Whale Watching Week set for Dec. 27-31

OREGON COAST - Gray whales are on the move south again this winter, and the Oregon Parks and Recreation Department is celebrating the annual event with Whale Watching Week, Dec. 27-31.

Visitors to the Oregon coast will have the opportunity to glimpse some of the estimated 20,000 gray whales traveling south from Alaska to their final destination off the coast of Baja, Mexico.

Volunteers from the Whale Watching Spoken Here program will be stationed at 24 sites along the Oregon coast during the event. From 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. each day, they'll offer whale watching tips and facts about the animals. Each year from December to mid-January, gray whales swim 6,000 miles down the Pacific coast to reach calving lagoons near the Baja peninsula.

Local Whale Watching Spoken here sites include: Sea Lion Caves Turnout in Florence; Umpqua Lighthouse State Park in Reedsport; Shore Acres State Park in Charleston; Face Rock Scenic Viewpoint in Bandon; Battle Rock Wayside in Port Orford; and Harris Beach State Park in Brookings.

Gray whales are visible from Oregon's shore nearly year-round, but two weeks every year are special. The winter and spring Whale Watch Weeks along the Oregon coast are recognized as some of the best opportunities to view the annual gray whale migration anywhere in the world.

Luke Parsons, an OPRD ranger with the Whale Watching Center in Depoe Bay, says one of the goals of the event is to create awareness and compassion for whales and other marine life.

"Whales are a special part of the Oregon coast," said Parsons. "Nearly 20,000 people visit our whale watch sites each winter and are educated by our excellent volunteers. I hope visitors walk away feeling a little more connected to these animals, along with a greater appreciation of our oceans."

A map of the 24 volunteer whale watch sites can be found on whalespoken.wordpress.com. Camping, including yurts and cabins, is available at state parks along the coast.

Visit oregonstateparks.org for information and to make a reservation.

Celebrate the new year with Bullards Run

BANDON - The 44th annual Bullards Run will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 7, at Bullards Beach State Park.

For the first time, the run will be sponsored by the Southern Coos Health Foundation, which is the fundraising arm of Bandon's Southern Coos Hospital & Health Center. The run is hosted in partnership with the South Coast Running Club. The event features a 10-Kilometer run, a 5-Kilometer run, and a 1-mile fun run.

Registration will be held at the meeting yurt in the Bullards Beach campground area. The 10K route goes out to the Coquille Lighthouse and back.

There is also a T-shirt exchange, so runners should bring a worn, but not worn-out shirt (gently used) to exchange with fellow runners. All shirts left over will be donated to the Southern Coos Hospital & Health Center for use for discharged patients. The fees for the 1-mile kids run are $3 for SCRC members and $5 for non-members. Fees for the 5K and 10K runs are $10 for members and $20 for non-members. There is also a member family rate of $15 for up to a three-person family, and $5 for each additional member for families that are part of the running club. Registration is from 1:30 to 2 p.m. the day of the run.

Proceeds from the event will go toward purchasing new IV pumps for the medical-surgical floor, the emergency department and the surgical suite at Southern Coos Hospital & Health Center.

Everyone invited to Christmas meal

BANDON - Everyone is welcome to come and enjoy a free meal on Christmas Day.

Bandon Holiday Meals volunteers will be serving the 2017 community Christmas Holiday Meal from 11 a.m.-2 p.m. Monday, Dec. 25, at The Barn/Community Center located at 1200 11th St. SW in Bandon City Park.

Holiday Meals started more than 20 years ago as a way for the community to enjoy the holiday with one another. Community volunteers and businesses donate food items and/or time to serve community members. The meal consists of turkey and ham, mashed potatoes and gravy, stuffing, yams, green beans, coleslaw, cranberry sauce, bread rolls, assorted desserts and beverages (coffee, juice, water). More than 500 meals were served at Thanksgiving and dozens of volunteers were there to help, from set-up to cooking, serving and clean-up.

The meal is free, but donations will gladly be accepted at the door. Anyone in the Bandon area who is home bound and unable to attend the community meal can pre-order and Holiday Meals organizers will have it delivered.

If you are home bound, call Colleen Wiesel at 916-221-0318 to order a Christmas meal for delivery. To donate desserts, call Linda Frick at 541-347-8347. To volunteer, call Ginny Hall at 541-404-4702.
