A Battle-tested Force of Freedom

Built for speed, the USS Missouri (BB-63) was the largest and fastest battleship of the Iowa class of ships. Her career included participation in every major war of the second half of the 20th century, from WWII to Korea and from Vietnam to the Gulf War. Her greatest moment was on September 2, 1945 when, on her deck, the Japanese surrendered, ending WWII.

Now this 887-foot warship is honored with the “USS Missouri (BB-63),” an expertly tooled model with a die-cast metal hull set atop a simulated wood base, replicating its massive deck with conning tower. There are three rotating main turrets, each with three elevating cannons. The conning tower and super structure are rendered in miniature, with five rotating gun turrets port and starboard. The aft features two Curtiss SC Seahawk aircraft, and there are twin rudders and four propellers below.

Backed by our unconditional 365-Day Guarantee.
