Alex Jarousky, Attleboro

Jarousky was a tough player for the Bombardiers, converting from defense to left wing with the transition paying off big in his senior year. Jarousky collected seven goals and five assists this season and came up big in big games, scoring three game-winning goals. The Hockomock League All-Star netted the overtime winner against Foxboro on a penalty shot and scoring a last-minute goal for the lone goal of the game in a win over North Attleboro.

Beckett Stone, Attleboro

Only a sophomore, Stone’s 23 points were the team-high as the scoring defenseman could take over games in Attleboro’s favor. His ability to control pace of play, handle the puck in stride, and utilize his vision to find open teammates made him a threat in any spot. The Bombardiers’ co-MVP was also a Hockomock League All-Star.

Jake Westwater, Attleboro

The Bombardiers’ other sophomore co-MVP, Westwater logged 769 minutes in goal. The a Hockomock League All-Star picked up seven wins in net while posting a goals against average of 2.63 and a save percentage of 90.2 — both top-end numbers in the Hockomock League among goalies with 700-plus minutes played. His standout 34-save performance in a win over Foxboro, and a 37-save shutout of North Attleboro were highlights in a season where Westwater has assured that the Bombardiers’ goaltending situation will be locked up for the next two seasons.

Thomas Besarick, Bishop Feehan

A junior defenseman, Besarick stabilized the Bishop Feehan blue line corps with his 10-point season. Besarick’s ability to excel in all situations made him a pivotal player for the nine-win Shamrocks.

Christopher Morrison, Bishop Feehan

Morrison led Bishop Feehan in scoring, tallying 26 points in his junior campaign as a high-skill skater for the Shamrocks. A hard worker with a good attitude, Morrison was named a captain for next season as he looks to continue his success into his senior season.

Nikko Chiaradonna, Foxboro

Only a sophomore, Chiaradonna is already a two-time Sun Chronicle All-Star. He had 18 goals with 16 assists for Foxboro this season, utilizing his unique skillset to make scoring plays happen almost entirely on his own. A highly competitive, fierce and still evolving, Chiradonna is a tone-setter for the Foxboro offense and will play a big role next season.

Jack Pessa, Foxboro

Pessa anchored the net for Foxboro, playing 867 minutes in goal with 517 saves in his senior season. Pessa went toe-to-toe with some of the best in the area and was a big part of Foxboro’s nine-win season. He had a 3.37 goals against average and a 88% save percentage, leaving a void for the Warriors to fill next season.

Ryan Wood, Foxboro

Wood finished his senior season fourth in the Hockomock League in scoring, tallying 23 goals with 14 assists. A top-line asset on any team, Wood led Foxboro in scoring and was a hard-working forward who developed a strong shot in his time with the program.

Grady Bianculli, King Philip

Grady ended the year with a slightly better stat line than his brother and fellow team co-captain Sonny, scoring five goals with 16 assists for 21 points. The junior forward used his speed and scoring touch to generate King Philip’s attack, which was second in the Hockomock League’s Kelley-Rex Division behind only Taunton.

Sonny Bianculli, King Philip

A team co-captain on the blue line, the multi-time Sun Chronicle All-Star closed his junior campaign with 16 points, tallying 12 assists with four goals for the Warriors as a top-line defenseman with room to elevate and improve his game going into his junior season.

Ted Dolan, King Philip

Dolan was a wall in goal for the Warriors all season, helping King Philip to nine wins and a 5-3 record in Hockomock League play. The senior stopper posted a goals against average of 3.41 with a save percentage of 89%, making 456 saves in in over 700 minutes of ice time (18 games.) as he kept King Philip in every game.

Declan Foley, Mansfield

Foley’s role as a captain continued into this season with the senior improving on his play on both ends of the ice to become a quality scoring defender. Foley collected eight goals with seven assist and his steadiness kept the Hornets together as they finished second in the Hockomock League Davenport Division.

Thomas Gormley, Mansfield

Gormley earned the Hornets’ Leadership Award for his senior savvy this season, adding to his two team MVP nods from his time in the program. The three-time Sun Chronicle All-Star added puck distribution to his game this past season, working to find the open man from a defenseman position. Despite taking a hit in his own points department, the Hornets saw an uptick in their scoring with Gormley’s unselfish contributions this season as he finished with nine goals and 14 assists.

Brendan Vokey, Mansfield

Vokey’s 18 goals and 17 assists were team-high totals and ranked the senior scorer sixth in the Hockomock League in points. The Hornets’ MVP and two-time Sun Chronicle All-Star is a strong two-way player who was key in every situation for Mansfield, helping Mansfield to a record of
