BOYS SOCCER: The Sun Chronicle All-Star Team

FROM PAGE B2

Troy Lasbury-Casey, Mansfield

The Hornet senior goaltender served as the last line of defense behind Mansfield's youthful defensive core and came through time and time again. Lasbury-Casey concluded his four-year varsity career, which included two seasons as the starter between the posts, with four shutouts and a 0.848 goals against average. He was named a Hockomock League All-Star and is a first-time Sun Chronicle selection.

Dom Nassif, Mansfield

Named a Hockomock League All-Star, the Mansfield senior captain showcased both a scoring touch and relentless pursuit of ball possession for the postseason-qualifying Hornets. Nassif capped his Mansfield tenure with five goals and two assists. He is a first-time Sun Chronicle All-Star.

Tyler Dameron, North Attleboro

An Eastern Mass. State Coaches Association All-Star, the Rocketeers senior midfielder was a key playmaker in the attacking third. "He created a majority of our scoring chances," North Attleboro coach Geoff Burgess said of Dameron, who finished with seven goals and seven assists this season. Dameron was named a Hockomock League All-Star and Attleboro's Team MVP. He is a first-time Sun Chronicle selection.

Parker Peri, North Attleboro

The Rocketeers senior forward was the focal point of North Attleboro's attack and tied for the team high in goals with seven and one assist. North Attleboro coach Geoff Burgess credited Peri for his knowledge of the system, allowing teammates to come forward. Peri was a Hockomock League All-Star and the Rocketeers' Offensive Player of the Year. He is a first-time Sun Chronicle All-Star.

Eddie Sharkey, Tri-County

A Mayflower Athletic Conference All-Star, the Cougars' junior captain predominately played striker but showcased his versatility to play anywhere he was needed. Sharkey was a focal point on the T-C attack with his pursuit leading to a team-best five goals and two assists.
