Landon Vieira, Attleboro

Viera’s sophomore season ended with a 43-point showing for the Bombardiers, scoring 32 goals with 11 assists. Vieira also caused 42 turnovers and collected 73 ground balls as a midfield presence for Attleboro.

Harry Wheaton, Attleboro

One of the most successful goalies to come out of Attleboro’s lacrosse program, Wheaton held a 59.7% save percentage in his senior season, stopping 258 shots to end his high school career with 918 saves. Wheaton gave Attleboro a chance to win every time he was in goal and is a multiple-time Sun Chronicle All-Star.

Adam Hertel, Bishop Feehan

Hertel was in the running for Catholic Central League Defensive Player of The Year as a CCL All-Star in his freshman season. Hertel turned heads in preseason to become a staple in the defense, causing takeaways and forcing turnovers for the Shamrocks. Hertel took on opponents’ top offensive weapons, forcing 36 ground balls and 20 caused turnovers. When not playing defense, Hertel also played as a long stick midfielder and took some faceoffs.

Blake Masso, Bishop Feehan

Another dominant player for the Shamrocks, Masso was a freshman Catholic Central League All-Star who made an instant impact, scoring 42 goals with 42 assists. He was a frequent contributor and one of the most dominant players on the field.

Cooper Masso, Bishop Feehan

A junior transfer from Catholic Memorial, Masso joined his younger brother Blake to dominate for Feehan, closing the year with a 100-point season as the Catholic Central League’s MVP. Shamrocks head coach Tom Sheerin called Masso, “The best player on the field, immediately,” as the junior finished with 59 goals and 41 assists to lead the Shamrocks to an 11-win season.

Pat Sintorn, Dighton-Rehoboth

Sintorn was a solid defensive-minded player for the Falcons, finishing fourth in ground balls with 38 in 17 games. The long stick midfielder rarely engaged in the attacking rush, but had one goal as he held down the back end.

Jaiden Solitro, Dighton-Rehoboth

With 54 goals in 17 games, Solitro was a terror to opposing defenses on offense for the Falcons. Solitro averaged 3.2 goals per game, leading D-R with 77 points. He added 34 ground balls and will return for what will be a senior-heavy cast next season for the Falcons.

Jack Swan, Dighton-Rehoboth

A South Coast Conference All-Star Swan scored 47 goals with 21 assists in 16 games for a 68-point season. The junior led D-R in ground balls with 105 as the only Falcon in triple digits with an average of 6.6 ground balls per game.

Adam Addeche, Foxboro

One of the best goalies in the Hockomock League, the Warriors’ senior four-year starter and captain made 206 saves. Addeche was named the Defensive MVP ground balls for the Warriors, constantly getting paired up with the focal point of opposing offenses to help hold opponents to under seven goals per game.

Noah Minkwitz, King Philip

A midfielder who played physical, Minkwitz finished his senior season with 36 goals and 21 assists for a 57-point season. In four varsity seasons, the multiple-time Sun Chronicle All-Star tallied 98 goals, including back-to-back 40 goal years. The Hockomock League All-Star utilized his ability to shoot from the outside along with his drive to the net to lead King Philip to 13 wins.

Mason Thompson, King Philip

Second on the Warriors in scoring as a sophomore, Thompson was one of four KP players to collect 40 points or more, collecting 29 goals with 45 assists for a 74-point season. Known more for dishing out assists than scoring, Thompson put together a seven-point game in the first round of the state tourney against Agawam. He was also named a Hockomock League All-Star.
