Is there anything better than a cozy cat cuddle?

What a paw-fect way to spend the day — surrounded by your favorite feline friends! Now a Precious Moments® figurine proclaims your L-O-V-E for your furry favorites. Only from Hamilton, it’s “Love Is A Four-Legged Word”!

Talented artisans handcraft and hand-paint every detail of this limited release. Plus, stacked beside the sculpted cat mom and her fur babies are giant, paw-printed letters that spell out the L-O-V-E you have for your four-legged pals. Even the glittery “O” is embellished with a soft-to-the-touch texture. It’s like sharing a nose nuzzle with your kitty!

Something special for those who are blessed ... and cat obsessed!

“Love Is A Four-Legged Word” debuts the Precious Moments® Blessed & Cat Obsessed Collection. Collectors will receive future editions, as they’re released, each featuring a doting cat mom and her feline friends posed with colorful letters that spell out more cat-themed words like MEOW, HUGS, PURR and XOXO. Plus each arrives hand-numbered with a matching numbered Hamilton Certificate of Authenticity. Collect them all, or cancel at any time. There’s never any risk or obligation.

The first American car certified to go 100 mph...or more!

In 1935, Auburn defied the Depression with the 851 Boattail Speedster—an Art Deco masterpiece built for speed and style. With its Schweitzer-Cummins supercharged inline-eight delivering 150 horsepower, it could top 100 mph—earning factory-issued dash plaques certifying its record-shattering performance.

The Speedster’s dramatic boattail rear, sweeping pontoon fenders, chrome-laced grille, split windshield, and flexing side exhausts made it a rolling sculpture, embodying the glamour and rebellion of pre-war America. Selling new for just $2,245, it was a bargain rival to Europe’s elite machines and became Hollywood’s favorite symbol of freedom and wealth. Now this legend is reborn with the
