Micah and Me Dance Party set for July 22

LANGLOIS - A family dance party with Micah and Me will be held at 6:30 p.m., Sunday, July 22, at the old Langlois Cheese Factory, 94179 Allen Boice Drive.

Cost to attend the dance party is $10 per family.

Micah and Me is a band made up of three at-home dads who desire to entertain, educate and empower children from 0-7 and families through the power of music. For a few years now, they have had the pleasure of playing hundreds of live shows for children and families all over Oregon and Washington.

Micah and Me have been voted one of the top give kindie performers in Portland in both 2017 and 2018.

They play ukulele, guitar, bass drum and bass guitar while singing and dancing their hearts out. The show is 45-60 minutes, depending on the kids' attention span. Kids and parents engage in guided and free-form dancing throughout the show. Often they include parachute play and bubbles in their performances. At the end of the show they offer an instrument petting zoo. Micah and Me love performing for children and families.

Guided hike at South Slough offered by library

BANDON - The South Slough National Estuarine Research Reserve and the Bandon Public Library join together to offer a free guided interpretive hike on Thursday, July 26, at the South Slough Reserve near Charleston. The reserve is a 5,900 acre natural area located in the Coos estuary.

The reserve was designated in 1974 as the first unit of the National Estuarine Research Reserve System, a network of estuary habitats protected and managed for the purposes of long-term research, education and coastal stewardship. As the Bandon Public Library continues its Big Fish Vision series, the library is pleased to offer this opportunity to learn more about the South Slough Reserve.

The easy- to- moderate hike is 3 miles. The reserve's guides will educate participants about plants and animals of the Coastal Mountain Range and specific adaptations that help them live there. Anyone who would like to participate must register at the Bandon Public Library by July 20 by stopping in or phoning Sara Michael at 541-347-3221. The hike will take place from 10 a.m.-noon Thursday, July 26, at the reserve.

Participants must arrange their own transportation to and from the reserve. They are welcome to bring their own lunch and enjoy the natural beauty of the grounds as well as the exhibits offered by the reserve. Dress for the weather and wear comfortable hiking shoes.

Remodeled 3/1 duplex, garage, fenced yard, NS NP, $1250. SD, app fee. Call 541-551-0654 for details.

Programs offered at Bullards

BANDON - Bullards Beach State Park continues its summer programs for 2018. The programs run from 7-8 p.m. through Sept. 1, Tuesdays through Saturdays, with the exception of the Oregon Old Time Fiddlers, who will play from 2-3:30 p.m. on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month. The programs are held in either the amphitheater or the meeting yurt and are free and open to the public.

Carpooling or parking at the east side picnic area and walking into the campground is encouraged to avoid parking issues and traffic congestion. Allow enough time if walking in.

Bullards also has a top-notch Junior Ranger program that runs from 10-11 a.m. Tuesdays through Saturdays throughout the summer. On Saturdays, the Junior Rangers take part in a bicycle parade.

They have a chance to decorate their bikes and learn bike safety before the parade, then they ride throughout the park. All children are welcome.

This week's programs:

Thursday, July 12, amphitheater - "Bandon Beach Treasures" with Haven Andrist. Uncover the rocks, fossils and petrified wood found on our beaches and learn how to identify them.

Annual dog show coming to Bandon July 12-15

BANDON -- The Coos Kennel Club will hold its annual AKC all-breed dog show Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 12, 13, 14 and 15, outdoors in the grassy area between Bandon High School and Harbor Lights Middle School, 550 Ninth St. SW. The show will run from 9 a.m.-4 or 5 p.m. daily.

The public is welcome to attend. For information on when certain breeds will be showing, visit barayevents.com, find the Coos Kennel Club show under "shows" on the left side of the home page, then scroll to the bottom of the page and click on "show documents," for a pdf file that lists all the details.

The show will feature four all-breed dog shows, with junior showmanship. There will be individual breed competitions as well as group showings (hound, working, herding, terrier, toy, sporting, non-sporting and best in show) each day. The national owner-handled series will be held on Friday and Saturday.

There are approximately 395 dogs entered in the show, featuring 97 breeds.

There is no charge for admission or parking. There will be vendors and food booths, as well as a food booth sponsored by the Bandon High School football team with fresh shrimp cocktails and other items to help raise funds for the upcoming football season.

Each day the competitions start over. On Friday and Saturday, approximately at 2 p.m. during the group showings, there will be free strawberry shortcake (Friday) and free hot-dogs and chips (Saturday) for competitors and the public.

"We have a lot of professional handlers who come to this show," said Linda Waggoner, one of the show's organizers. "Some of these handlers also compete at the famous Westminster Dog Show, which is televised on national TV."

For more information, contact show chairman Diana Foreman at 541-269-2009.
