Did you know hat tooth decay is a completely preventable disease?

It's true! There are over 400 species of bacteria in your mouth. They feed on sugar and trapped food waste, and excrete acids which erode teeth. This leads to infection and cavities. Eating healthy food, daily brushing, flossing, and water picking along with regular dental visits can reduce bacteria levels and totally prevent tooth decay.

We've come a long way!

The Bandon Chamber of Commerce would like to invite our Bandon area community to join us at our first fall Meet & Greet - September 14, from 5:30P - 7P at the Farm & Sea Event Center. Our September Business After Hours featured speaker will be Raymond Hino, CEO of Southern Coos Hospital & Health Center. He will share his experiences of his first few months here in Bandon, and what the future holds. There will be appetizers, with coffee and iced tea, along with a cash bar of wine/beer. We are looking forward to enjoying our community members (you do not have to be a Chamber member to attend), meeting new faces and seeing our friends and business associates after a long summer season. Please RSVP to info@bandon.com or call 541-347-9616.

Volunteers Needed
Our elderly residents in nursing homes and assisted living desperately need your help. Long Term Care Ombudsmen are volunteers trained by the state as advocates for these residents. Volunteers visit facilities and talk to residents and families to make sure this vulnerable population is receiving the care they need and treated with the dignity they deserve. Sometimes the Ombudsmen are the only visitors the resident receives and their only voice for support. We in Coos and Curry county are in desperate need for others to join us so all long-term residents can be protected from abuse and loss of their rights to proper care. To learn more please contact one of our local ombudsmen at either 541-267-0892 or 541-756-5730
