Events for nonprofits offered

BANDON - The BandonCares Steering Committee wants to make the public aware of the following events that are specifically for nonprofit organizations.

Starting at noon on Thursday, Jan. 11, anyone interested is welcome to the Bandon Community Center for a webinar on "How the New Tax Law Impacts Charitable Non-Profits" put on by the Nonprofit Association of Oregon in partnership with the National Council of Nonprofits.

There will be pizza, salad and cookies. This is a free event and registration is not needed but an RSVP to admin@bandoncares.org will be helpful for planning purposes.

There will be a four-session grant writing series from 10 a.m.-3 p.m. four consecutive Thursdays starting Feb. 8 in Coos Bay titled "Learn by Doing Grant Writing." Meredith Howell will conduct the series, which costs $95 per person. BandonCares will be offering one scholarship per organization to cover the $95 cost of the series.

To register for the workshops, go to <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/Y5MW P9C>. Indicate that BandonCares scholarship will cover the costs. Again, it is only one scholarship per organization as there are only 45 slots and there is another organization also offering scholarships. Sign up soon as slots will go quickly. Howell can be reached at 541-760-6255 for questions.

Registration is open for the annual BandonCares Networking Dinner on Tuesday, Jan. 30, at the Bandon Community Center with doors opening at 5 p.m. To register, go to <https://bandoncares.org/event-registration/>.

Fundraising will be the featured topic, but, most of all, this is an opportunity for nonprofit organizations serving Bandon to share program updates as well as events and fundraisers they have planned for 2018. Most of the evening will be dedicated to this. There may be opportunities to collaborate with other organizations with these events.

Call Harv Schubothe, chairman of the BandonCares Steering Committee at 541-297-2342 for more information on any of the above opportunities.

Photos, wood sculptures on display at library

BANDON - The Bandon Library Art Gallery features "Melancholia" - photographs by Manuela Durson, along with wood sculptures by Dan Sawyer. The exhibits will be on display through Jan. 31.

The minimalist photographs of Durson contain a spare but vibrant beauty. These strong, uncluttered images are imbued with a melancholic spirit, but not a negative one. On the contrary, they evoke the silent, profound experience of being alone with nature in a depopulated world. The traces of humanity she does make note of, the decrepit "Lone Dory" and the rotted remains of a pier in "Into the Blue" only emphasize the contemplative solitude of the moment. These photographs were taken all along the West Coast, from Mexico to Oregon.

Sawyer gathers driftwood from Bandon and other beaches, and transforms it into free-form sculpture. He emphasizes the wood's innate characteristics through sanding and polishing and may cut into the original piece to find its sculptural essence. With their curved lines and rounded surfaces, these sculptures flow like the sea that cast them up.

The Bandon Library Art Gallery is located in the foyer of the library, 1204 11th St. SW.

Parenting workshops to be held at Youth Center

BANDON - A free eight-week series "Making Parenting a Pleasure" will be presented by Pathways to Positive Parenting from 5:15-7:30 p.m. Thursdays from Jan. 18 to March 8.

All of the workshops will be held at at the Bandon Community Youth Center, 101 11th St. SW. A free family dinner is served at 5:15 p.m. with the workshop following the meal.

Free childcare is included.

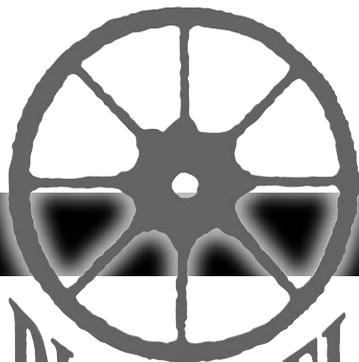

This interactive family engagement workshop series is designed to re-energize parenting and family relationships.

Topics include child social and emotional development, parent and family stress management and positive parenting strategies to use every day.

"These informative workshops will include parenting techniques to help your child be successful, how to effectively communicate with your child and how to respond rather than react to behaviors," said a spokeswoman.

To register, call 541-888-1588. Space is limited.
