Did you know?

Did you know that the Mayas practiced cosmetic dentistry before Europeans arrived in the New World?

It's true! The Mayas of Central America were very concerned about the appearance of their teeth. Besides using inlays of gold and colored stones, they also shaped their teeth by filing them into sharp points. This was to honor their Sun God, Kinich Ahau.

We've come a long way! With excellent dental care From Dr. Strong, you will protect your teeth, look great, and feel even better. Keep your beautiful teeth and smile for a lifetime! We enhance people's lives!

Cat Pawlooza - and kittens too on Sept. 17

BANDON - The Coos County Animal Shelter's annual Bandon adoption event will take place from 11 a.m. - 4 p.m. on Sunday, Sept. 17, in the parking lot of Ray's Food Place at the Bandon Shopping Center.

Cats are $25-$40 and kittens are $65 (and discounts for adopting more than one). There will be all sizes, shapes and colors - something for everyone. All felines are spayed/neutered, vaccinated, wormed, flea controlled and come with a free veterinarian visit and a large adoption basket with everything needed to get started with a new forever friend.

Story times to resume at Bandon library

BANDON – Storytimes at the Bandon Public Library will resume on Wednesday, Sept. 13.

The schedule is:
Toddlers: Wednesdays 11-11:30 a.m.

Preschoolers: Wednesdays 1:30-2:30 p.m. or Thursdays 11 a.m.-noon.

Early Readers: Thursdays 3:30-4:30 p.m. (kindergarten and older).

Ocean Crest students can make arrangements to ride the school bus to the library for the Thursday after-school program.

Children should be picked up at the library by 4:45 p.m.

Contact children's librarian Julie Tipton at 541-347-3221 for further information.

‘Hollering Place Radio Show’

COOS BAY – The Dolphin Players present “The 5th Annual Hollering Place Radio Show.”

This project is sponsored by the Confederated Tribes of Coos, Lower Umpqua and Siuslaw Indians.

The local histories are presented in a you-were-there format, often in first-person recollections. Audiences will hear the origin of the name The Hollering Place, tribal lore, shipwrecks, castaways, even contemporary attempts at wisdom from a hundred years ago.

Directed by Kevin Gowreylow and Zoe Shields, “The Hollering Place” runs Sept. 15, 16 and 17. Friday and Saturday shows are at 7 p.m. and Sunday shows at 2 p.m., at the Dolphin Playhouse, 580 Newmark Ave., in the Empire District of Coos Bay. Tickets are $10 for adults, $8 for seniors and students, $5 for under 12. As always, the first Saturday, Sept. 9, is pay what you can. For more information, for reservations or further information, call 541-808-2611 or visit www.thedolphinplayers.webs.com/.

Neil Sedaka songs showcased in LTOB musical

NORTH BEND – The jukebox musical “Breaking Up Is Hard To Do,” opened Friday, Sept. 1, at The Liberty Theatre, home of Little Theatre on the Bay, in North Bend.

Set at “Esther’s Paradise Resort” in the Catskills resort in the early 1960s, this is the sweetly comic story of Lois and Marge, two friends from Brooklyn in search of good times and romance over one wild Labor Day weekend, a vacation that was intended to be Marge’s honeymoon - until the groom left her at the altar.

The score showcases 18 Neil Sedaka classics, including “Where the Boys Are,” “Sweet Sixteen,” “Calendar Girl”, and “Love Will Keep Us Together,” among others, all complemented by an onstage five-piece band and backup singers.

Shows run Sept. 15, 16 and 17, at the Liberty

Theatre, 2100 Sherman Ave., North Bend. Friday and Saturday shows are at 7 p.m., Sunday matinees at 2 p.m. Ticket prices are $15 for adults, $13 seniors and $10 for children 12 and under. Purchase in advance online or at the box office Wednesdays 10 a.m.-1 p.m. or at the door on the day of the event. For group and family rates call 541-756-4336 and visit <http://www.thelibertytheatre.org>.

Since 1959, the LTOB has operated and managed the Liberty Theatre, serving residents and visitors to Coos County. The restoration project is designed to ensure the theater is preserved and protected in time for the centennial celebration of the building’s opening, scheduled for spring 2024. The Little Theatre on the Bay is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization.

City issues temporary fire restrictions

BANDON – The City of Bandon has issued temporary fire restrictions for residents regarding open burning, due to the dry conditions and the current state of extreme fire danger issued by the Coos Forest Protective Association.

CFPA, the Southwest Oregon District of the Oregon Department of Forestry and Oregon State Parks have all taken steps to restrict open burning, use of power tools, mowing, off-road motor vehicle operations and other activities that pose increased risk for fire.

Fire Chief Lanny Boston said that while no engines or personnel from the Bandon Rural Fire Department are currently being used to fight the Chetco Bar Fire, which is classified as the largest forest fire currently burning in Oregon, all other surrounding resources are being used, which leaves the city vulnerable if backup is needed.

The existing conditions make fires a continued threat to the health, safety and well-being of the citizens of Bandon and the greater Bandon community, said City Manager Robert Mawson.

“This wasn’t prompted by any single incident,” Mawson said. “Other resources are deployed, and while no one from our local district is fighting fire, we don’t have any support from anywhere close by.”

Mawson said three local firefighters were fighting the Chetco Bar Fire, but have since returned to Bandon.

“Humidity is down, so one thing we are asking people to do is not to mow except between 7 a.m. and noon near dry or cured grasses or any fire-sensitive area,” Mawson said. “We don’t plan to cite anyone, but we want people to think about what’s going on and be wise about what they are doing.”

Boston, Mawson and Mayor Mary Schamehorn have enacted the following restrictions:

■ In respect to Chapter 8.20 of the Bandon Municipal Code, residents are reminded that outside burning within city limits is always prohibited. The city will not authorize and no one is allowed to conduct any outside open burning including kindling, maintaining or burning any bonfire, outdoor rubbish or waste fire, or use any trash burners, incinerators or burn barrels, or authorize any such fires or use of such devices on private land.

■ All exemptions provided for in Chapter 8.20 of the Bandon Municipal Code are suspended. The following activities are prohibited within city limits until further notice: all open flame fires, including barbecue appliances, charcoal, cooking fires and warming fires, outdoor patio and yard fireplaces, fire pits and smokers, decorative and ornamental fires, ceremonial and recreational fires, and any other open flame fires.

■ The use of all forms of fireworks is prohibited.

■ Use of the following equipment and activities shall be restricted to the hours of 7 a.m. to noon when used on or near dried, cured vegetation and in other fire sensitive areas: lawn mowers and tractors, chain saws and other power saws, and cutting, grinding or welding. Use of any other spark-emitting internal combustion engine, not specifically mentioned, is not allowed.

The harvest of agricultural crops is exempt from this restriction.

The restrictions will stay in effect until fire danger conditions have sufficiently diminished, at which time the restrictions will be rescinded by vote of the Bandon City Council.

For more information, contact City Hall at 541-347-2437.

Celebrate a century of the Bandon Public Library

BANDON – It takes a lot of commitment to make something that lasts over a century and the Bandon Public Library is no exception. Not only has it lasted, it has expanded in its role to educate, entertain and enrich the people of Bandon over the years.

The library will celebrate with a special event to mark this important milestone from 1-3 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 16, at the library, 1204 11th St. SW in City Park. There will be lots to do for all ages and families are encouraged to attend. The event will feature live music, a silent auction, face painting and sidewalk chalk for the kids. Cake and punch will be served and special guests are scheduled. Tulip the miniature pig will make an appearance.
