Farmer's Market brings crowds to the Port

By TONY REED
The Siuslaw News

Visitors to the Port of Siuslaw on Tuesdays will likely find lines of people waiting to buy locally-made and grown foods.

The market allows locals to sell everything from produce, to meats and eggs, jellies, jams and sauces and even mushrooms, while offering educational exhibits and information about sustainable farming.

Farmer's Market Board President Jennifer Ledbetter said future markets will feature a fix-it booth from WasteWise Lane County where a specialist will fix things from small kitchen appliances to sewing machines and more.

Berkner trial moved to September

SIUSLAW NEWS STAFF

A June 25 trial date has been moved to Sept. 9 for Keith W. Berkner, of Florence, in Lane County Circuit Court.

Berkner was arrested Dec. 27, 2024, after police received and investigated a report of possible sexual abuse of a juvenile.

"From that investigation, Keith Berkner was developed as a suspect in the case," a Florence Police Department release stated after his arrest. "On [Jan. 22] a search warrant was executed on Berkner's residence, where Berkner was placed into custody and later transported to Lane County Adult Corrections."

Berkner is charged with Sodomy in the First Degree and Sexual Abuse in the First Degree, both felonies. If convicted, the maximum sentences for the two offenses are 70 months (25 years) and 75 months (10 years) in prison. As of June 26, he remains in custody at Lane County jail.

On June 24 at 12:45 p.m. the Florence Police Department received a call from a juvenile that her mother was being assaulted at their apartment in Shorepines. Officers arrived and were able to make contact with the female victim, who had managed to get out of the apartment with her daughter. Officers determined that the male suspect, Benjamin Turnbaugh, 50, was still in the apartment and had locked the door. It was discovered that Turnbaugh had a felony warrant for his arrest out of Lane County and the officers had probable cause to arrest Turnbaugh for Strangulation after interviewing the female victim.

Officers attempted to make contact with Turnbaugh, but he would not come to the door or respond. After additional officers arrived and a key was obtained, officers made entry into the apartment, using the department's ballistic shield as additional cover. Officers made contact with Turnbaugh in a bedroom in the apartment. After challenging him, Turnbaugh was placed under arrest without further incident for Strangulation and Felony Parole and Probation warrant out of Lane County Circuit Court. Turnbaugh was lodged in the Florence City Jail and later transported to Lane County Adult Corrections.

On June 26, two search warrants were served in Florence, one in the Skookum Dr area and the other in the Wayside Mobile Home Park.

Florence Police worked with the Oregon Department of Justice (ODOJ), who was the primary agency on one warrant while Florence Police was the primary agency on the second warrant. Both search warrants were based off of cyber tips from ICAC and were separate and not related to each other.

After the search warrants were served several pieces of electronic equipment were seized from both locations. ODOJ took custody of all the items to complete the forensic examinations to continue the investigations.

Once that examination is completed ODOJ will provide Florence Police with any evidence that was retrieved from the devices from the Florence Police lead search warrant. Florence Police will work with

July 4 activity schedule

FLORENCE AREA
COMMERCE

There's a lot going on this July 4 weekend in Florence and here's the full list of family-friendly events and activities.

FIREWORKS

Fireworks will be shot over the Siuslaw River from the east end of the Port of Siuslaw Campground in Historic Old Town beginning at about 10 p.m. on Friday, July 4. The location provides a multitude of great vantage points for spectators with the colorful 30-minute program reflecting off the river.

Private fireworks are not allowed. The Port, the City, and the Chamber will work again with the experts at Western Display Fireworks to make this happen," said Chamber president/CEO Bettina Hannigan.

"Big thanks go to the Port for their generosity in providing the launch location again. This year the City of Florence, the Port of Siuslaw, and the Florence Area Chamber are jointly funding the big event. We look forward to celebrating our nation's freedom and encourage everyone in Florence to find safe and fun ways to celebrate Independence Day this year, and then to look to the skies that evening for the beautiful display we have planned."

THREE DAY PORCH PARADE

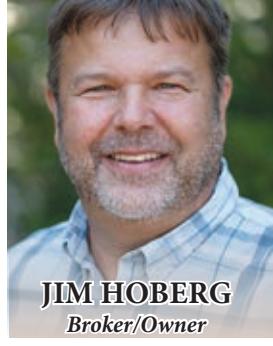

Locals are invited to unleash their creativity and show their patriotic pride by decorating their front porch, front window, yard, or any area of their home or business visible from the street. Registration is free and is open now through July 1 at 3:00 p.m. at FlorenceHabitat.org. The first 50 homes/businesses

Bark, bark, bark

TONY REED, EDITOR

I was in Newport awhile ago visiting this little place down off Bay Blvd. where the sea lions gather. Dozens of them piled up on the docks, leaving no room for any more to get out of the water. Every time a new sea lion jumped onto the pile, the rest barked and snapped at each other, with no measurable effect. As I was watching the relentless barking and biting continue with no cause, point or resolution, I was reminded of another place where such behavior happens- The comment sections on Facebook.

I say this because every time I print a political Letter to the Editor or publish local protest coverage, the barking starts up again. Often, it's directed at the paper.

I have to say it's confounding how some people still presume that letters to the editor represent the opinion of the paper, or that only certain letters get printed.

I can assure you that every single letter is printed. In fact, we used extra pages for letters during the recent election.

The truth is, for every nine or so liberal letters I receive, I get about one conservative viewpoint in writing.

Last year, when we ran the story of the Republican campaign office opening, I got disparaging letters and messages from the left. Predictably, the same response came from the right when we published a story about the Democratic campaign office opening.

Whether left or right, liberal or conservative, positive or negative, letters are the voices of community members.

Peaceful protests become a news story when hundreds of residents exercise their right to peacefully assemble. It almost seems as if some would rather we just ignore it.

I'll also share that I recently received a message on our Facebook message page. It barked, in a not-so-friendly way, that we should take down or change the "ugly profile photo" on the newspaper's Facebook page, saying, "A rainbow? Your woke is showing." Seriously- I can't make that up. A photo of a beautiful rainbow over the Port of Siuslaw is now "woke?" It was one of those moments where I wondered if the commenter was serious, or at least, failing an attempt at sarcasm or humor. (I read that a similar response occurred about the rainbow image on the 50th anniversary reissue of Dark Side of the Moon. I'm sure Pink Floyd and I had the same response.)

While I doubt that a single editorial in a small town paper will change anyone's mindset, I have to say this monomaniacal barking is not only tiresome, but ineffective. Perhaps, before commenting, we can ask ourselves, are we trying to find common ground, solve a problem or communicate in a way that informs and benefits everyone? Or are we just barking?

Keep Pets Safe This 4th of July: Tips from Oregon Coast Humane Society

The Oregon Coast Humane Society (OCHS) urges pet owners to take extra steps to protect their animals during 4th of July celebrations. Fireworks and festivities can be stressful and dangerous for pets—leading to fear, anxiety, and a sharp increase in lost animals each year.

HOW TO KEEP PETS SAFE DURING FIREWORKS:

- ID Tags & Microchips: Make sure pets wear a collar with ID tags and are microchipped. Keep microchip contact info current.
- Keep Pets Indoors: Create a safe, quiet space away from windows. Never leave pets outside during fireworks.
- Use Calming Tools: Try white noise, calming music, anxiety

- wraps, or vet-prescribed medications for anxious pets.
- Secure Your Home: Double-check doors, fences, and gates to prevent escapes.
- Leave Pets at Home: Don't bring dogs to fireworks shows or crowded events.
- Traveling with Pets? Plan Ahead.
- Florence sees an influx of tourists for the holiday—if you're bringing your pet, be extra cautious:

- Leash & Crate: Always use a leash and transport pets in a secure crate or carrier.
- Know Local Resources: In case of emergency, know where to find the nearest vet or shelter. OCHS is at 2840 Rhododendron Drive, Florence.
- Avoid Leaving Pets in Cars: Temperatures rise quickly even on cool days—never leave animals unattended.

"Even calm pets can panic at the sound of fireworks," said OCHS Executive Director Elizabeth Thompson. "A few simple steps can prevent heartbreak and keep your pet safe."

If your pet goes missing, or if you find a lost pet, call OCHS immediately at (541) 997-4277. OCHS also recommends posting on social media with recent pictures and pertinent information to expedite your pet's safe return.

Jellyfish appearing in river

Along the Port of Siuslaw last week, one could see jellyfish were visible from the shore.

Crystal jellyfish are common to the Oregon Coast and typically are not very large. While they do have stinging nettles, they are reportedly harmless to people. However, due to their small size and fragility, people should not catch or handle them. While they can reach about 8 inches across, most seen last week have been about 4 to 5 inches across. They are easy to spot, and appear to glow in certain lighting conditions. If illuminated with a black light, they will glow in bright blue and purple hues. While they can be seen moving, cannot swim against the tidal currents in the Siuslaw River. Changes in jellyfish populations are often indicative of other environmental changes.

At 7:07 a.m., officers responded to the 1700 block of Highway 126 for a report of a dispute occurring. Officers arrived to find two brothers arguing over a dog. Officers determined the altercation was not physical and separated the two subjects.

July 2. Voting for the best displays will open July 2 and run through July 4 at 4:00 p.m.

BAY STREET BIKE PARADE

Start the day on the 4th of July by decorating a bike, trike, wagon, scooter, or just about anything that moves and show your patriotic spirit during the 4th of July Bike Parade. Additional decorations will be on hand to help make your entry red, white, and blue.

Registration and staging for the bike parade will begin at 9:00 a.m. on Hemlock between Rhododendron Drive and First Street. The parade will begin at 10 a.m. Early registration forms are available at Florence Habitat ReStore and City Hall. If you don't want to ride in the parade, bring your lawn chairs to cheer on the parade as it makes its way down Bay Street.

PIE AND WATERMELON-EATING CONTESTS

You will not want to miss the Pie- and Watermelon-Eating Contest. This is a public favorite each year. Contestants from 5 to 105 can compete to see who can finish their piece first. The contest will take place at 2:00 p.m. on Friday, July 4, at the east end of the waterfront boardwalk near Bridgeport Market.

Sign-up begins at 10:30 at the competition site. Contestants under 18 years of age must be accompanied by an adult.

The cost is free to compete, but space is limited to the first 35 in each category. Competitions will be held for youth 5-10 years, teens 11-15 years, and adults 16 and older, with trophies for the winners. This year also includes a cookie bake sale as a fundraiser for Florence Habitat.

Register for the pie/watermelon eating contests and then enjoy some yummy cookies while supporting Florence Habitat for Humanity.

MUSIC AT THE PORT

For the fifth year in a row, festivities include live and recorded music to entertain attendees outdoors on the Three Rivers Casino Resort Stage, highlighted by music by host DJ Al Rojas and featuring the band FM DAZE. Rojas says there will be drawings for prizes throughout the free four-hour show. The music begins in Old Town at 6 p.m., and Rojas will provide patriotic music to accompany the fireworks display.

free tokens to other kids that could be used to buy anything at the market. Organizer Roanne Legg says it exposes kids to local foods and farmers, allowing them to make healthy food choices.

Market organizers try to keep a variety of locally produced foods available to residents while supporting local ranchers, growers, bakers, fishermen and more.

"We're in a transition this year so we are definitely looking for volunteers and financial support," Ledbetter said.

Performer Aaron Louis Gibson played bass and sang for market-goers June 24 and Robbie Dee Smith was scheduled for July 1. July 18 will feature a cooking demo and live music by Jamie Smith.

On July 15, EMAC and Master Recyclers of Florence will be sharing information on Lane County's new recycling program. Live music will be provided by Mike Brandow. The Local Matters tent will showcase educational and informational presentations throughout the summer. The Master Gardeners have been to the market as well as Julia from Siuslaw National Forest talking about pollinators.

"We also are looking for participation from the community at the Community Table," Legg said. "If you have an abundance coming out of your home garden, you can sell at the market without the whole process of having a table/tent."

Vikings' volleyball summer

Will LOHRE
Country Media, Inc.

It might be the middle of the summer vacation, but Siuslaw's volleyball squad isn't taking much time off, using the summer to sharpen their skills ahead of the impending fall season.

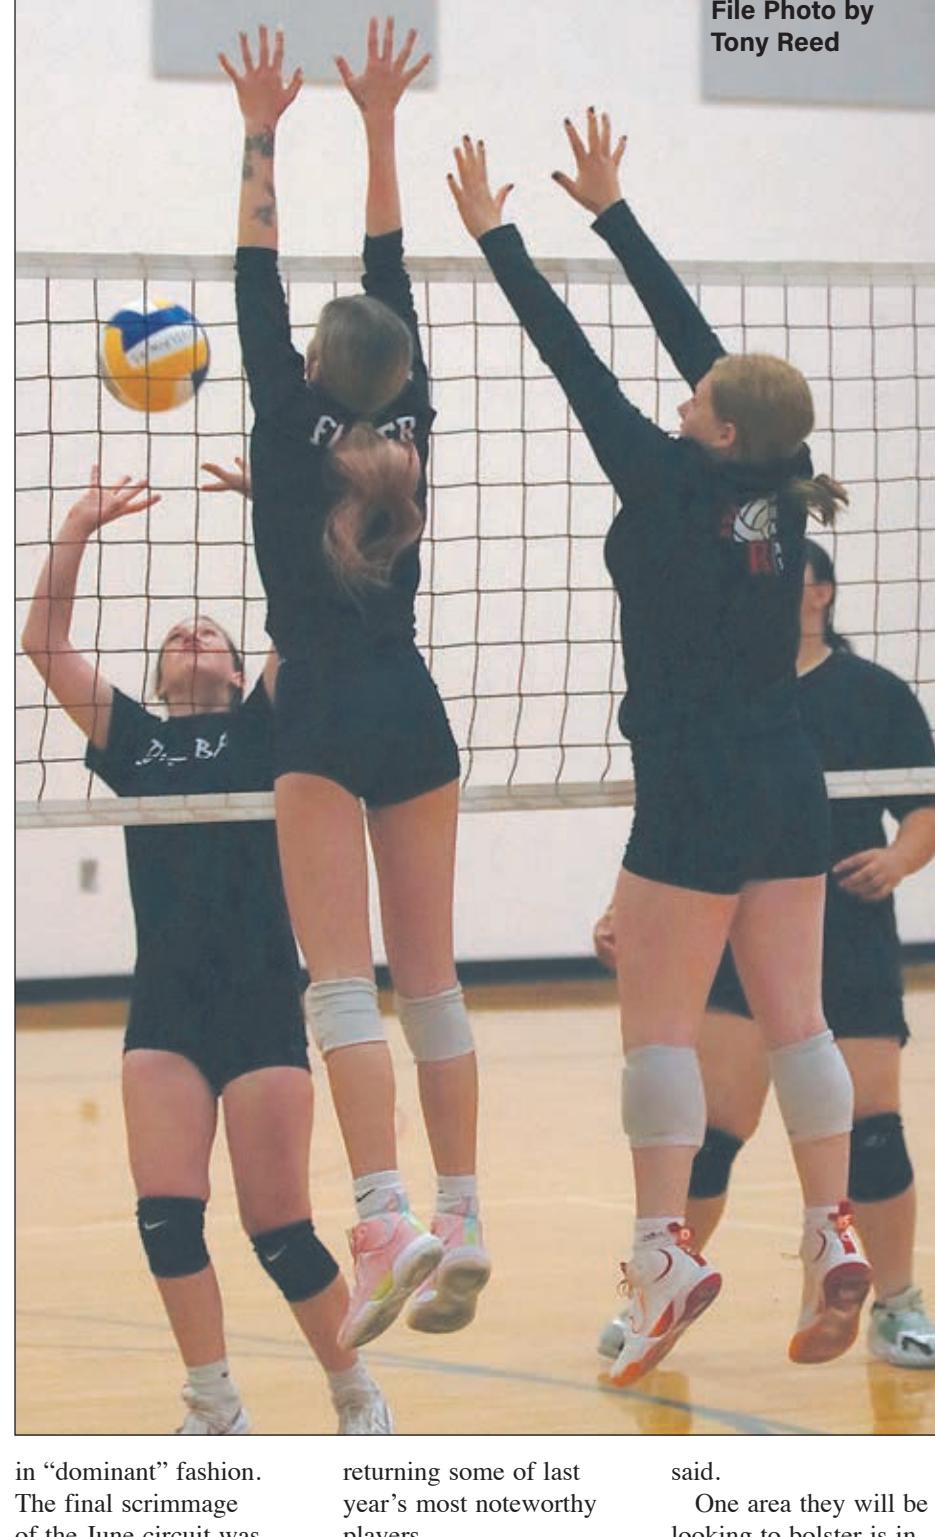

Since the volleyball season ended, Head Coach McKenzie Perry and the Vikings have been hosting open gyms every Saturday. With the freedom of the summer schedule, practice programming has been ramping up. So, what's the focus for Perry with the season still a few months away?

"Right now, we're having fun with the game and playing hard, getting our incoming freshmen up to speed, and we will start weight training on July 1," Perry said.

"We're also continuing to build on some of last season's main focus points, like being the first team to hit the ball the hardest—whether that be a serve or an attack, and our focus of having a quick tempo in everything we do, from hustle to the rate of play."

In addition to serving as an introduction for the program's rookies, June also featured scrimmages against other teams, providing the Vikings with valuable reps.

Scrimmages against Marshfield, Northbend, and Coquille on June 11 tested Siuslaw. Although there were some good moments, Siuslaw was unable to secure a win against any of the formidable programs. Six days later, on June 17, the Vikings got back to winning ways, taking care of smaller programs from Mapleton and Reedsport in "dominant" fashion. The final scrimmage of the June circuit was another matchup with Reedsport on June 19.

Perry said it was more of a fun vibe, with both programs mixing things up and having a good time.

After graduating four seniors last season, the summer period is the perfect time to lay the foundations for this year's team. Luckily for Siuslaw, they are returning some of last year's most noteworthy players.

"We have a good amount of important players returning, especially in the first two contacts of the rally—we've got our libero and defensive positions filled with returners (Paige Bottensek, Chloe Clark, Danin Lacouture), as well as experienced setters (Kylee Stinger and Stella Duman)," Perry said.

One area they will be looking to bolster is in their "hitting positions." Perry is hoping to make some moves and add a new variety of players, either from the freshman ranks or from the program's JV team. Luckily, they still have other versatile returners ready to step in where needed.

"We are returning Mia Snider, and she may continue in the middle or may move to the outside. She can do either, and it will depend on where new varsity players are prepared to play," Perry said. "We will also be using Stella Duman in a unique way this season to capitalize on her ability to hit as well as set."

Now that July is rolling around, things on the court are going to start to ramp up. The Vikings will begin summer training on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 5:00-7:00 p.m., starting on July 1.

"All players hoping to make both the JV or Varsity teams should be trying to attend whenever possible to prepare for the fall," Perry said.

FUNDRAISING AND COMMUNITY OUTREACH

August will also be a significant month for the Vikings, as they will host scrimmages and fundraisers aiming to bring the entire community together. These include:

• Siuslaw Volleyball Camp on Aug. 12-14

"This year we will be hosting the 2nd annual Siuslaw Volleyball Camp for incoming 6th-12th graders. Returning varsity players will be joining coaches from the middle school and high school to train the next generation of Siuslaw Volleyball Players. The cost is $40 and includes a fun Siuslaw Volleyball camp t-shirt, as supplies are available," Perry said.

Hagle among best-ever linemen at Siuslaw

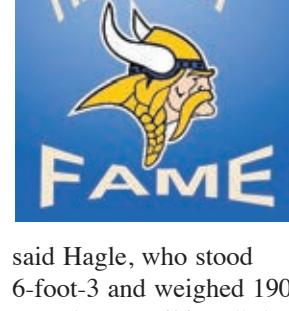

By DON HUNT

Tom Hagle was the best lineman on one of the best teams in Siuslaw High football history. The 1990 Siuslaw graduate was the first Viking to be named first-team all-state over two seasons.

"He was one of the top five blockers that I ever had," said Len Lutero, the head coach of the Vikings from 1967 through 1995. "He had great technique, he didn't make mistakes and he was smart."

Hagle broke into the starting lineup early in his sophomore year and occupied the right guard position over the next three seasons, during which the Vikings posted a 27-7 record, won the Coast League and advanced to the state playoffs all three years.

"What I remember most about playing at Siuslaw was the family atmosphere that we had," said Hagle, who stood 6-foot-3 and weighed 190 pounds as a Viking. "The team was very tight-knit, on and off the field. Most of us went to school together from kindergarten on up."

Hagle was a part of a Siuslaw offensive line that was among the best in school history. As a senior in 1989, Hagle was first-team all-state and center David Brackney and right tackle John Condie were second-team. Additionally, Dale Bursaw, a first-team all-state defensive tackle, often joined the others along the offensive line.

"We were a little undersized as a group but we were almost always quicker than the guys we went up against," said Hagle. "We would hit them before they hit us. We fired off the ball low and fast. That's something that we practiced every day."

Hagle was effective as a straight-ahead blocker, but he was also adept at trap blocking and as a pulling guard, leading interference around the ends. The beneficiaries were often running backs David Geers and Brent Sanford.

"Those were fun plays and our backs did a great job of cutting off the blocks," said Hagle.

Hagle credits Jerry Fleming with giving him words of encouragement when Hagle was elevated from the JV team to the varsity early in his sophomore season. Fleming, a center and defensive lineman, was the senior leader of Siuslaw's 1987 squad.

"He was very influential in helping me out," said Hagle. "We would hit them before they hit us. We fired off the ball low and fast. That's something that we practiced every day."

Hagle credits Jerry Fleming with giving him words of encouragement when Hagle was elevated from the JV team to the varsity early in his sophomore season. Fleming, a center and defensive lineman, was the senior leader of Siuslaw's 1987 scored, and so did Hagle. "My head was on the goal line on that play," he said. "I remember looking right down the line and I thought he (Geers) crossed the plane. It was very disappointing."

There were lots of highlights prior to the season-ending loss, including 17-7 and 36-27 wins over Sherwood and Ontario, respectively, in the first two rounds of the playoffs, and a 20-0 victory over No. 3-ranked and previously unbeaten Reedsport.

The 2025 Siuslaw High School Hall of Fame Induction will take place on August 22nd, 2025 in the Siuslaw High School Gym. Doors open at 5pm, and the ceremony will begin at 5:30. Admission is free, but a recommended donation of $10 to the Siuslaw Athletic Booster Club is encouraged.

Oregon Coast Military Museum Program

The Oregon Coast Military Museum announced recently that they are holding a Power Point presentation on 'The Birth and Evolution of the Jeep' on Saturday, July 19th in the Bromley Room at the Siuslaw Public Library. In a one-hour program, local Jeep enthusiast Cal Applebee, former and founding Board Member of the Museum, will explore the creation of the legendary jeep vehicle from WWII, as well as the iconic vehicle it has become today.

Operations Manager Geoffry Cannon stated "It is particularly appropriate that we share this story because of the multiple connections of the Jeep vehicle to our nation's military heritage." Cannon added "In addition to Cal being a local Jeep club leader with decades of experience with Jeeps, it was his vintage military jeep which he brought when he moved to Florence in 2005 that resulted in the eventual creation and opening of our Museum."

Applebee's program will include the government's efforts in the early 20th century to explore alternative transportation for the Army, its influence on the creation of the legendary reconnaissance vehicle as America prepared to enter WWII, as well as the brand's entire heritage through today. The program begins at 2:00 and is free to the public.

For more information, contact Cal Applebee at Cal97439@gmail.com

Forest Service Offers New Digital Northwest Forest Pass

As of June 20, the popular USDA Forest Service Annual Northwest Forest Pass will be available for online purchase at www.recreation.gov.

"In a desire to be responsive to interest and input from the public, an Annual Northwest Forest Pass can now be purchased online as we expand pass options for recreation users. Many users have been requesting digital passes for years, and we are pleased to make it happen," said Tracy Calizon, Assistant Director of Recreation, Lands, and Minerals.

The Northwest Forest Pass allows visitors to access day-use recreation fee sites and facilities at all Forest Service-operated recreation sites across Oregon and Washington.

The Annual Northwest Forest Pass costs $30, with no additional fee for purchases made online. The digital pass is available at www.recreation.gov by visiting a specific National Forest's profile and then selecting "Activities & Experiences." Like the hardcopy version, a digital pass is valid at all Forest Service-operated sites in Oregon and Washington. The digital pass must be printed, signed, and displayed on the vehicle's dashboard. Please remember that recreation passes are non-refundable.

Hardcopy passes can still be purchased in-person at a Forest Service office or local vendor. You may also order hardcopy passes online at Discover Your Northwest or the US Geological Survey Store.

Additional information about the Northwest Forest Pass is available at: <https://www.fs.usda.gov/r06/passes>.

OSU Extension offers forest management planning course in Eugene

Many Florence area property owners may be interested to know that Oregon State University Extension will be hosting a six-week course for land-owners on how to create a forest management plan for their land. A forest management plan is an important document that outlines a family's vision for their forest, describes the current forest condition, and outlines a plan of action to achieve management goals. Forest management plans are often required for forest certification programs, and they can be useful for taxes and business needs, succession planning, and land management decisions.

The course will be held on Wednesdays from 3 p.m. – 5 p.m., from July 30 to Sept. 3, at the OSU Extension office at 996 Jefferson Street in Eugene. Each week, we will walk through a different section of a forest management

NEW BUSINESS

Florentine Hotel adds charm and style to Westlake

By TONY REED
The Siuslaw News

A couple has brought new life to an old business in Westlake, which will certainly be enjoyed by locals and visitors alike. Robin Singh and fiancé Sharan Kaur have been renovating the former Fish Mill Lodges and RV park for about eight months and recently celebrated with a grand opening.

Singh said the property was formerly used as a hotel, but its full history has not been uncovered yet.

After a former supper club building there burned down in the 1930's, it was rebuilt as the Fish Mill Lodge and RV Park, which operated into the 2000s.

He said it hadn't been used much in the last five years, leaving several of the buildings in rotted and dilapidated condition. The interiors needed to be gutted and rebuilt, but the hotel opened in April with just two rooms.

"As of two weeks ago, we got all of them up and running," he said, adding that they would like to include a restaurant and outdoor improvements over time. Kaur said hot tubs may be installed outside some rooms this summer.

Saying Singh was the creative force behind the room designs, Kaur explained that theme ideas from a lot of research and room names were conceived on the road trip here. For example, the Almost every themed room features a lake view and a full kitchen.

Robin Singh, Sharan Kaur, co-managers Katie Frontiero and Sean Beaucher stand over the docks next to Florentine Waterfront Hotel.

Merlot Manor is wine-themed and the Sage Suite has a calming, meditative feel. Others have creatively designed furniture, hand painted ceiling murals, unique artwork and interesting amenities.

The couple worked with designers to come up with floor plans and designs for each room and furniture was custom-made to suit each theme. Kaur explained that the name came from the French "Florentine," meaning of, or relating to the city of Florence, Italy.

She said former guests have said they want to return so they can stay in each of the themed rooms.

Rooms have full kitchens and pets are allowed in all but one, the Vanilla Villa.

Kaur said they have also researched local restaurants and have compiled a local food guide for guests.

"We've eaten at most of the restaurants now," she laughed, "so based on that, we put together a little guide."

The hotel has 10

themed rooms and most have a view of the lake. Lake access is available via a small boat ramp and the hotel has some kayaks available for use.

Strange
BUT TRUE

• Squirrels play a role in reforestation by forgetting some of the buried nuts and seeds they store, which then sprout into new trees.

• In late 1800's Australia, some desperate sufferers of rheumatism climbed into a whale carcass in their search for relief, and were told to remain there for 20-30 hours, with occasional breaks. The heat and gases emitted by the decomposing animal were believed to create a sweat box of healing compounds.

• Acrylic nails were invented in 1957 by a dentist experimenting with how to create an artificial fingernail to protect his thumb after he'd accidentally cut it.

• The Inuit people used goggles made from bone, wood or other hard material to protect their eyes from UV rays more than 2,000 years ago, designed to cover the eye while leaving a small slit to see through. The slit narrowed and sharpened the wearer's field of vision while protecting their eyes from snow glare.

• In 1980, Detroit gave Saddam Hussein a key to the city out of recognition of donations he had made to local churches.

• School desks have 300 times more bacteria than a toilet seat.

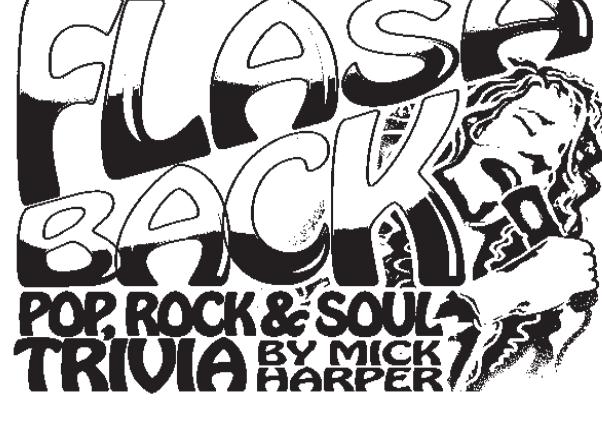

• Marion Donovan created the first practical disposable diaper in 1950 by using shower curtains for plastic covering and layers of tissue as the inner absorbent material.

• Uranus rotates on its side, appearing to roll around the sun like a ball, according to NASA. The most likely explanation for this unusual orientation is that it experienced some type of massive collision in ancient times.

• American Christians are more likely to take "morally neutral" risks when they think about God as a benevolent protector.

5. "Fire Lake," by Bob Seger & the Silver Bullet Band, in 1980. Partially penned in 1971, Seger hoped to include the song on his 1975 album, but it wasn't finished by then. It eventually made it onto his 1980 album, "Against the Wind."
