Did you know?

Did you know that sour candies erode tooth enamel and speed up decay?

It's true! Sour candies contain citric acid which erodes tooth enamel much faster than any other food. Most sour candies are more acidic than vinegar, and are in contact with teeth for prolonged periods as the candy is eaten. Rinsing after sour candy helps.

We've come a long way! With excellent dental care from Dr. Strong, you will protect your teeth, look great, and feel even better. With dental implants, you can now keep your smile for a lifetime! We enhance people's loves!

Santa Paws is coming to town

NORTH BEND - Is it too early to think about Christmas? Not if you want an opportunity to have pictures taken with Santa. He is making a special appearance to pose with two-legged and four-legged family members for a holiday portrait at the annual Photos with Santa Paws event to benefit Pacific Cove Humane Society.

Pony Village Mall hosts the pre-holiday fundraiser from 1-3:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 4, in a store space inside the mall near Harry Ritchie's Jewelry. The fee this year is $20, which provides one portrait and one ticket for a prize drawing.

All well-behaved pets, from cats and dogs to more unusual creatures, are invited to have their photo taken with Santa Paws.

Their human friends are welcome to join the portrait sitting.

Professional photography services are provided by Julie Noggle of Brown's Studio & Camera Shop, who donates her time and photo processing for the event.

Pet owners are asked to bring small animals in carriers for their safety and to keep dogs on leashes. The event will feature goodie bags for pets and people, holiday bandanas crafted by Lynn Jochum and drawings for pet and people prizes.

Proceeds from Photos with Santa Paws support Pacific Cove Humane Society in its mission to build a centrally located pet care and adoption center for the South Coast region.

Art for Health fundraiser set for Nov. 5

BANDON - The second annual Art for Health fundraiser will take place from 4-6 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 5, at the Bandon Community Center. Proceeds from Art for Health will benefit the 2018 quarterly art shows at Southern Coos Hospital & Health Center. Tickets are $35 each or $55 for a couple. Tickets are available at SCHHC's patient services desk or by calling 541-329-1040.

Ticket buyers will receive one 12-inch by 12-inch painting by a local artist, food and a drink ticket (for the $55 ticket, couples receive two paintings, food and two drink tickets). Local artists will be in attendance to offer insight into their artistic practice and the benefits of exhibiting at SCHHC's art shows.

Music will be performed by Contra Swings, led by Jennifer Sordyl Berg and Don Berg. Catering is by Edgewater's Restaurant.

Advance purchase is strongly encouraged. A limited number of tickets will be available at the door.

The Art for Health program will include hors d'oeuvres, a signature Art for Health cocktails, a short talk by Janice Horne, a local artist who regularly shows at SCHHC, and a small silent auction featuring pieces from Horne as well as a selection of local artist's artwork.

The event is hosted by the Southern Coos Health Foundation and the Southern Coos Hospital & Health Center. For more information, contact Scott McEachern, 541-329-1040 or smeachern@southerncoos.org.

Arts and Crafts Festival

Nov. 4-5 in Yachats

YACHATS - The 20th Annual Harvest & Holidays Arts & Crafts Festival by Crafts on the Coast will take place inside Yachats Commons, 441 US Highway 101 N in Yachats. The festival will be open 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 4-5, with free admission.

The Yachats Commons is a refurbished vintage elementary school and room after room and hallway will be filled with 70 of the best artisans from the Pacific Northwest for this juried craft event. Many of the exhibitors have won prizes with their artistry. A huge variety of crafts and art will be represented, offering the public a rare opportunity for finding gifts that will be unique and long-treasured.

Coos County talent being featured at the festival include Jeanette Casey with Dippity Doo Da Gourmet

Dip Mixes; Geoff and Keryn Ogle with hand polished gem, rock and shell jewelry; Debbie Seabright with fabric and wood Snow People; and Enna White with cozy pet beds, kennel pads and dog clothes.

Demonstrations by many of the artisans are fun and educational and offer an opportunity to see products being hand made. For more information, call 541-547-4738.

Community concert series begins Nov. 5

COOS BAY - The 2017-18 Coos County Community Concert Association's season begins with The Quebe Sisters.

As three of the fastest rising stars of their generation, The Quebe Sisters - Hulda, Grace and Sophia - have made their presence known in the country music scene, sharing the stage with Willie Nelson, George Strait and Ricky Skaggs and producing three acclaimed albums.

The fiddling siblings will be showcasing their tight harmonies and innate talent in a concert at 7 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 5, at the Egyptian Theatre in Coos Bay.

The concert begins at 7 p.m., with doors opening 45 minutes prior to the start of the concert. For information about the four-concert season, individual show ticket prices and other information, contact Mike Gordon at 541-269-1272 or visit the Coos County Community Concert Association, website at www.cccca.com.

Hawthorne Art Gallery art opening Nov. 4

PORT ORFORD - Works by Sharon Jensen, Geralyn Inokuchi and Elaine Dunham will be featured at the Hawthorne Gallery's next art opening. The artists' reception will be from 3-5 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 4, at the Hawthorne Gallery located at 517 Jefferson St. at Battle Rock Park in Port Orford.

The new show will include works by these three abstract artists who paint and reside on the Southern Oregon Coast. Sharon Jensen, Geralyn Inokuchi and Elaine Dunham's work will be displayed at the gallery until the last week of December.

Gallery hours are 11 a.m.-5 p.m. daily, but closed on Tuesdays starting Nov. 1.

New Artists' 'The Audition' concludes this weekend

BANDON - Concluding its run this weekend at the Sprague Theater is the New Artists Productions presentation of "The Audition," an original musical, mystery, comedy written by Dan Almich, who founded the South Coast youth theater program with his wife Anita 17 years ago.

The 22 young actors and vocalists in "The Audition" traveled from Bandon, Coquille, Langlois, North Bend and Sixes to participate in rehearsals and shows.

There is music as five female actors audition as vocalists for a part in an off-Broadway musical at the Majestic Theatre. There is drama as the musical's director tries to carry out the auditions while impressing the show's producer and financier. There is mystery as the police detective and his team try to determine what is going on at the Majestic and by what method the situation takes place. There is comedy throughout the play as the cast members carry out their duties and try to assist the police in the end.

"The Audition" will conclude Nov. 3, 4 and 5. Show times are Friday and Saturday at 7 p.m. and Sunday at 2 p.m.

Tickets are available from Bandon ACE Hardware, Bandon Mercantile, by calling 541-347-2517, or at the door on show nights. Prices are $10 for adults, $8 for senior citizens, and $5 for students/children K-12.

For additional information about the play or the New Artists Productions program, contact the Almichs at 541-347-2517.
