A Tribute to 250 Years of The Few, The Proud ...

For 250 years, the United States Marine Corps has stood as a symbol of courage, sacrifice, and unwavering patriotism. Now, that proud legacy is honored in a collection of hand-crafted ornaments—designed to commemorate the valor and history of the few, the proud…the Marines.

Each meticulously hand-painted ornament arrives in a set of two, showcasing powerful low-relief sculptures, metallic finishes, and raised gold borders. Set One begins with "Semper Fidelis," proudly displaying the Eagle, Globe and Anchor and the USMC emblem. It pairs with "Courage," featuring a sculpted tribute to the flag raising at Iwo Jima—a moment that stirred a nation. On the reverse, words that echo through Marine Corps history: part of the Marine Corps oath and "Uncommon valor was a common virtue."

Set Two continues the story with a Marine at attention, sword in hand, and an inspiring scene of a bald eagle soaring before the American flag—symbols of freedom, strength, and service.
