

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

DAVID "KEVAN" ROMINE

Kevan Romine, 65, of W. Richland, Wash., passed away from a heart attack Oct. 24, 2019, at Kadlec Hospital in Richland, Wash. He was born to Burvil and Velma D. (Jones) Romine, May 8, 1954, in Kennewick. Kevan worked at Alcoa Aluminum until the plant closed, then Trim Systems.

He was preceded in death by his parents; and brother-in-law, Rick Salas.

Kevan is survived by an aunt, Arelene Martin; an uncle, Richard (Joyce) Jones; his sisters, Barbara Salas of Battle Ground and Debra Ellingsworth of Clarkston; nieces, Denise and Alicia Salas; and nephews, Chad Carver, Shane and Damon Ellingsworth.

To view the obituary, please go to www.thereflector.com/obituaries.