Did you know?

Did you know that just plain water can help to prevent cavities and gum disease?

It's true! A tiny high pressure stream of water directed between teeth and gums can disrupt bacteria and dislodge food particles that are not reached by brushing and flossing. When used daily, it can even control periodontal disease! What a good idea for a gift!

We've come a long way! With excellent dental care from Dr. Strong, you will protect your teeth, look great, and feel even better. Ask us about implants!

BHS art on display at Bandon Library

BANDON - Through May 31 the Bandon Library Art Gallery features the work of Bandon High School art students.

Under the direction of teacher Jen Ells, Bandon High students in grades 9-12 encounter a wide range of historical and contemporary artists. Such work often becomes a jumping-off point, giving the students great creative freedom while maintaining the discipline of the assignments. They work clay, paint on silk, and of course, draw and paint on paper and canvas both realistically and surrealistically. They make portraits and self-portraits; folk art and still life. Their work is abstract, expressionistic, personal and always interesting and original - even inspired.

All month there will be a box in the gallery to collect votes for the People's Choice Award. All participating students will receive drawing pencils and erasers and gallery director Tracy Hodson will present a Curator's Award.

'First Eleven' art exhibit opens at Oregon Bay Properties

BANDON - Works by 11 local artists are now on display inside Oregon Bay Properties in Bandon, at the Community Art Gallery, 230 Second St. SE, Bandon, on the corner of Second Street and Chicago in Old Town.

Everyone is welcome to attend the opening celebration of the "First Eleven" art exhibit from 5-8 p.m. Thursday, May 17, and meet the artists, who include Vicki Affatati, Ken and Jan Ayers, David Black, Johnny Butler, Susan Gifford, Christine Hanlon, Mike and Yvonne Ousley, Victoria Tierney and Dorothea Tortilla. From 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. there will be music by Crystal Landucci on the baby grand piano (which originally belonged to a director of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra) and Heidi Connolly on her silver flute. Landucci recently masterminded the wildly successful Bach Birthday Party in Langlois. Violinist Sara Jean Mautner will make a cameo appearance.

Broker and owner of Oregon Bay Properties Herb Yussim and his wife Brooke Yussim, principal broker and owner, are enthusiastic supporters of the arts. Herb Yussim is also president of the Coos Art Museum. For several years, the Yussims have been showing works by some outstanding local artists at their office in North Bend. Recently they enlisted local artist and longtime curator Victoria Tierney to put together this new show in Bandon.

Olivia's Cottage to celebrate Royal Wedding

BANDON - Excited about the Royal Wedding of Prince Harry and Meghan Markle?

The folks at Olivia's Cottage are, and plan to celebrate from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. on Saturday, May 19, at the shop, 165 Alabama St., on the pedway in Old Town. Call Olivia's Cottage to RSVP and for more information at 541-329-1019.

Olivia's Cottage will be serving complimentary tea and signature desserts to guests. Abundant Blooms is creating an elegant floral arrangement with Markle's selection of flowers. The Rolling Pin Bake & Brew will provide their signature cupcakes, which are baked for Olivia's Cottage tea parties in the Tea Room, located inside the shop.

Pam Hansen will be photographing the event.

Guest speaker will be Katie Heep, born and raised in London, England. Heep is a longtime friend of Olivia Andor, owner of Olivia's Cottage, and has recently purchased a home in Bandon. Heep will speak about royal weddings, the differences in weddings between England and the United States, party games and English history. Heep is an authority on William Shakespeare.

"The event has been in the planning stages for several months as a special day for our local community," Andor said.

Attendees are encouraged to wear their fascinators, gloves or formal attire, but it is not required.

Andor recently opened up a space in Olivia's Cottage for High Tide Ceramics from Coos Bay. High Tide is offering a place for children to adults to paint on bisque. To make space for larger groups, High Tide is also utilizing the shop across the pedway, formerly Patina's, as another ceramics painting classroom. Grand opening of High Tide Ceramics is May 15.

Before Andor officially retires, she wants to do as much as possible and what she enjoys most is encouraging visitors and locals to enjoy all that Bandon has to offer. After retirement, Andor will continue to maintain the Lasting Memories Garden in the pedway.
