When I grow up I want to own my own business called Garden pulling tractor parts. My Store is kind of like Midwest super cub. One reason I want to work at my own business is because I like to play in motors and take them apart. Second reason is because I like to pull tractors. Hope you enjoyed my paragraph about what I want to be when I grow up.

The best pet I could have is a puppy. Puppies are so cute and a wild. I would take very good care of it. If the puppy was a girl I would name it Softy. If the puppy is a boy I would name it Tucker. I wanted a puppy because they are playful and cute. The only problem is when I go to school my puppy has to stay at home. But any way that is why puppy's are the best pet.

School is Cool because you can go to prom and play on computers. I wish my dad will buy me ALL of the warrior cats books with all the series. When I grow up I want to be a lady with a lot of kittens and cats. Also I want to study the life of tigers and how they raise their cubs. I also want to do the things I want before; prom, pic or all are so first make a bucket list check next name a cat what when you get that and when in a adult skyride from a airplane uhhh maybe it wait on that for along time and that's it maybe I'll add more soon. I really think flying cats should be invented cause if you have enough cats to pull a car you can fly over people who don't have cats.

Lane 1-31-18

The best pet is a dog, because they are very smart, they love to play. I have a dog and she is very playful her name is Sadie. She likes Cooper, Heath, Ryan. When Cooper and Heath came to my house we played with her then too with her. She plays playstation with us and xbox she beat me in call of duty black ops 2 multiplayer. She is very good at video games and play station 4.

My pet is the best pet in the world because she is really protective. Like if we are watching dora my dog shilo will chase them off thinking she protected us. If someone is coming up the driveway she will protect us. That is why my dog is the best.

When I grow up I want to be a vet. Not just any kind of vet a vet that checks pet eyes. What do you want to do when you get a job? do you know? or do you already have one? I help my dad work one store but I don't got a real one. I have 13 pets. Do you have any pets.

What I want to be when I grow up is a cook. I am waiting patiently for me to grow up so I can be a cook. I want to learn how to cook seafood, especially crabs and lobsters. I love to cook with my mom. She's the best mom ever. I helped my mom cook breakfast. I helped her make french toast and cereal. I even got to pour the cereal and milk! But, I was very careful. That's what I to be when I want to grow up.

I want to be a cop when I grow up because I get to use guns and shot guns. Another reason I wanna be a cop is I get to take away the bad guys from robbing from innocent people. My third reason is I wanna have a police car. The fourth reason I wanna be a cop is that I get to stay busy alot. The fifth reason I wanna be a cop when I grow up is I get to be out in nature and looking for robbers. My sixth reason is that I get to help new people on my team. Those are my reasons why I wanna be a cop.

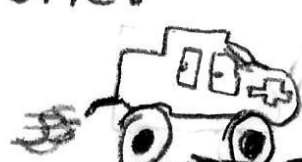

Samantha 1-31-18

My cat Harry is the best cat ever because he lets me my sister and brother do any thing to him. I think he is part Rag doll because he is the laziest cat I have ever seen. I love my cat Harry he is the silliest cat ever. He once thought he was a turkey but when the turkeys saw him they went crazy.

When I grow up I want to be a marine biologist and study shark! One thing I will do is to find a way to get shark out of swimming grounds with out nets. Next thing I want to do is to try to find a new kind of shark. The last thing I will do is swim with a whale shark. This is why I want to be a marine biologist.

Come buy a nice car today! Lets get it done!

I want to be a teacher. It would be awesome getting to be in charge of a lot of kids and going over kids names. Another thing I would be an interior designer. I used to make stuff in my great-grandma's living room, it didn't make much of a difference than before. Something I would not like to be is a doctor, I can not handle blood. Those are some things I do and don't want to do.

Sincerely,
Malia

What I want to be when I grow up is a vet doctor. Why I want to be a vet doctor is to help pets get well. Second reason is, to make their owners happy and the pets feel better. Another reason is to, give them medicine to help them. Last is to give our pets love and attention and play with them.

The Goosebumps Movie is amazing because there is a hilarious part, it is when this lady went to get an officer, and she yelled "we need somebody fast", then Slappy made the chair turn around and said "What do you need lady? So she was like "your a d... Slappy said "don't say it, she said it "dummy" so Slappy said "you said it" and had an army of aliens and froze her to solid ice.

My favorite animal is a bat, because they are very interesting. It's so cool how they are able to see by screeching. And how they can swoop down and grab their prey. It's so interesting. That is why I like bats.

I want to be a army man when I grow up because I can save the world. And because I want to do it for my uncle.

My best pet is my dog, Sassy. She is a whiner reimer. She is dark, kind of like jet black. She has lighter than ocean blue eyes. She is 8 weeks almost. She likes to play. She's like her brother Rodie he loves the she does to. She is also like her mom Roxie, and her dad Pre they hate the water. I tried to give her a bath she kept climbing out of the water. You know how puppies are wild. She lyes to chew on blankets, pillow, and stuff- animals but we don't let her but she speaks to get her way. I love that dog. She scratch if she wants atten, she will also bite you. She loves to play go outside. Me and Sassy loves to watch dog, and puppy movies, and books. She loves toys that squeak, and tugs. You never can throw a ball without her running into people.
