Did you know?

Did you know that the Mayas practiced cosmetic dentistry before Europeans arrived in the New World?

It's true! The Mayas of Central America were very concerned about the appearance of their teeth. Besides using inlays of gold and colored stones, they also shaped their teeth by filing them into sharp points. This was to honor their Sun God, Kinich Ahau.

We've come a long way! With excellent dental care from Dr. Strong, you will protect your teeth, look great, and feel even better. Keep your beautiful teeth and smile for a lifetime! We enhance people's lives!

‘Fabulous Fall Concert’ offers classical, sacred music

BANDON - A memorable concert of quality classical and sacred music will be offered at 2 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 29, by the musicians of First Presbyterian Church, the Bandon Community Chancel Choir and friends.

In addition to several choral pieces, the concert will feature music director Tom Collins on the organ, piano and vocal solo offerings by Charlotte Pierce, and Steve Krajcir on trumpet. The soloists will also be joined by the Fipples Recorder Ensemble, directed by Charlotte Pierce.

This concert is part of an ongoing series offering a free quality musical experience to the community at least twice per year. This year, the Bandon Community Chancel Choir was invited to participate in the Thanksgiving weekend Carnegie Hall performance of “Appalachian Winter,” a Distinguished Concert in New York series production which will be directed by the composer Joseph M. Martin. The Fabulous Fall Concert is being offered at no cost to the community, but a freewill offering will be received in support of the expenses for the choir’s trip to New York.

The church is located at 592 Edison Ave. SW, Bandon.
