived membership in 111 a protected class that is so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively 112 deprives the victim of access to the educational opportunities or benefits provided by 113 the institution; or

114 (B) Quid pro quo sexual harassment, to be defined as explicitly or implicitly
115 conditioning a student's participation in an educational program or activity or basing
116 an educational decision on the student's submission to unwelcome sexual advances, 117 requests for sexual favors, or other verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct of a sexual 118 nature;

119 (4) True threats, to be defined as statements meant by the speaker to communicate a 120 serious expression of an intent to commit an act of unlawful violence toward a particular 121 individual or group of individuals;

122 (5) An unjustifiable invasion of privacy or confidentiality not involving a matter of 123 public concern;

124 (6) An action that unlawfully disrupts the function of the institution; and

125 (7) Reasonable time, place, and manner restrictions on expressive activities consistent
126 with paragraph (3) of Code Section 20-3-48.

127 20-3-48.4.

128 (a) Institutions of the University System of Georgia may restrict expressive conduct in the 129 public areas of campus only upon providing evidence that the restriction:

- 130 (1) Is necessary to achieve a compelling governmental interest;
131 (2) Is the least disruptive means of furthering that compelling governmental interest;
132 (3) Leaves open other ample opportunities to engage in the expressive conduct; and 133 (4) Provides for spontaneous assembly and distribution of literature.
134 (b) The following persons may bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction to 135 enjoin any violation of this Code section or to recover reasonable court costs and 136 reasonable attorney fees:
137 (1) The Attorney General; or
138 (2) A person whose expressive rights are violated in accordance with this Code section.
139 (c) In an action brought under subsection (b) of this Code section, if the court finds that 140 a violation occurred, the court shall award the aggrieved person injunctive relief for the 141 violation in addition to reasonable court costs and reasonable attorney fees. The court shall 142 also award damages of $1,000.00 or actual damages, whichever is higher.
143 (d) A person shall bring an action for a violation of this Code section within one year after 144 the date the cause of action accrues. For the purpose of calculating the one-year limitation
145 period, each day that the violation persists or each day that a policy in violation of this 146 Code section remains in effect constitutes a new violation of this Code section and shall 147 be considered a day that the cause of action has accrued."

148

SECTION 2.

149 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
