

The Girls Lacrosse All-Stars

Isabella Cavallini, Attleboro

The Attleboro senior captain and team MVP led the Bombardiers' attack in her final campaign. Cavallini totaled 84 points while scoring 46 goals and dishing a team-high 38 assists to go with 98 draw controls and 47 ground balls. A multiple-time Sun Chronicle All-Star and a Hockomock League All-Star, Cavallini, who concluded her four-year career with 272 points on 183 goals and 89 assists, will play lacrosse at Bentley University next year.

Amelia Collins, Attleboro

The Bombardier junior provided a scoring punch equal among the best in the Hockomock League. The two-time Sun Chronicle All-Star led the Attleboro attack with a team-high 80 goals and six assists with 30 draw controls and 15 ground balls. Recognized as Attleboro's Offensive Player of the Year, Collins amassed 183 career goals in three seasons. She was a Hockomock League All-Star.

Peyton McAuliffe, Attleboro

McAuliffe served as the last line of defense for the Bombardiers as a Hockomock League All-Star. The Attleboro senior captain recorded a .419 save percentage (151 saves on 360 shots) during her final campaign with a .440 career save percentage. McAuliffe was honored with Attleboro's Blue Pride Award.

Emmette Barry, Bishop Feehan

The Bishop Feehan sophomore midfielder burst onto the scene as one of the more impressive underclassmen in the Catholic Central League. Barry was the primary draw taker for the Shamrocks, contributing in the circle all while finishing with 55 points on 43 goals and 12 assists. She was named a Catholic Central League All-Star.

Alexandra Buonaccorsi, Bishop Feehan

A multi-time Sun Chronicle All-Star, the Bishop Feehan senior captain provided the Shamrocks with versatility as she rotated between midfield and attack. Buonaccorsi ranked second on the team in points (43) while scoring 36 goals with seven assists. She also made her presence felt in the draw circle. Buonaccorsi was named a Catholic Central League All-Star.

Katherine Yurof, Bishop Feehan

A Central Catholic League All-Star, the Bishop Feehan junior was pivotal to the Shamrocks defense. Yurof consistently took on the toughest individual matchups and used her impressive stick skills to get into passing lanes and lead crucial clears against tough rides.

Karina Bosco, Dighton-Rehoboth

Recognized as a USA Lacrosse All-Academic honoree by the Eastern Mass. Coaches Association, Bosco concluded a dynamite five-year career. A multiple-time Sun Chronicle All-Star, Bosco was a four-time South Coast Conference All-Star and two-time captain. She totaled 102 points on 86 goals and 16 assists this season, bringing her career total to 395 points on 345 goals. She will play lacrosse at Plymouth State University.

Olivia Thibert, Dighton-Rehoboth

A three-time South Coast Conference

Attleboro High senior Isabella Cavallini, was the MVP for the Bombardiers this past season with 46 goals and 38 assists.

Bishop Feehan High senior captain Alexandra Buonaccorsi was second on the Shamrocks in scoring with 36 goals and seven assists.

All-Star, the senior midfielder served as the draw specialist with 45 draw controls on the season and 116 in her career. The two-time captain and multiple-time Sun Chronicle All-Star also recorded 69 points on 44 goals and 25 assists during her senior season, ultimately earning the honor of Team MVP. Thibert, who scored 120 goals during four seasons, will play lacrosse at Plymouth State University.

Mansfield High junior Tessa Johnson, right, collected 31 goals and 17 assists for the Hornets

TYLER HETU / THE SUN CHRONICLE

Audrey Campell, Foxboro

One of the top goaltenders in the Hockomock League, the Foxboro senior captain ensured the Warriors' dynamic offense was complemented by an equally strong defense. A two-time Sun Chronicle All-Star, Campbell recorded a .447 save percentage during her senior season en route to a .474 career mark. Campbell will continue her lacrosse career at Norwich University.

Chloe McGarry, Foxboro

McGarry was one of the top youngsters in the Hockomock League while carving out a crucial role for the Warriors. The sophomore midfielder recorded 78 points on 38 goals and 40 assists during her second varsity season, adding to her tally of 125 career points on 59 goals and 66 assists. McGarry was selected as a Hockomock League All-Star and named Foxboro's Unsung Hero.

Cate Noone, Foxboro

Named the Hockomock League's Dav-enport Division MVP, Noone led one of the top attacking groups in the league with 121 points on 78 goals and 43 assists. The two-time Sun Chronicle All-Star and multi-time All-Hockomock All-Star concluded her career with 359 points on 206 goals and 153 assists. Noone served as a senior captain and was Foxboro's MVP. She will continue her lacrosse career at Furman University.

Addison Riley, Foxboro

The junior midfielder contributed to Foxboro's scoring punch with 92 points on 69 goals and 23 assists. Riley tallied 205 points on 158 goals and 47 assists during her first three seasons with the Warriors. She is a two-time Sun Chronicle All-Star and a Hockomock League All-Star. Riley earned Foxboro's Offensive Player of the Year award.

Sierra King, King Philip

The King Philip senior captain controlled the pace of play in the midfield and packed a scoring punch with 75 points on 43 goals and a team-high 32 assists. A multiple-time Sun Chronicle All-Star, King spent four seasons with the Warriors varsity team. She was named a Hockomock League All-Star after KP's 16-win regular season. King will continue her lacrosse career at Stonehill University.

Makenzie McDewitt, King Philip

The Boston University commit concluded her four-year career as the Hockomock League's Kelley-Rex Division MVP. McDewitt also was recognized as a USA Lacrosse All-Academic honoree by the Eastern Mass. Girls' Lacrosse Coaches Association, earning a Second Team selection. KP's senior captain and midfielder, the multiple-time Sun Chronicle All-Star finished with 89 points on 68 goals and 21 assists.

Girls Lacrosse All-Star Roster

Name	School	Year
Isabella Cavallini	Attleboro	Senior
Amelia Collins	Attleboro	Junior
Peyton McAuliffe	Attleboro	Senior
Emmette Barry	Bishop Feehan	Soph.
Alexandra Buonaccorsi	Bishop Feehan	Senior
Katherine Yurof	Bishop Feehan	Junior
Karina Bosco	Dighton-Rehoboth	Senior
Olivia Thibert	Dighton-Rehoboth	Senior
Audrey Campell	Foxboro	Senior
Chloe McGarry	Foxboro	Soph.
Cate Noone	Foxboro	Senior
Addison Riley	Foxboro	Junior
Sierra King	King Philip	Senior
Makenzie McDewitt	King Philip	Senior
Kaitlyn Parish	King Philip	Senior
Tessa Johnson	Mansfield	Junior
Ella Palanza	Mansfield	Senior
Grace Gouck	North Attleboro	Senior
Ellie Regan	North Attleboro	Senior
Ellie Lyons	Norton	Senior
Ella McPartland	Norton	Senior

Honorable Mention

Attleboro: Makenah Stokes, Ryann Mooney
Bishop Feehan: Clare Latham
Dighton-Rehoboth: Marrison Levesque, Gia Papa, Phoebe Braga
Foxboro: Hannah Higgins
King Philip: Lauren Obara
Mansfield: Lana DiSangro, Carys Colby, Maddie Boyle
North Attleboro: Brianna Burns, Addie Curran, Carleigh Swenson
Norton: Madden Ribeiro

Our Selections

THE GIRLS LACROSSE ALL-STAR TEAM was selected with local coaches consulted for their recommendations.

Kaitlyn Parish, King Philip

Parish routinely turned away opponents' scoring chances with her prowess between the posts. The senior goaltender was a three-year varsity starter for the Warriors and recorded a .543 save percentage in her final season after a .534 mark as a junior. The two-time Sun Chronicle All-Star finished her final campaign with a 6.68 goals against average.

Tessa Johnson, Mansfield

A Hockomock League All-Star, Johnson proved to be a key factor on the Mansfield attack. The Hornet junior finished with 48 points on 31 goals and 17 assists, including a five-point game that helped Mansfield defeat Plymouth North.

Ella Palanza, Mansfield

The Mansfield senior midfielder capped her career by compiling 86 points on a team-high 70 goals and 16 assists while her 84 draw controls showcased her skills in the circle. Palanza is a two-time Sun Chronicle All-Star and a Hockomock League All-Star as she earned Mansfield's Offensive MVP award. She will continue her lacrosse career at Curry College.

SEE GIRLS LACROSSE, PAGE B3 ►

TYLER HETU / THE SUN CHRONICLE

King Philip Regional High senior Makenzie McDewitt was the Hockomock League's Kelley-Rex Division MVP with 68 goals and 21 assists.