

55th Anniversary ~ May 17, 1970

Mr. and Mrs. Henry (Sylvia) Robinson

Mr. Robinson is a retired lecturer from Felton Laboratory School and Mrs. Robinson retired from South Carolina State University as a student service program manager. They have three children: Bryant Demetrius Robinson of Orangeburg; Dr. Deidra Robinson (Gregory) Bowden of Florence, SC; Dr. Devin Lamont (Dr. Tia) Robinson of Columbia, SC. They are blessed with 9 grandchildren: Brandi Laura (Pastor Andrew), Bryant Lee, Mackenzie Laurain, Bryce Demetrius, Devin Lamanuel, Audrey Sylvia, Desmond Lamont, Bradley Craig and Kendall Lee.

The Robinsons celebrated with a “wedding” which included their children, grandchildren, relatives, cousin Keyrell and friends as the wedding party, along with their original witnesses, Mr. & Mrs. Dennis (Lois) Thompson (Best Man and Matron of Honor). Mrs. Robinson’s sister, Dolores Scott, served as Matron of Honor. Honored guests were Mr. and Mrs. Earl (Gail) Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred (Beatrice) Salley and Mrs. Ruth Bowden. The Officiant was a classmate and former pastor, Reverend Dr. Larry D. McCutcheon along with their current pastor, Reverend Dr. Eddie C. Williams, Trinity United Methodist Church of Orangeburg.

The ceremony featured a “Homily” entitled “Bless This House” given by Reverend McCutcheon. A reception followed the vow renewal ceremony in the George Watson Fellowship Hall.

What has sustained the Robinsons through fifty-five years?
“God’s grace has been our anchor for fifty-five years along with our love for each other and knowing how to forgive.”
