VOICES OF TRUTH

VANESSA BROUSSEAU

Thursday, September 25th | 7:30 pm

Join Vanessa Brousseau, an Inuk and Ojibwe artist and founder of Resilient Inuk Creations, as she shares her story. She discusses reclaiming Indigenous identity, MMIWG2S advocacy, and her grandfather's residential school experience.

ARTIST LIFE STORIES: CHELSEY JUNE

Friday, September 26th | 7:30 pm

Join award-winning artist Chelsey June for an evening of music and storytelling. Through live performances, she shares her journey of dreams, success, and heartbreak while offering an inspiring look at resilience and healing.

LYNDA PARTRIDGE

Sunday, September 28th | 1 & 4 pm

Join Lynda Partridge, a member of the Algonquins of Pikwakanagan First Nation, as she shares her story. Having grown up in non-Indigenous foster homes, she later earned BSW and MSW degrees and reconnected with her birth family and culture during her studies.

JACK PAYETTE

Wednesday, October 1st | 6:30 pm

Join Jack Payette, an Indigenous author from the Odawa Nation, as he discusses his book Nitam. The story follows three Anishinaabe teens escaping personal terrors as one embarks on a spiritual journey of self-discovery.
