Call us to schedule your tour: (814) 343-0900

Marraras Mountain Lodge is a private facility conveniently located in the beautiful mountains of Central Pennsylvania between State College and Altoona in Port Matilda, PA. It's just a short drive off Interstate 99 and Route 350. Its majestic natural setting includes open, grassy fields, wooded forests, rolling mountains, and a one acre spring-fed pond. The Lodge features a large floor space, cathedral tongue and groove ceilings with cross timbers, and modern lighting. A large mountain stone fireplace, wooden spiral staircase, and oak hardwood-type flooring accent the great room.

The lodge can accommodate up to 200 guests and includes a commercial style kitchen. Limited sleeping facilities are available with a private balcony which overlooks the great room. A large covered deck is perfect for socializing and overlooks an outdoor gazebo suitable for outdoor wedding ceremonies or other special events. The pond has a charming footpath around its perimeter, a picnic pavilion, and a fire ring, so you can enjoy the natural beauty of its surroundings.

The lodge has ample parking, numerous scenic photo ops, and various amenities such as patio heaters, cornhole boards, and more.
