And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed. And Joseph also went up to be taxed with Mary, his espoused wife, being great with child.

And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, saying, "Where is he that is born King of the Jews? For we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him."

When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.
And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

And the angel said unto them,
Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord.

And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on Earth peace, good will toward men.

& Celebrating 60 Years Of Service To The Community

Bowling Funeral Home was founded in 1965 by Ed Bowling. The funeral home began on Dixie Street in a small home where the Farmer's Market is now. Ed's son, Doug, carries on his legacy, with the help of his son Barkley and nephew Jordan as the third generation of funeral directors at Bowling Funeral Home. We strive to treat everyone with the respect and dignity they deserve in such a difficult time in their lives.

Bowling Funeral Home is London's longest running family owned funeral home with the most experienced and most qualified funeral directors in the county. Locally owned by the Bowling Family for 60 years proves their dedication to the people of our community and confirms we're the funeral home you can trust and lean on in your time of need. At Bowling Funeral Home we take pride in our customer service in every aspect of serving families. We personally answer our phones 24 hours a day, every day of the year. A member of our family will always be available to you no matter the time day or night. The Bowling family continues our personal care throughout the arranging process and conducting of services. This ensures that you, as well as your loved one, are lovingly cared for from the initial call to their final resting place. This sets us apart, as families are able to lean on our family at all times.

The Bowling family loves the people of London and Laurel County, and we feel honored to serve our cherished community. Thank you for your support these past 60 years and we look forward to serving you for many more.
