Employee Spotlight

Ciera Ordonez is proudly celebrating her 10-year anniversary with Cargill. She works in the FSQR department currently but has also worked in Harvest and Sanitation departments during her career here. She says the greatest benefit about working for Cargill is "being part of the process of sending quality product to customers." Outside of work, Ciera is busy raising her daughters and enjoys attending all their sporting events and activities. Her favorite hobby is crochet. When she does get time to travel, her favorite place to visit is the beach.

Nicole Algar is celebrating 5 years of service here at Cargill, with a total combined 10 years of service. She has worked in the Sanitation department all 10 years, and she loves being the line leader for the Harvest Sanitation group on 2nd shift. Her hobbies and interests outside of work are crocheting, cross stitching, and spending time with family. Her favorite place (besides Cargill) is St. Augustine, Florida and her favorite food is Tacos. Thank you for your continued service!
