Did you know? Did you know that Dr.
Thomas Welch was a dentist from Civil War days whose name is commonly known today?

It's true! In 1869 Dr. Welch founded a vineyard and the town of Vineland in south New Jersey, and began producing "unfermented wine" which became very popular. His business expanded, and his unfermented wine became what we know today as Welch's grape juice!

We've come a long way! With excellent dental care from Dr. Strong, you will protect your teeth, look great, and feel even better. With dental implants, you can now keep your smile for a lifetime! Experience Dentistry with a Difference!

University Women offer scholarship

BANDON - University Women of Bandon are accepting applications from women in their junior or senior year of college or an advanced education program.

To receive an application, contact Cindy Gant at 541-347-2874.

Bandon Community Radio to start up soon

BANDON - Bandon Community Radio, a nonprofit organization, will soon be starting up radio station KBOG 97.9 FM.

KBOG will be a non-commercial radio station for the Bandon community, showcasing local issues and programming produced by volunteers. KBOG will soon be online at www.kbog.org and organizers are interested to hear the public's opinions on what they'd like to hear on the station and what would represent the community of Bandon the best.

There is a quick survey here: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/KBOG> and the public's input on the survey would be greatly appreciated.

Holiday Book Sale and Quilt Raffle

The Bandon Library Friends and Foundation will hold its annual Holiday Book Sale and Quilt Raffle on Saturday, Dec. 2, at library's Sprague Room.

From 10 a.m.-noon, members only can shop; join at the door for $5. From noon-5 p.m., the sale will be open to the public. All proceeds benefit the Bandon Public Library.

For more information on any of the above events, call 541-347-3221 or visit BLFF/www.bandonlff.org.

Auditions for staged reading of 'A Gathering of Finches' in CB

COOS BAY - Auditions for the staged reading of "A Gathering of Finches" will be held at 3 p.m., Saturday, Dec. 9, at the Dolphin Playhouse, 580 Newmark Ave., Coos Bay.

"A Gathering of Finches" is a new play by Judith Elliot McDonald adapted from the novel "A Gathering of Finches" by author Jane Kirkpatrick.

The play tells the story of the life of Cassie Hendrick Stearns Simpson, wife of Louis Simpson and inspiration for Shore Acres.

The play has roles for 10 actors: seven women and three men of all ages. The story takes place over 20 years, so age is only a small consideration.

The performances of this staged reading will be held on Jan. 19, 20 and 21, 2018. A read-through will be held Sunday, Dec. 10, with time and location to be announced. Rehearsals will be held Jan. 12 and 13. This formal staged reading will be directed by the author. Talk-backs with the cast and author will follow each performance.

For more information about the auditions, call McDonald at 541-297-5597.

Flagger training offered at SWOCC

COOS BAY - Southwestern Oregon Community College's Community Education Department is offering a one-day, Oregon Department of Transportation approved, safety training course. It covers the requirements for flaggers and approved techniques for moving traffic cautiously and consistently through work zones.

Students who successfully complete the course receive an ODOT credential for flaggers, valid for three years. You must be 18 years of age or older to receive certification. Class fees cover all materials.

Please bring snacks to eat during breaks if needed, as there is no lunch break provided during this training. Pre-registration and payment is required.

Date: Thursday, Dec. 7; Time: 8:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m.; Location: Lakeview G, Empire Hall, Southwestern Oregon Community College, 1988 Newmark Ave., Coos Bay; Cost: $107 each class.

For more information, contact Brenda Rogers in the Community Education & Workforce Development office at 541-888-7328.

Shipwrecks of Curry County topic of museum event

BANDON - Author H.S. Contino will introduce her most recent book, "Shipwrecks of Curry County" in a program Saturday, Dec. 2, at the Bandon Historical Society Museum, 270 Fillmore Ave. S.E., Bandon.

The author will be on hand at the museum from 1-4 p.m. and will give a spoken presentation at 2 p.m. Admission will be free.

Contino also wrote the book "Shipwrecks of Coos County." Her presentation will be rich in photographs and full of stories about local shipwrecks.

The Bandon Museum has an extensive collection of maritime photographs and objects. Contino drew on resources from the local museum's collection for both of her shipwreck books.

The local author worked at the Coos History Museum before taking her current job at the North Bend Public Library. Contino's books will be available for purchase in the museum's gift shop during the event.

"Hannah brings a world of knowledge with her and we always learn more about our maritime history when she comes to our museum. She's fun to listen to and is tireless about answering questions," said museum board president Jim Proehl.

The Bandon Historical Museum is located at the corner of U.S. Highway 101 and Fillmore Ave. in Bandon. Regular museum hours are from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday through Saturday.

Rotary/K-DOCK Bus Jam coming Dec. 2

COOS COUNTY - The Rotary/K-DOCK Bus Jam Toy and Food Drive is underway.

Volunteers will be stuffing the buses with donated toys and food from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 2, at the Coos Bay and North Bend Bi-Marts and the Bandon U.S. Cellular store in the Bandon Shopping Center. Organizers ask community members to donate a new, unwrapped toy or non-perishable food items at any of the collection sites prior to or during the event on Dec. 2. A First Student bus in Coos Bay and North Bend and a Bandon School District bus in Bandon will be parked at each location.

The Bus Jam Toy and Food Drive serves families in need during the holidays. Food collected is distributed through South Coast Food Share to all food cupboards in the county, and a special distribution is also included in the city of Lakeside. Since Bus Jam began, almost 225,000 pounds of food have been distributed to families in need through Coos County food pantries, with a total of 62,000 pounds distributed last year alone.

Monetary donations are also welcome. The dollars donated are leveraged by allowing the food assistance programs to purchase food in bulk.

And more than 6,000 children have received a gift through Bus Jam. Toys will be distributed at the Bus Jam Distribution on Saturday, Dec. 9. Families that meet income levels and need will be able to register soon for the distribution.

Early donation drop sites are in Lakeside, North Bend, Coos Bay, Bandon, Coquille and Myrtle Point. In Bandon, drop boxes are located at US Cellular, Rite

Aid, Bandon Western World, Southern Coos Hospital & Health Center and Rogue Credit Union.

Those who don't want to shop can make out a check to the Rotary Coos Foundation.

Bus Jam is made possible through a partnership of local Rotary clubs, the Oregon Department of Human Services, South Coast Food Share, SWOCC, Bi-Mart, Bandon U.S. Cellular, First Student Bus Company, the Bandon School District and K-DOCK Radio. For more information, visit www.loadthebus.com.

Registration for the Rotary Toy Distribution is also underway at this time. Income verification is required at the event. But those wishing to participate can register online at www.busjam.org or by calling the registration hotline 541-435-7774.
