

Griffin, Dawsey, DePaola & Jones, P.C. Welcomes Attorney Kaden Rude

GDDJ, P.C. is pleased to announce that Kaden Rude was recently admitted to the Pennsylvania Bar Association and has joined the firm as an Associate Attorney.

A graduate of Athens Area High School and Pennsylvania State University, Kaden returns to the Valley with a strong academic background in law, business, and accounting, as well as practical legal experience gained through internships in both private practice and public-interest settings.

Kaden earned his Juris Doctor, cum laude, and a Business Advising Certificate from Widener University Commonwealth Law School. In recognition of his outstanding achievement in business law, he was selected by the Pennsylvania Bar Association Business Law Section as a recipient of the Professor Louis Del Duca Memorial Award in Business Law.

Prior to law school, Kaden attended Pennsylvania State University, where he earned both a Bachelor of Science in Accounting and a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, along with a Minor in International Business.

Kaden previously served as a legal intern with Griffin, Dawsey, DePaola & Jones. His practical experience during his legal education also included internships with the Central Pennsylvania Civil Law Legal Clinic and Crisp & Associates Military Law.

Reflecting on his accomplishments, Kaden shared: "Credit for my success belongs to my incredible family and friends - mostly for their patience, support, and putting up with me along the way."

Please join us in welcoming Attorney Kaden Rude to Griffin, Dawsey, DePaola & Jones, P.C. We look forward to the dedication, professionalism, and talent he will bring to our clients and communities throughout Bradford County and the surrounding region. Kaden is accepting new clients at our Towanda (570-265-2175) and Sayre (570-888-8600) offices.
