Did you know?

Did you know that just plain water can help to prevent cavities and gum disease?

It's true! A tiny high pressure stream of water directed between teeth and gums can disrupt bacteria and dislodge food particles that are not reached by brushing and flossing. When used daily, it can even control periodontal disease! What a good idea for a gift!

We've come a long way! With excellent dental care from Dr. Strong, you will protect your teeth, look great, and feel even better.

History comes to life at Hughes House

SIXES - Visitors to the Historic Hughes House are invited to listen in on conversations between pioneer Jane Hughes and family members, neighbors and travelers. This year's Living History begins Wednesday, June 6, and continues each Wednesday, except July 4, between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m., with the final presentation Aug. 29.

The six short scenes, written by local historian Shirley Nelson, depict Jane's life at the Hughes

House near Cape Blanco in the early 1900's. Inge Licon, in her 10th year as Jane Hughes, appears in all the scenes.

Greg Ryder portrays Jane's son Edward just back from a trip to bustling San Francisco; Caara Williams is Georgina McKenzie from an adjoining dairy farm; Erica Godbey is daughter-in-law Annie on laundry day. Tim Self portrays Father Keveny, a traveling priest serving the South Coast; Emily Gwynn is Irish immigrant Catherine Kelly en route to a new life in Astoria. Jada Ryder and Lily Albiston are audience favorites as Jane's young grandchildren Annie and Agnes from across the Sixes River.

These scenes come to life under the auspices of Oregon State Parks and the Cape Blanco Heritage Society. The Living History coordinator is Susan Russell.

Admission to Hughes House is free. Donations are welcomed.

Programs offered at Bullards Beach

BANDON - Bullards Beach State Park continues its summer programs for 2018. The programs run from 7-8 p.m. June 1 through Sept. 1, Tuesdays through Saturdays, with the exception of the Oregon Old Time Fiddlers, who will play from 2-3:30 p.m. on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month. The programs are held in either the amphitheater or the meeting yurt and are free and open to the public.

Bullards also has a top-notch Junior Ranger program that runs from 10-11 a.m. Tuesdays through Saturdays throughout the summer. On Saturdays, the Junior Rangers take part in a bicycle parade. They have a chance to decorate their bikes and learn bike safety before the parade, then they ride throughout the park. All children are welcome.

This week's programs:

Tuesday, June 5, 7 p.m., meeting yurt:
"A Trip to Bandon, About 100 years Ago,"

Wednesday, June 6, 7 p.m., meeting yurt: "Birds of Bandon" with Harv Schubothe. Learn about the many birds that can be seen in and around Bandon and why the Bandon area attracts so many birds.

Thursday, June 7, 7 p.m., meeting yurt: "Tsunami Disaster Preparedness" with Mike Murphy. Learn how to prepare for a tsunami and other disasters. What's in your bug-out bag?

Southwestern to hold end-of-term concerts

COOS BAY - The Music Department of Southwestern Oregon Community College will present a series of concerts during the week of June 3 through 10. Retiring Director, Ida Jo Gates, is proud to expand upon the usual end-of-term offerings and hopes that everyone can attend all of the concerts.

Tuesday, June 5: “Ida Jo & Friends” - in a re-creation of a concert series that Gates has produced in California, Arizona and Coos Bay (Spring, 2010), selected students will join her on stage at 7 p.m. at the Hales Center for the Performing Arts. There is no cost to attend the concert.

Wednesday, June 6: “Jazz Night” - the Southwestern Jazz Band, under the direction of Cameron Jerde, and the Vocal Jazz Ensemble, under the direction of Ida Jo Gates, will present a variety of jazz standards (and a few vocal surprises). The Jazz Band will be joined by three dancers from Ballet Pacific. The concert will be held at 7 p.m. at the Hales Center for the Performing Arts. There is no cost to attend the concert.

Sunday, June 10: In collaboration with the Southwestern Music Club, the Oregon Coast Music Association will present Stephen Moeckel, violin, and Paula Fan, piano, in a fundraising benefit concert. Moeckel is the concertmaster of the summer festival orchestra. He and Fan are world-renowned performers, and together their collaboration is called Duo Amabile.

The concert is being held at 3 p.m. at the Hales Center for the Performing Arts with a pre-concert talk by Moeckel at 2 p.m. Tickets are $40 each or $75 for a family, and can be purchased at the door or in advance by calling 541-267-0938 or on the web at www.oregoncoastmusic.org.

Gates cordially thanks Southwestern and the community for all the support she has received over the years at the college, both as a part-time instructor and as head of the department this past year. “Our South Coast community is full of talented student-musicians, and it has been an honor to help guide them in their musical endeavors and adventures!”
