

Eloise Ball

Eloise Taylor Ball passed away May 24, 2019, in Vancouver, Washington. She was born to Uri and Vada Taylor on January 14, 1927, in Blackfoot, Idaho. After graduating from Blackfoot High School, she attended beauty school. Her family moved to Lava Hot Springs, Idaho, where she met and later married Wayne Ball on September 13, 1945. After her children finished high school, she attended Clark College to study nursing. Upon completion of her studies, she worked as an LPN at assisted living facilities in Vancouver and Ridgefield until she retired.

In retirement, Eloise lived in Green Valley, Arizona, for several years where she enjoyed golfing with her husband and friends.

Eloise Ball was preceded in death by her husband, Wayne. She is survived by three children, Cheryl Boutwell (Michael), Jocklyn Griffith (Blake), Bob Ball (Nanette), seven grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, and four great-great-grandchildren.

Per Eloise's wishes, she will be buried in a private service at the Willamette National Cemetery in Portland, Oregon, next to her beloved husband, Wayne.
