Did you know?

Did you know that the Mayas practiced cosmetic dentistry before Europeans arrived in the New World?

It's true! The Mayas of Central America were very concerned about the appearance of their teeth. Besides using inlays of gold and colored stones, they also shaped their teeth by filing them into sharp points. This was to honor their Sun God, Kinich Ahau.

We've come a long way! With excellent dental care From Dr. Strong, you will protect your teeth, look great, and feel even better. Keep your beautiful teeth and smile for a lifetime! We enhance people's lives!

Alive After Five returns Oct. 27

BANDON - Alive After Five returns on Friday, Oct. 27 in Old Town Bandon for activities with an Octoberfest theme. Alive After Five runs from 5 to 7 p.m. and features art, music, food, refreshments and other activities. Many Old Town shops will be offering bargains as well.

A wine walk is one of the highlights of Alive After Five. To participate in the wine walk, commemorative glasses and walking maps will be on sale for $10 at both Bandon Brewing Company and Old Town Marketplace when the event starts at 5 p.m.

Come to Old Town for the first-ever pumpkin pavilion near Bandon Brewing Co. and paint a pumpkin to put on display. This month's Alive After Five features a scavenger hunt as well.

The Greater Bandon Association is once again organizing the Alive After Five activities.

Proceeds will benefit upcoming local public events in Bandon such as the Christmas season kickoff, Gorse Blossom Festival, Volunteer of the Month program as well as support of GBA's economic development initiatives. Call 541-297-2342 for details.

Carnival at Pacific View benefits animal shelter

BANDON - Pacific View Senior Living invites the public to a Spooktacular Carnival to benefit the Coos County Animal Shelter from 5-7 p.m., Monday, Oct. 30.

The carnival will offer games with prizes, costume contests for kids and adults, trick-or-treating and treats and beverages. There will be activities for the whole family. Bring an item to donate to the Coos County Animal Shelter.

Items the shelter needs are Purina brand cat or dog chow, canned cat or dog food, pet toys, leashes, collars, pet treats, pooper-scoopers, Advantage II flea treatment, Clorox disinfecting wipes, hand sanitizer,

HE laundry detergent, bleach and dryer sheets.

An RSVP is encouraged but not necessary. For more information and to RSVP, call Krystal Elzner at 541-347-7502. Pacific View Assisted Living and Memory Care is located at 1000 Sixth Ave., W. on Jetty Road, overlooking the Pacific Ocean.

Preppers to meet in Bandon

BANDON - Southwestern Oregon Preppers will be holding a meeting at noon on Saturday, Oct. 28, at the Bandon Public Library, Sprague Room, 1204 11th St. SW.

The main topic is "Earthquakes: Myths and Misconceptions." October is the month for the Great Oregon Shakeout. The time to prepare for a possible earthquake and tsunami is now. It is not a matter of if - it is a matter of when.

SWOP meetings always start with a question and answer period before the main topic so all in attendance get a chance to participate.

This is a free public meeting to get to know fellow local preppers in southwestern Oregon counties and to exchange information and ideas. It is important for individuals to understand that they will be "on their own" in the event of a disaster and not to depend on receiving outside help.

Join Southwestern Oregon Preppers on Facebook and/or meetup.com. Those who cannot attend the meeting can visit www.shakeout.org/oregon/index.html to learn more.

New Artists Productions presents 'The Audition'

BANDON - Opening Friday, Oct. 27, at the Sprague Community Theater and running for two weekends is the New Artists Productions presentation of "The Audition," a musical, mystery, comedy where five young vocalists vying for the female lead in an off-Broadway musical discover that life oft-times takes a turn with totally unexpected events.

The story: There is music as five female actors audition as vocalists for a part in an Off-Broadway musical at the Majestic Theater. The vocalists from the South Coast present as follows: Megan Wood, North Bend ("Home"), Alana Bridges, Coquille ("Close to You"), Natalie Jones, North Bend ("Beauty and the Beast"), Olivia Schmidt, Bandon ("Skylark"), and Emily Wilson, Reedsport ("Reflection").

There is drama as the musical's director (Marisa Smith) tries to carry out the auditions while impressing the show's producer (Nathan Malamud) and financier (Elias De Andrea).

There is mystery as the police detective (David Wyatt) and his team (Elli Schulz, Jack Sorensen, Riley Smith) try to determine what is going on at the Majestic and by what method the situation takes place.

There is comedy throughout the play as the cast members carry out their duties and try to assist the police in the end.

The remaining cast members who are vital to the conclusions drawn throughout the play are Isabella Jones, Nena Minkler, Hannah and Josiah Perkins, Jola and Olivia Smith, Michael Wilson, and Adam, Henry, and Melody Wood.

Show dates for "The Audition" are Oct. 27, 28 and 29; and Nov. 3, 4 and 5. Show times are Fridays and Saturdays at 7 p.m. and Sundays at 2 p.m.

Tickets are available from Bandon ACE Hardware, Bandon Mercantile, by calling 541-347-2517, or at the door on show nights. Prices are $10 for adults, $8 for senior citizens, and $5 for students/children K-12.

For additional information about the play, contact Dan or Anita Almich, co-founders of New Artists Productions, at 541-347-2517.

For Saturday, 10:00am on Friday and Monday 11:30am on Friday. There is a $1 non-optional charge for publication on mobile devices.

Scary Food presentation at Bandon library

BANDON - What's in our food today can be really scary. Everyone is welcome to join the discussion about common food manufacturing practices and food additives that might scare them into eating healthy.

Get in the Halloween spirit from 6:30-8 p.m. Friday, Oct. 27, at the Bandon Public Library with this scary exposé from the OSU Extension Service, presented by Registered Dietitian Stephanie Polizzi.

For more information, contact Coos County Extension at 541-572-5263 ext. 25292.

Crabbing closed from Bandon to California

SOUTH COAST -The Oregon Department of Agriculture and the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife announce the immediate closure of recreational and commercial crabbing from the north jetty of the Coquille River, which includes the bay in Bandon, to the California border due to elevated levels of domoic acid.

This includes crab harvested in bays and estuaries, and on beaches, docks, piers and jetties. The recreational crabbing season in the ocean closed coast-wide on Oct. 15.

The announcement extends last week's recreational closure. Crab harvesting from the north jetty of the Coquille River and north to the Columbia River remains open in bays and estuaries, and on beaches, docks, piers and jetties.

Despite the closure, crab and shellfish products sold in retail markets and restaurants remain safe for consumers.

For more information, call ODA's shellfish safety information hotline at 800-448-2474 or visit the ODA shellfish closures web page at: <http://www.oregon.gov/ODA/programs/FoodSafety/Shellfish/Pages/ShellfishClosures.aspx>.
