Did you know?

Did you know that the first woman dentist in English history was noted before the pilgrims came to America?

It's true! Mrs. B. Dawson was mentioned in the Annals of Barber Surgeons in 1557. It seems she had helped her husband pull teeth at the barber shop, and kept it up after he passed away.

We've come a long way! With excellent dental care from Dr. Strong, you will protect your teeth, look great, and feel even better. With dental implants you can keep your beautiful teeth and smile for a lifetime! Dentistry with a difference!

Hardbacks, paperbacks, non-fiction, fiction, children's books, videos and more are available for purchase. This annual event is sponsored by the Bandon Library Friends & Foundation, Inc., and all proceeds benefit the Bandon Library.

The sale opens at 10:30 a.m. on Thursday,

"Stop by, have a cookie, visit with friends, and stock up on summer reading material. Support your local library," said Lorna Logan, this year's chairwoman.

Programs offered at Bullards

BANDON - Bullards Beach State Park continues its summer programs for 2018. The programs run from 7-8 p.m. through Sept. 1, Tuesdays through Saturdays, with the exception of the Oregon Old Time Fiddlers, who will play from 2-3:30 p.m. on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month. The programs are held in either the amphitheater or the meeting yurt and are free and open to the public.

Carpooling or parking at the east side picnic area and walking into the campground is encouraged to avoid parking issues and traffic congestion. Allow enough time if walking in.

Bullards also has a top-notch Junior Ranger program that runs from 10-11 a.m. Tuesdays through Saturdays throughout the summer. On Saturdays, the Junior Rangers take part in a bicycle parade. They have a chance to decorate their bikes and learn bike safety before the parade, then they ride throughout the park. All children are welcome.

This week's programs:

Thursday, July 5, amphitheater - "Tales of the Cemetery" with Jim Proehl. Did you know there is a cemetery hidden in Bullards Beach? Find out who is buried there and hear the story of how Bullards Beach became a State Park.

This program includes a short walk to the cemetery.

Friday, July 6, amphitheater - "Coquille Indian Cultural History" with Kassandra

Rippee. Journey through the rich history and heritage of the Coquille Indian Tribe.

Saturday, July 7, amphitheater - Bullards Beach Interpretive Park Ranger talk with Patrick Newhall, who will speak on a wide variety of natural and cultural topics to enhance visitors' park experience.

Tuesday, July 10, meeting yurt - "Bandon Cranberry Farming" with the Clarke Family. A glimpse at cranberry farming along the Oregon Coast and what it takes to be a successful cranberry grower.

Wednesday, July 11, amphitheater - Oregon Old Time Fiddlers, 2-3:30 p.m. Old time music and fiddling with audience participation. It is fun for the whole family.

Wednesday, July 11, meeting yurt - "Shipwreck Stories, Tales of the Treacherous Bandon Bar" with Jim Proehl. Submerge yourself in the stories of shipwrecks and sinkings that have occurred throughout Bandon's history.

Thursday, July 12, amphitheater - "Bandon Beach Treasures" with Haven Andrist. Uncover the rocks, fossils and petrified wood found on our beaches and learn how to identify them.

Friday, July 13, amphitheater - Bullards Beach Interpretive Park Ranger talk with Patrick Newhall, who will speak on a wide variety of natural and cultural topics to enhance visitors' park experience.

Saturday, July 14, amphitheater - Bullards Beach Interpretive Park Ranger talk with Patrick Newhall.

History comes to life at Hughes House

SIXES - Visitors to the Historic Hughes House are invited to listen in on conversations between pioneer Jane Hughes and family members, neighbors and travelers. This year's Living History continues each Wednesday, between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m., with the final presentation Aug. 29.

The six short scenes, written by local historian Shirley Nelson, depict Jane's life at the Hughes House near Cape Blanco in the early 1900's. Inge Licon, in her 10th year as Jane Hughes, appears in all the scenes.

Greg Ryder portrays Jane's son Edward just back from a trip to bustling San Francisco; Caara Williams is Georgina McKenzie from an adjoining dairy farm;

Erica Godbey is daughter-in-law Annie on laundry day. Tim Self portrays Father Keveny, a traveling priest serving the South Coast; Emily Gwynn is Irish immigrant Catherine Kelly en route to a new life in Astoria. Jada Ryder and Lily Albiston are audience favorites as Jane's young grandchildren Annie and Agnes from across the Sixes River.

These scenes come to life under the auspices of Oregon State Parks and the Cape Blanco Heritage Society.

The Living History coordinator is Susan Russell.

Admission to Hughes House is free. Donations are welcomed.

New issue of Spotlines available

SOUTH COAST - The Summer edition of SpotLines, the local area poetry and art zine, is available at book stores, art galleries and libraries from North Bend to Brookings and east to Coquille. Also available at those locations is a special youth edition of SpotLines featuring Quatrain and Haiku poems by Port Orford middle and high school students. Don't miss these two summer zines containing poetry that will evoke your every emotion - from joy to sorrow and back again.

The SpotLines staff, led by editor Weld Champneys, celebrates two years of providing poetry and art along the Oregon

South Coast. Four issues are printed each year with generous donations from the Curry County Cultural Coalition, Plumb Level & Square Fund, Bandon Writers Group, Langlois Public Library, individual donors and readers. The editor is joined by Bill Cullenward, Brent Pitman, Ava Richey, Russ Hepworth and Tobe Porter, who meet once a month to plan each issue. The group hopes to spend more time in the classrooms come late fall in an effort to foster interest in poetry and encourage more work by young poets and artists.
