

The Illinois Department of Natural Resources purchased a 4,500 acre tract of the old Burning Star Mine located just east of De Soto. The surface mine was operational until 1989.