Andy Hackbarth to perform in Coos Bay on Jan. 16

COOS BAY - Award-winning classical, Spanish, fingerstyle guitarist Andy Hackbarth pays tribute to the "Father of the Classical Guitar," Andres Segovia, in a concert at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 16, at The Egyptian Theatre in Coos Bay. Doors will open 45 minutes prior to the start of the concert.

Hackbarth pays homage to Andres Segovia through his traditional Spanish fingerstyle work. His current touring show, "A Tribute to Segovia," features instrumental selections and short stories about Segovia's life and music. This eclectic musical journey transports listeners from the music of Bach and the cathedrals of Germany, to the hills of Spain and the work of Albeniz and Tarrega; from classical Europe, to the southern tip of South America. "A Tribute to Segovia" also looks to modern music and how Segovia's work has influenced the contemporary guitar world.

The Coos County Community Concert Association is an all-volunteer, subscription-based organization offering an affordably priced concert series each year.

Tickets are $60 for the season (three shows remaining) and $30 for individual shows. For more information, contact Jay Farr at 541-297-4008 or visit the Coos County Community Concert Association's website at www.cccca.com.
