

South Coast Food Share Prepares for SNAP and WIC Cuts, Congresswoman Hoyle Visits

By NATE SCHWARTZ
Editor

Going into a second month of the government shutdown, Congresswoman Val Hoyle visited the main site of the South Coast Food Share (SCFS) on October 28 in the wake of the USDA announcement that funds for SNAP and WIC will be cut off starting November 1. Despite the existence of $5 billion in federal emergency funds (traditionally used for events like natural disasters), the Trump Administration stated they will not be activating those funds to keep food assistance programs afloat. This is after the proposed budget bill already made massive cuts to the program.

That context has led to local food banks and assistance programs needing to fill the gap. On the South Coast, that main program would be SCFS as run by the non-profit Oregon Coast Community Action (ORCCA). Laura Hunter, the organization's Director of Regional Food Banks, told the Congresswoman that they are expecting upwards of a 30% increase in need amongst local families.

"It feels like every time the South Coast starts to get something going, they get kicked in the teeth," said Hoyle to press after her tour. "This is an area of great need. The number one thing we can do for the South Coast is bring good paying jobs back."

"But for now, there are so many people here, they're seniors, they're veterans, they're children, who rely on SNAP, which is such an effective program. To have that stop is going to hurt people here on the South Coast... on the South Coast in particular we have some of the highest rates of SNAP usage."

SCFS is already incredibly active, distributing nearly 2 million pounds of food a year through 34 different partner agencies and programs throughout Coos and Curry Counties. This network has supported locals through food pantries, community meal sites, and assistance programs for seniors, veterans, and families since 1965. 26% of those served are children.

According to SCFS statistics, that looks like 36,599 food boxes distributed throughout communities during 67,000 volunteer hours from locals who care about their neighbors being fed.

"I've been here since 2011, and we've never had to be in this kind of circumstances... My pantries shared with me that they have already seen increases, likely due to the ABAWD waiver being changed. We have meal sites saying that they anticipate 50-100% increases in access," said Hunter.

To help cover the coming shortfalls, SCFS have launched a fundraiser called 'Stand in the Gap for Our Neighbors' which sets out to raise $100,000 in donations to keep families fed through the shutdown. A $25 donation can support a family for a week, whereas $100 can help sustain an entire delivery route.

"For every dollar we can leverage 3 pounds of food, which is just over 2 and a half meals. That's a lot more than going to a grocery store and buying a can of beans and donating it, though we welcome that too because everything helps," said Hunter.

Hunter emphasized the philosophy of "Dignity by Choice", which allows those visiting certain assistance programs to choose the produce and food goods available that best suit their situations and dietary needs. Not everyone has access to a full-service kitchen or a full remit of cooking utensils.

Those in need of assistance can seek out their local food resources. There are food box sites like the SCFS Fresh Choice Market at 255 LeClair St. in Coos Bay, or community fridges like the one at the Coos Bay Public Library. There are also meal sites like you see at many churches throughout our communities. For a full list of available food support in Coos and Curry Counties visit: ORCCA.us/scfs

You can use the same link to find a donation option for those of us who want to help 'Stand in the Gap'. You are highly encouraged to do so should you have the means.

"We have a lot of people who are working full time, still on SNAP, feeding hungry children, feeding hungry people, feeding our seniors, why in the name of all things holy would you not want to address that? I don't know why anybody

Empire Boat Launch Float Removal

REVISED DATE

The City of Coos Bay will be removing the dock floats at the Empire Boat ramp located at 152 S. Ross St. for the winter on November 3, 2025. The purpose of the removal is to prevent damage to the floats during winter storms. The dock floats will be reinstalled in April of 2026. The ramp will remain open; however, the floats will not be available. Boaters are to use caution in and around the area while staff is removing the floats. Should you have questions, please feel free to contact Public Works at (541) 269-8918.

Road Closures Along Fulton Avenue

The City of Coos Bay will be constructing a new sanitary force main along Fulton Avenue between S Marple Street to Lindy Lane. The new force main and pump station are required in order to connect the 400 single family residential development, otherwise known as Timber Cove Estates, to the sanitary sewer system. The construction activities will require the periodic closure of blocks along Fulton Avenue starting in November. Closure(s) will only allow local traffic through and will be reopened after daytime construction work ends at 7 p.m. per the project schedule. Working hours will be from 8 a.m.-7 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Should you have any questions or want more information, please contact Geneva Varga, Engineering Services Coordinator, at (541) 269-1181 ext. 3523 or email gvarga@coosbayor.gov.

PCIP PROJECT
Op-Ed by STEVE SKINNER

Imagine having your town cut in half a dozen or more times daily for 8-10 minutes at a time while mile and a half long trains rumble by. Imagine not being able to get in or out of your own driveway or street for that same amount of time. Imagine no access to or from the Eugene airport, major dunes and beaches and, most importantly, no emergency services like fire and medical. That is what the future holds for all residents living with rail crossings along the Coos Bay-Eugene rail line, if the $2.4+ billion-dollar Pacific Coast Intermodal Port (PCIP) project is built. Lakeside, Reedsport, Veneta, Eugene and all residents living along much of Routes 126 and 36 will have to deal with this proposed scenario. For 10,000 years or more “The Hollering Place” located in the Empire district of Coos Bay served as the crossing point for Native Americans traveling up and down the coast. The west side of this historic site will be obliterated permanently as it has been chosen as the docking and transfer location for the massive aircraft carrier plus size container ships and crane yard with cranes up to 24-stories high. The train-yard located on the northside will bring a total of 220 acres of heavy industry across from nearly half of the residential neighborhoods of Coos Bay and North Bend. Residents will experience noise and light pollution 24/7. The eastside of “The Hollering Place”, is currently slated for long worked for, major economic upgrades to the recreational boat launch, crab dock and new waterfront park. The turn basin for these giant ships will bring them within feet of the crab dock and yards of the launch. All recreational boating and fishing will come to a halt as these mega-vessels come and go... that is if there is any real fishing or crabbing to be had as the bay itself, from the Charleston entrance to the new docks is slated to be “cut”, scoured and massively dredged to at least a 45’ depth creating essentially a 6+ mile long “ditch” with little “ecology” at all. There are even plans to extend this another two miles with a second turn basin next to the regional airport. These ships rise about 14 stories above the waterline. This new “channel” will allow massive amounts of salt water to enter the upper bay and estuaries. Upgrades to the rail line will result in the removal of thousands of trees and undergrowth often from steep banks. What are the results? Where are the studies needed for possible permitting? One example, the recent forest fire in Mapleton. The container shipping industry is highly vulnerable to market forces beyond their control. Long established West Coast mega-ports are constantly upgrading (automation) and expanding to handle even larger ships. Automation means even fewer job numbers. Expansion? Where? What and where are the 2500-4000 jobs pitched by the PCIP? Do the potential benefits of PCIP pencil out against what will be lost by its construction? These are not hostile questions. They are hard questions which need asking. On 19 November 2025, The League of Women Voters will sponsor a second forum regarding PCIP at the Egyptian Theater in downtown Coos Bay at 6:30 pm. It will address the feasibility of PCIP. (The first forum dealt with ecological impacts and is available on their website). Please plan to attend! Share this letter. Thank you. Steve Skinner North Bend (541-756-3857) Note: It is important to point out that PCIP is a client of the Port of Coos Bay. It is not a prime sponsor

League of Women Voters to Hold Second Presentation on Intermodal Port Project

The public is invited by the League of Women Voters of Coos County to attend an informational presentation titled the Pacific Coast Intermodal Port Project – A Deeper Understanding: Part 2. This educational event, which is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, November 19th, at the Egyptian Theatre in Coos Bay, is the second presentation by the League regarding this project.

The scheduled program on November 19th, The PCIP, A Deeper Understanding: Part 2, will focus on the status and perspectives of the global container shipping industry and intermodal transport systems in North America. The program will include panel members with decades of experience in the container shipping industry, supply chain economics, and railroad engineering and operations. Since 1962 the LWVCC has conducted comprehensive studies of the Port of Coos Bay, updating them on approximately 20-year intervals. The most recent study was completed in 2023 and can be found here: my.lwv.org/oregon/cooscounty/international-port-coos-bay-study The event will be recorded for future viewing on the League’s website:

my.lwv.org/Oregon/Coos-County. The first presentation, provided in April this year, included a discussion of the publicly available information which outlined the project’s components. The video recordings of this event can be viewed on the League’s website. The League of Women voters is a nonpartisan political organization which encourages the informed and active participation of citizens in government.

Marshfield adds to Hall of Fame

JOHN GUNTHER
For The World

Five stellar Marshfield athletes and a state champion dance team were inducted into the school's hall of fame during a recent banquet at the Ko-Kwel Casino Resort.

The individuals — 1956 graduate Steve Langenberg, 1994 graduate Nikki Sighting Zogg, 1997 graduate Matt Zosel, 1999 graduate Travis Burgher and 2000 graduate Laurie Brands — were joined by the 2006 champion dance team, which also included members of the 2004 champion and 2005 runner-up squads.

The new inductees spoke fondly of their time at Marshfield and the lessons they learned that they took on into their post-high school careers.

Sighting, one of the daughters of Marshfield legend Fran Worthen, was state champion in the long jump as a senior. After just making it into the finals as the final qualifier, she had a personal best by nearly a foot on her first jump in the finals and the mark held up for her to be champion.

She went on to compete as a heptathlete at Lane Community College for two years and after college spent eight years in the Air Force, where she was introduced to the public health profession — she has been public health director in southwest Idaho for eight years.

Sighting credited Marshfield swim coach Kathe McNutt for pushing her physical limits, volleyball coach Ken Tedder for developing her endurance and Stan Solomon, her event coach in track and field, for teaching her attention to detail.

"Success is never achieved alone," she said, adding "Without my family and the teachers and coaches I had growing up, I wouldn't be here today."

She added the hall of fame honor was "truly humbling," a thought echoed by her fellow inductees.

Zosel moved to Coos Bay just before high school and went on to star in football and basketball, as well as excelling in the high jump for the Pirates.

"I can't tell you how much this means to me," he said, adding that he was motivated by the names of past Marshfield greats when he was in school.

Zosel went on to be an academic All-American in both football and basketball at Southern Oregon University and had a long career in the Army, as a member of the elite Ranger corps. He was awarded two bronze stars and twice chosen to compete in the Best Ranger Competition.

After his time in the Army, Zosel served more than two years with the U.S. State Department in the Middle East before embarking on a basketball coaching career that eventually landed him back at Southern Oregon University, where he is the men's head coach.

Zosel said he was grateful to Marshfield teacher Jerry Kotsovis for encouraging him academically and to football coach Kent Wigle and basketball coach Mike George, whom he called "the most underrated coach in Marshfield history" for how he made the Pirates successful year after year competing against the tough Eugene schools.

"Every coach I had I was very fond of," Zosel said. "I hope the guys who play for me feel as good about me as I feel about all of them."

Burgher was introduced by former Marshfield athletic director Greg Mulkey, who said he knew watching Burgher as a fourth-grader at Milner Crest Elementary School that he would become something special.

Mulkey said Burgher went on to be not just a great athlete, but an exceptional athlete, because of what he accomplished on the football field and basketball court and even more for the example he set.

At Marshfield, Burgher capped a stellar football career by being named the unanimous Midwestern League MVP after setting the league scoring record with 178 points on a combination of rushing and receiving touchdowns, punt and kickoff return scores and two interception returns.

He went on to start for four years at linebacker for Boise State University, playing on four bowl champions in the process.

Burgher thanked basketball coaches Mike George and Bryan Trendell and Wigle and the other football coaches for their instruction and support during his Marshfield career.

"We had more intense practices than a lot of colleges," Burgher said of Marshfield's football culture that led to four straight undefeated league seasons during his time with the Pirates.

Burgher married former Myrtle Point cross country and track standout Lisa Flora and they have two daughters who also are involved in sports. He encouraged parents in the crowd to provide opportunities for their own children to get involved.

"What I cherish the most is the friendships and memories I got from all of this," he said of his own Marshfield career.

Brands was most valuable player for the Midwestern League and an all-state selection in volleyball her junior and senior years before heading east on an NCAA Division I scholarship to Fairfield University, where she had a chance to participate in two NCAA tournaments, earned all-league honors three times and was her league's tournament MVP.

"This is not just a personal achievement," she said. "It's a tribute to my family and the community of Coos Bay."

She also said she learned along the way that success is not just about talent, but also about dedication, work ethic and the people who support you.

Brands also played basketball and qualified for the state track meet two years in the high jump while she was at Marshfield.

She in particular thanked Ken and Nancy Tedder, her high school and middle school volleyball coaches.

"Thanks for your guidance and believing in me," she said.

The one individual inductee who wasn't able to attend was Langenberg, who also had ties to the military.

At Marshfield, Langenberg played basketball and was a stand-out tennis player. He and partner Clayton Smith beat North Bend's Bob Guenther and Bert Why 6-4, 6-4 in the championship match. Clayton Smith, the quarterback for a pair of state championship football teams at Marshfield, already is in the hall of fame.

Langenberg, the student body president at Marshfield, went on to play tennis for two years at Oregon State University before he went into the military. He spent 34 years in medical services, reaching the rank of colonel.

He and his wife of 62 years, Ginger, live in Bend. Longtime friend Dave Smith spoke for him at the banquet.

"Steve is really enthralled with this award," Dave Smith said, adding that Langenberg and Clayton Smith "set a precedent for tennis" at Marshfield, where the sport had not had much success or exposure.

Six of the 12 members of the dance team were able to attend the banquet, along with coach Debi Brown and assistants Sherrill Van Vleet and Casi Brown.

Before they were introduced, the state champion performance was played on the video board, drawing applause from the big crowd.

Amy (Woods) Kusilek spoke for the team, and the co-captain and choreographer recalled meeting with her fellow co-captain Amanda (Johnson) Sweet before school to try to pick the perfect music for their routine, only to learn that Brown had already picked a song, and a sharp contrast to the previous two years.

"We had sad faces and angry faces the previous two years," she said. "Debbie said we were going to do happy jazz."

Kusilek added that, as it turns out, sad and angry faces were not a good look on her anyway.

The team showed great flexibility with changes to the routine right up to the week of the state championships, Debbie Brown said.

"They grew in respect for each other," she said. "They grew in support for each other. They grew in desire to win."

The team thrived in the classroom, with six members with perfect 4.0 grade point averages during the championship year and cumulatively the best team GPA of any dance program in the state.

"Our team had a goal of being students first," Brown said. "Our ladies excelled at that."

Kusilek said the championship was a team effort.

"Thank you for your perseverance," she said. "You were always willing to work hard and learn new choreography over and over again. Thanks for your resilience."

In addition to Kusilek, other team members who made it to the banquet were Sweet, Leslie (Silver) Murray, Chloe (Danielson) Seets, Hannah Cooney-Valoshinov and Noelle (Caffey) Goude. Other team members included Meghann Townsend, Bianca Widdicombe, Jasmine Wynn, Amanda Hartley, Carley Carew and Katherine Davenport.

JOHN GUNTHER
For The World

COQUILLE — Coquille's hopes of advancing to the Class 3A volleyball tournament at North Bend were ended Saturday when visiting Salem Academy rallied to beat the Red Devils in five sets.

Coquille had momentum after winning the third set for a 2-1 lead, but the Crusaders won the final two sets to advance with a 24-26, 25-20, 15-25, 25-21, 15-8 victory over the Red Devils.

Salem Academy will face No. 2 seed Westside Christian in the quarterfinals of the state tournament at North Bend on Friday. The Eagles beat Pleasant Hill 25-16, 25-23, 25-17 on Saturday in another second-round match.

Saturday's match in Coquille was a roller-coaster affair that started with a dramatic comeback in the first set. Salem Academy led 15-8 before Coquille rallied with eight straight points.

The Crusaders went back in front and led 22-18 but Coquille rallied again to tie it at 23 on back-to-back kills by Peyton Duey.

Salem Academy went back in front and had set point up 24-23 but had consecutive hitting errors — one long and one in the net — and Coquille won the set with a block on another attempt by the Crusaders.

The second set was similar early, with the Crusaders leading 15-7 before Coquille pulled back within one at 17-16 and 18-17. This time, Salem Academy held on, finishing the set with a kill by Bella McGraw.

Coquille dominated the third set from the start. Back-to-back kills by Bristol Layton followed by a pair of stuff blocks gave the Red Devils a 14-7 lead and the Crusaders were unable to recover.

Hallie Johnson had an ace and Olivia Brophy a kill to put the set away.

But Salem Academy showed resilience, building a lead and holding on in the fourth set to force the deciding fifth set.

In that sprint to 15 points, the Crusaders took a 5-0 lead early. Coquille rallied with three kills by Brophy, the Far West League player of the year, in a 4-0 run that cut the lead to 5-4. But Salem Academy pushed back in front and was soon punching its ticket for the state tournament.

Coquille, which went a perfect 12-0 in league play, and Far West League runner-up Douglas both lost at home Saturday. Catlin Gabel beat the Trojans 25-21, 25-9, 19-25, 25-13.

The home teams won the other matches.

Top-ranked and defending champion Valley Catholic beat Portland Adventist 25-21, 25-15, 25-17 to set up a 9 a.m. match with Catlin Gabel.

No. 4 seed Sisters beat Warren-ton 25-13, 25-18, 25-20 and will face No. 5 seed Dayton at 11 a.m. Friday. The Pirates beat Santiam Christian 25-15, 16-25, 25-6, 25-21.

No. 3 seed Burns beat St. Mary's 25-19, 25-13, 25-12 and will face No. 6 Cascade Christian, which topped Vale 19-25, 25-23, 25-20, 25-22. That match will be at 1 p.m., followed by Salem Academy and Westside Christian at 3 p.m.

The semifinals Friday night are scheduled for 6 p.m. and 8 p.m. Saturday's consolation matches are scheduled for 9 and 11 a.m., followed by the third-place match at 1 p.m., the fourth-place match

Pirates will host Crescent Valley in football playoffs

Marshfield will host Crescent Valley in the first round of the Class 4A football playoffs, while North Bend will be up the coast in Tillamook.

The brackets were released after the final regular-season games Friday.

Marshfield beat rival North Bend 41-15 to finish the season 8-1 overall and 4-1 in league play.

The Pirates are the No. 2 seed in the 4A bracket behind top-ranked Cascade.

Crescent Valley is a Class 5A school in all sports but football. The Raiders were 5-4 in the regular season, finishing third in District 3 behind Junction City and Marist Catholic.

Marshfield was 8-1, the lone loss coming at Henley, which is the No. 3 seed for the playoffs. Henley, which won the special district that includes Marshfield and North Bend, will host Seaside in the first round.

North Bend finished 3-2 in league play and 4-5 overall.

The Bulldogs are the No. 12 seed and visit the Cheesemakers, who finished second in District 1 and are 7-2 overall.

Bandon will be home in the Class 2A playoffs, hosting Harrisburg.

Bandon finished a perfect regular season by beating Oakland 56-18 in the final game Friday night and are the No. 3 seed for the playoffs, behind top-ranked Heppner and Lost River. Like Marshfield, Bandon would be home in the first two rounds if the Tigers win their opener.

Myrtle Point had finished league play a week earlier and had a nonleague game against Gervais, which the Bobcats lost 36-0.

Myrtle Point was second in the final league standings and 6-3 overall and will start the playoffs where they started the regular season, at Knappa where they suffered a one-point setback the opening week.

Defending Class 1A six-player champion Powers will start the playoffs on the road after losing in their regular-season finale.

The Cruisers fell to Crow 58-51 and were 5-4 overall and 3-2 in league play. They are the No. 10 seed for the playoffs and travel east in the opening round to face Jordan Valley. The winner of that game is at No. 2 Harper Charter in the quarterfinals.

Coquille finished the season with a high-scoring loss at Siuslaw and missed the Class 3A playoffs.

The Vikings topped the Red Devils 56-34 to finish a perfect 5-0 in District 4 and will host Gervais in the first round of the playoffs. Coquille finished 2-3 in league and 4-5 overall.

Reedsport, which played an independent six-player schedule, finished the season on a positive note with its fifth straight win Friday, shutting out Jewell 49-0.

The Brave finished the season 5-2 with a roster that included 14 players, nine of them freshmen and four seniors. The team had one sophomore and no juniors.

NB girls, Marshfield boys will face Pelicans in soccer playoffs

North Bend’s girls soccer team and Marshfield’s boys both will open the Class 4A playoffs on the road at Klamath Union.

The first round for the girls is Tuesday, while the boys open on Wednesday.

The Bulldogs are the No. 10 seed for the girls playoffs after finishing second in the Sky-Em League. They lost their season finale on Monday at home against Marist Catholic, but did hold the Spartans to their lowest goal total of the league season in the 5-0 setback. Marist Catholic scored at least eight goals in all its other matches, though North Bend also was the only team to score against the Spartans when it lost 9-1 in Eugene.

Marist Catholic hosts Pendleton in the first round.

If North Bend beats Klamath Union, the Bulldogs will face the winner of a match between No. 2 seed The Dalles and the combined Rainier/Clatskanie/Knapa squad.

Marshfield’s boys are seeded 12th after finishing second in the Sky-Em League. The Pirates beat Junction City 7-1 in their regular-season finale and have won or tied their last six matches, including a 2-2 draw against league-champion Marist Catholic.

The Spartans are the No. 8 seed and host Tillamook in the first round. Cottage Grove, the league’s third-place team, is at No. 2 seed The Dalles.

If Marshfield wins, the Pirates will face the winner of a match between Ontario and visiting Phoenix.

Marshfield’s girls finished the season on a winning note, beating Junction City 1-0. The Pirates won two of their last three matches to finish 2-6.

North Bend’s boys fell to Marist Catholic 6-0 and finished the season with a 1-7 league mark.

SWOCC’s Steve Delgado was named regional coach of the year.

Lydia Dmontes De Oca won the 6,000-meter women’s race in 22 minutes and 33 seconds, edging Lane’s Violet Powell by less than a second to lead the Lakers.

SWOCC scored 26 points, easily beating Lane (76) and Umpqua (85). Umpqua’s Analise Miller, from Bandon, was eighth overall (24:14).

Lane won the men’s team title with 21 points, while SWOCC was second with 45.

Emmanuel Salinas was second overall in 26:34 for 8,000 meters to lead the Lakers. Lane’s Andrew Rush won in 25:27.

The Lakers finish the season on Nov. 10 in the NWAC Championships in Spokane, Wash.

SOCCER

SWOCC’s men have advanced to the NWAC playoffs after finishing third in the South Region.

The Lakers finished 4-5-1 in league play and travel to Columbia basin on Wednesday in the first round of the playoffs.

SWOCC’s women missed the playoffs, finishing 1-10-1 in South Region play. The Lakers got their win in their final match, edging Rogue 1-0 on a goal by Aatiana Ricardo-Kahoo, assisted by Diana Burnell.

VOLLEYBALL

SWOCC has dropped three straight matches and fallen into a tie for fourth place in the South Region with Lane after a five-set defeat to the Titans on Saturday.

The previous losses to Chemeketa and at Linn-Benton — the later on Friday night — also came in five sets,

The Lakers and Lane were tied for fourth at 8-6 entering the final week. SWOCC was home against Umpqua on Monday (the scores were not available) and hosts Rogue on Friday.

Umpqua is near the bottom of the standings while Rogue is on top.

Lane’s final two matches also are at home, against Clackamas on Wednesday and Linn-Benton on Friday. Those teams are third and second in the standings, respectively.

Pirates advance to state volleyball tournament

Marshfield advanced to the Class 4A state volleyball tournament with a three-set sweep over visiting Baker in the first round of the playoffs on Saturday.

The Pirates beat the Bulldogs 25-16, 25-18, 25-16 to earn a right to defend their state title on their home floor.

Marshfield is hosting the Class 4A tournament while North Bend is host for the Class 3A event this coming weekend. Last year, Marshfield beat Sky-Em League rival Marist Catholic for the title at North Bend.

If the seeds hold, those teams would meet in the finals for the third straight years, but each will need two wins in the tournament Friday to reach the championship match.

Marshfield took care of business Saturday at home to advance to the tournament.

“The team put together a good three sets tonight,” Marshfield coach Tammie Montiel said. “We are excited to be back in the state tournament and get another week together.”

In the win over Baker, Caroline Knutson led Marshfield’s attack with 15 kills.

The Pirates had 12 aces, including four by Tia Reiber, three by Chloe Runn and two each by Knutson and Kendall Johnson. Johnson also had 12 assists while Runn had 15 digs, Knutson 10 and Johnson nine.

Marist Catholic is the top seed this year and also swept its playoff match Saturday to reach the state tournament, beating La Grande 25-21, 25-11, 25-14. The Spartans face Astoria, which knocked off a third Sky-Em League squad, Cottage Grove, 25-18, 19-25, 25-15, 25-16.

Marshfield faces a familiar foe, The Dalles, a team the Pirates beat in their recent home tournament. The Dalles topped Stayton 25-8, 25-21, 25-15.

All the upper seeds advanced in the playoffs to reach the tournament.

No. 3 seed Pendleton beat Phoenix 25-16, 25-4, 25-19 to earn a matchup with No. 6 Henley, which topped Estacada in three sets.

No. 4 seed Cascade swept Sweet Home, 25-19, 25-16, 25-16 and will face No. 5 seed Philomath, which beat Madras 25-19, 25-18, 25-21.

The state tournament quarterfinals begin with Marist Catholic against Astoria at 9 a.m. Friday, followed at 11 a.m. by Philomath-Cascade, 1 p.m. by Henley-Pendleton and 3 p.m. by Marshfield-The Dalles.

The semifinals are scheduled for 6 and 8 p.m. Friday.

The losers of the quarterfinal matches are in the consolation semifinals Saturday at 9 and 11 a.m. The third-place match is scheduled for 1 p.m., with the fourth-place match at 3:15 and the championship match at 6:30.

Tickets for the quarterfinals are $10 for adults and $6 for students. The price for adults increases to $12 for the semifinals and championship match.

Bobcats beat Regis for spot in 2A tourney

JOHN GUNTHER
For The World

MYRTLE POINT — For the first time in 11 years, Myrtle Point’s volleyball team is headed to the state tournament.

The Bobcats bounced back after losing the first set to beat visiting Regis on Saturday 18-25, 25-16, 25-17, 25-16.

“It’s been a long time,” Myrtle Point coach Tami Brown said. “We’ve been at that step of the playoffs so many times. Breaking through is an exciting achievement.”

Myrtle Point’s last trip to the final site was in 2014, when the Bobcats lost four-set matches in the quarterfinals and consolation semifinals.

They hope for a better showing this time, when they enter the tournament as the No. 3 seed. Myrtle Point faces No. 6 seed Clatskanie in the quarterfinals at 1 p.m. Friday at Eastern Oregon University.

Myrtle Point won the Sunset Conference with a perfect record and takes a 21-match win streak into the state tournament. The only loss on the season for the Bobcats was a five-set defeat at the hands of Class 3A South Umpqua in a nonleague match back on Sept. 9.

Since then, Myrtle Point has only gone as far as five sets once, in a league win over Gold Beach.

But that doesn’t mean Saturday wasn’t stressful for Brown, especially with an unsettling first set filled with Myrtle Point errors.

“That first set, I wasn’t sure what team showed up,” Brown said. “They don’t usually have communication errors.”

Regis took advantage, winning the first set when the Bobcats weren’t able to return a serve by libero Adrianna Gilmore.

But then Myrtle Point settled down behind the strength of the squad, it’s teamwork.

“This is a solid group of six,” Brown said. “They play so well together. They are never individuals. They are always focused on what’s best for the group. That’s what’s so exciting.”

The Bobcats never used a sub the entire match, playing the entire time with a group that included seniors Bailie Detzler and Raylee Murray; juniors Taelyn Farmer, Lauryn Lively and Mary Beth Broer; and freshman Delaney La Franchi.

“We were nervous the first set,” said Detzler, adding that the rest of the match, “we came together as a team.”

Such has been the nature of Myrtle Point all season that the statistics were balanced across the board. The team combine for 37 kills, 64 digs and nine aces. Most of the assists came from Lively, the team’s setter, but the attacks were spread out among the other players.

The Bobcats led most of the final three sets. La Franchi had a couple of big kills to help put the second set away.

Myrtle Point cleaned up its little mistakes from the first set and as momentum swung the way of the Bobcats, they started scoring on well-placed hits, including a few in the third set by Murray, and on errors by Regis. At one point, Detzler got a hand down to just save a Regis serve that had rolled across the net and when the Rams didn’t respond, the ball fell in the open court on the Regis side for a point.

Farmer had a trio of big kills in the final set and Broer had a five-point service run that helped the Bobcats pull away for the victory.

Brown wasn’t surprised by how the team responded after the first set.

“They play well under pressure,” she said. “We’ve been down in a lot of sets (this year). They do a good job of staying calm.”

The team’s reward is the trip to the state tournament, something Detzler is excited about.

“It’s a great opportunity — especially my senior year,” she said.

Myrtle Point lost in the playoffs the past four years, including at home against Clatskanie last year. They hope to avenge that defeat in the quarterfinals Friday.

Clatskanie advanced to the tournament by sweeping Oakridge 25-15, 25-9, 25-12.

The winner of Friday’s quarterfinal match faces either Portland Christian or Trinity Lutheran in the semifinals Friday night.

Portland Christian, seeded seventh, beat East Linn Christian 25-8, 25-21, 25-14. No. 2 seed Trinity Lutheran swept Kennedy 25-20, 25-17, 25-23.

Top seed Crosshill Christian advanced with a 25-18, 25-18, 25-11 win over Bandon on Saturday. The Tigers had advanced to the playoffs by beating Gold Beach in the Sunset Conference tournament.

Crosshill Christian faces Weston-McEwen at 9 a.m. Friday after Weston-McEwen topped Santiam 25-16, 17-25, 25-13, 25-10.

The other quarterfinal, at 11 a.m., features Heppner and Delphian. Heppner beat Culver 23-25, 25-15, 25-15, 25-15 and Delphian topped the combined Faith Bible/Life Christian team 25-8, 25-9, 25-17.

CLASS 1A

Powers was eliminated from the playoffs in the first round Wednesday when Triangle Lake outlasted the visiting Cruisers 25-22, 17-25, 25-19, 25-27, 15-8.

The Cruisers finished fourth in the Skyline League, but saw their strong season end. Triangle Lake lost in the second round of the playoffs Saturday to No. 3 seed Central Christian, 25-12, 25-8, 25-13.

Like Powers, fifth-place Gledale lost in the first round of the playoffs, to North Lake, but the other three Skyline League teams all won their first matches, with North Douglas beating Perrydale, Elkton topping Damascus Christian and Umpqua Valley Christian beating Echo.

Only Umpqua Valley Christian won again Saturday to reach the state tournament, with the Monarchs sweeping Prairie City. North Douglas fell at home to Joseph in a four-set battle and Elkton was swept by host Perrydale.

Like the Class 2A tournament, the Class 1A event is in La Grande, at La Grande High School.

Area teams qualify for state cross country meet

The World

Bandon’s Beckett Pahls and Coquille’s Ella Henthorn won individual titles and Bandon, North Bend, Marshfield and Siuslaw all qualified teams for the upcoming state cross country meet during their respective district meets Thursday.

Pahls led Bandon’s boys to a near-perfect store in the Class 2A-1A District 4 race at Valley of the Rogue State Park near Rogue River.

He covered the 5,000-meter course in 16 minutes and 2 seconds and was followed in order by teammates Sawyer Miller (16:49), Noah Brown (17:11) and Jonah Brown (17:13). Days Creek’s Boe McNeely denied the Tigers a perfect score by placing fifth in 17:28, four seconds faster than Bandon’s fifth runner, Trask Wehner.

The Tigers easily won the team title and are among the team favorites in next week’s state meet at Lane Community College. Bandon ranks third in the final coaches poll behind Knapa and the combined Union-Cove squad that won the past two state titles.

Myrtle Point’s Eli Nicholson also advanced to state as an individual by placing seventh in 17:36 — the top seven finishers from each district meet earn individual spots at state.

Bandon also had Max Wales in 12th (18:36) and Jackson Simonds in 23rd (19:17) and easily won the team title with their score of 16 points. Trinity Lutheran grabbed the second team berth, finishing with 56 points.

Myrtle Point, Reedsport and Pacific did not field complete teams, though Reedsport had two finishers in the top 25. Kyle Dillahay was 18th (18:51) and Alex Martinez 25th (19:20).

In the Class 3A-2A-1A District 4 girls race, Henthorn repeated as district champion with her winning time of 18:12. She finished nearly 30 seconds ahead of Adley Damon of St. Mary’s (18:41), with Bandon freshman Jael Legutki third (19:11).

The top seven runners all came from different schools. Legutki was followed by Trinity Lutheran’s Grace DeLay (19:27), Glide’s Halle Goodman (19:50), Lakeview’s Emma Halblieb (19:53) and Siuslaw’s Adylin Holbrook (19:58).

In the team race, which had three qualifiers for state, Siuslaw won with 58 points, followed by Glide with 63 and Bandon with 84. Coquille was fifth with 107.

Siuslaw’s Pearl Jensen was 13th (20:53), Claire McNeill 14th (21:03) and Abigail Jones 18th (21:25).

Bandon’s Jada Ryder was 15th (21:21) and Safaa Dimitruk 17th (21:25). Gold Beach’s Coco Plaep was 16th (21:23) and Coquille’s Grace Gertner 19th (21:26).

In the Class 3A District 4 race, Siuslaw placed all seven of its runners in the top 15 to easily win the team title. Henry Stone was second (15:59), Bentley Nelson third (16:07), Ezra King fourth (16:34), Sailor Jensen ninth (17:17), Camden Linton 11th (17:23), Yair Brito Xilot 14th (17:41) and Kale Jensen 15th (17:41) for the Vikings.

Cascade Christian’s Seastian Hehn was the winner in 15:36 to lead the Challengers to second place and the other team berth for the state meet.

SKY-EM LEAGUE:

North Bend had three of the top eight finishers in the girls race at Lane Community College as the Bulldogs finished second behind team champion Cottage Grove to advance to the Class 4A state meet.

Addison Horning was fourth to lead the Bulldogs in 19:30, while Ellie Massey was sixth (19:39) and Lauren Wolfe eighth (20:11).

Alize Page was 14th (21:49) and Heidi Truong 26th (23:56) for the Bulldogs, who scored 58 points to finish comfortably ahead of Marist Catholic (71) for the second team berth behind Cottage Grove. The Lions scored 43 points, with six of the top 13 finishers led by third-place finisher Ella Cardwell (19:20).

Junction City’s Lola Esplin won the race in 19:01 and Marist Catholic’s Mary Jane Hill was second (19:17).

Marshfield finished fifth in the team race, led by Bella Cox, who was ninth in 20:35. Kindall Wyatt was 16th (22:23) and Lily Thompson 17th (22:34) for Marshfield.

In the boys race, Marshfield’s Jaxson Stovall finished second to lead the Pirates to second place behind Cottage Grove and a spot in the state meet.

Marist Catholic’s Corbin Sage won the race in 15:39 and Stovall finished in 15:49. Both were more than a minute ahead of the rest of the field.

Cottage Grove had five of the top nine finishers and had all seven in the top 12, led by third-place runner Remington Sharkey (16:52) and dominated the team race with 29 points. Marshfield scored 59, with Marist Catholic third with 76.

North Bend was fifth in the team race, but freshman Angelo Pedrini was an individual qualifier for state, placing fifth in 17:01.

Marshfield’s Charlie Hatch was eighth (17:33) while Zakk Cox was 14th (18:13), Donald Brice 15th (18:25), Liam Ramsey 20h (19:14), Barrett Thomas 21st (19:15) and Ayden McNamée 22nd (19:19).

STATE MEET: The state championships is on Saturday, Nov. 8, with nine races in all.

The 2A-1A boys race at 10 a.m., followed in succession by the 3A-2A-1A girls at 10:35, the 3A boys at 11:10, the 4A boys at 11:45 and the 4A girls at 12:20.

After a break for the larger schools to warm up on the course, the 5A boys race at 1:45, followed by the 5A girls (2:20), the 6A boys (2:55) and the 6A girls (3:30).

NOTICE TO RESIDENTIAL TENANTS
The property in which you are living is in foreclosure. A foreclosure is scheduled for January 7, 2026. The date of this sale may be postponed. Unless the lender that is foreclosing on this property is paid before the sale date, the foreclosure will go through and someone new will own this property. After the sale, the new owner is required to provide you with some contact information and notice that the sale took place.
The following information applies to you only if you are a bona fide tenant occupying and renting as a residential dwelling under a legitimate rental agreement. The information does not apply to you if you own this property or if you are not a bona fide residential tenant. If the foreclosure sale goes through, the new owner will have the right to require you to move out. Before the new owner can require you to move, the new owner must provide you with written notice that specifies the date by which you must move out. If you do not leave before the move-out date, the new owner can have the sheriff remove you from the property after a court hearing. You will receive notice of the court hearing.
PROTECTION FROM EVICTION
IF YOU ARE A BONA FIDE TENANT OCCUPYING AND RENTING THIS PROPERTY AS A RESIDENTIAL DWELLING, YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO CONTINUE LIVING IN THE PROPERTY AFTER THE FORECLOSURE SALE FOR: 60 DAYS FROM THE DATE YOU ARE GIVEN A WRITTEN TERMINATION NOTICE, IF YOU HAVE A FIXED TERM LEASE: OR

999
Legal Notices

AT LEAST 30 DAYS FROM THE DATE YOU ARE GIVEN A WRITTEN TERMINATION NOTICE; IF YOU HAVE A MONTH-TO-MONTH OR WEEK-TO-WEEK RENTAL AGREEMENT.
If the new owner wants to move in and use this property as a primary residence, the new owner can give you written notice and require you to move out after 30 days, even though you have a fixed term lease with more than 30 days left. You must be provided with at least 30 days' written notice after the foreclosure sale before you can be required to move. A bona fide tenant is a residential tenant who is not the borrower (property owner) or a child, spouse, or parent of the borrower, and whose rental agreement:
Is the result of an arm's-length transaction;
Requires the payment of rent that is not substantially less than fair market rent for the property, unless the rent is reduced or subsidized due to a federal, state or local subsidy; and
Was entered into prior to the date of the foreclosure sale.
ABOUT YOUR TENANCY BETWEEN NOW AND THE FORECLOSURE SALE: RENT
YOU SHOULD CONTINUE TO PAY RENT TO YOUR LANDLORD UNTIL THE PROPERTY IS SOLD OR UNTIL A COURT TELLS YOU OTHERWISE, IF YOU DO NOT PAY RENT, YOU CAN BE EVICTED, BE SURE TO KEEP PROOF OF ANY PAYMENTS YOU MAKE.
SECURITY DEPOSIT
You may apply your social security deposit and any rent you paid in advance against the current rent you owe your landlord as provided in ORS 90.367. To do this, you must notify your landlord in writing that you want to subtract the amount of your security deposit or prepaid rent from your rent payment. You may do this only for the rent you owe your current landlord. If you do this, you must do so before the foreclosure sale. The business or individual who pays this property at the foreclosure sale is not responsible to you for any deposit or prepaid rent you paid to your landlord.
ABOUT YOUR TENANCY AFTER THE FORECLOSURE SALE
The new owner that buys this property at the foreclosure sale may be willing to allow you to stay as a tenant instead of requiring you to move out after 30 or 60 days. After the sale, you should receive a written notice informing you that the sale took place and giving you the new owner's name and contact information. You should contact the new owner if you would like to stay. If the new owner accepts rent from you, signs a new residential rental agreement with you or does not notify you in writing within 30 days after the date of the foreclosure sale that you must move out, the new owner becomes your new landlord and must maintain the property. Otherwise:
You do not owe rent;
The new owner is not your landlord and is not responsible for maintaining the property on your behalf, and
You must move out by the date the new owner specifies in a notice to you. The new owner must offer to pay your moving expenses and any other costs or amounts you and the new owner agree on in exchange for your agreement to leave the premises in less than 30 or 60 days. You should speak with a lawyer to fully understand your rights before making any decisions regarding your tenancy. IT IS UNLAWFUL FOR ANY PERSON TO TRY TO FORCE YOU TO LEAVE YOUR DWELLING UNIT WITHOUT FIRST GIVING YOU WRITTEN NOTICE AND GONG TO COURT TO EVICT YOU. FOR MORE INFORMATION ON YOUR RIGHTS, YOU SHOULD CONSULT A LAWYER. If you believe you need legal assistance, contact the Oregon State Bar and ask for lawyer referral service. Coos Art Museum Open New Exhibition Celebrating Tribal Art

Editor

The Coos Art Museum (CAM) held an opening reception for their newest exhibition on Saturday October 25, drawing a large crowd of art-loving locals. Roots and Visions: Celebrating Tribal Art is the museum’s latest in a long-time commitment to showcasing the plethora of incredible artists that call our area home.

In collaboration with the Coquille Indian Tribe, the Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians, and the Confederated Tribes of Coos, Lower Umpqua, and Siuslaw Indians this exhibition contains a wide variety of pieces that honor the long-standing traditions of local indigenous populations through tribal artists living and working today.

One enters through an interpreted version of a plank house entrance. These cedar plank structures, traditional to coastal tribes, often housed entire extended families. They represent the gathering places where tribes would gather around the hearth to share culture, community and ceremony. There is even a replica plank house on display in the form of Mvn’ ‘in-st’vm (Small House) by Bud Lane, Peter Hatch, and Robert Kentta (Siletz).

“Something that has been super important from the beginning is that we’re not going into this exhibit with a prescribed idea of what tribal art is going to be,” said Lydia Heinz, CAM’s Executive Director. “We really wanted the tribes to work with their communities to bring the art they had in their communities and display it here... I’m really excited about bringing new voices into our exhibits.”

That idea shines through in the huge berth of mediums on display. The show really runs the gamut from traditional forms of expression to practical items that show an immense amount of skill; blurring the line between artistry and craftsmanship.

On one end of that spectrum, you have traditional style paintings and prints. One standout is Data Trees by Ashley Cordes (Coquille). An expression of the vast ‘data’ that tribes pass down through knowledge and tradition in the form of a tree, the piece uses negative space to represent the ever-stretching breadth of that knowledge. Hiiné Depoe (Siletz) and Cody Theisen (Confederated Tribes) bring pops of color and tribal motifs to life through the patterns in their vibrant prints.

On the more practical (yet no less skillful or expressive) end, you have the wonderfully textured baskets and fabric arts of Nichole Howe (Coquille), who’s work one has to keep from reaching out and touching. Another wonderful example is Justin Futch’s (Coquille) canoe paddles on display. Actually used out on the water, these paddles are a distillation of how some tribal art is not just a reflection of the practical daily experience of tribal life, it is that life in and of itself.

In the middle of that spectrum, you have the ceremonial garb of the tribes on display. Through intricate beadwork and patchwork, you can see where tradition comes to life in outfits that are used in tribal celebration to this very day. So diligently passed down, the exhibition is a testament to the fact that those very cultures are still alive and in practice today. In spite of mass displacement, erasure, and countless hardships the tribes have kept alight a fire that has had to fight to not be extinguished.

“There has been a common narrative that a lot of tribal groups have existed in the past,” explained Heinz.

“We want to totally dismantle that idea and make it very clear that they are a people still creating art today. Still educating and practicing traditions today, and that is in an exhibit context and in an educational context as well.”

To that point, the exhibit will feature a pop-up shop featuring goods by tribal artisans for sale. The museum hopes that this will be the beginning of a partnership with the tribes that will bring that tribal knowledge to audiences that have not been privy to them through classes and studios.

“All of the tribes have very active, awesome, and established culture and education departments. This exhibit is the first step toward bringing more tribal education into the museum’s normal audiences, and making everyone more aware that the tribes are still here, still doing their thing, practicing their traditions and making it new.” Said

Heinz.

The exhibition will run through January 25, 2026 alongside offering in the galleries upstairs. Currently, there is another exhibition on display of works both made and donated by the museum’s staff and board members. It is a unique opportunity to get a glimpse at the talents and aesthetic priorities of those that curate and guide the CAM’s vision.

Tickets are available on entrance to the museum, with free and discounted admission available through multiple options. The CAM runs a Second Sunday program for free admission, and partners with the Coos Bay and North Bend Public Libraries to offer Cultural Passes. Through the Museums for All initiative, those receiving food assistance can enter the museum for just $1.

would use starvation as a policy decision,” Hoyle said.
“We just gave Argentina $40 billion so they can sell soybeans, take our market from our farmers. We can do that, but we can't make sure that children don't go hungry. That is unconscionable. That is ridiculous.”

Hoyle on Healthcare
While in the area, Hoyle also visited Bay Area Hospital in order to get an idea of what the institution was up against. With a lot of focus on food programs in the last few weeks, huge changes to Medicare have also come with the Trump budget. A huge part of the hospital's financial challenges come from low reimbursement rates from Medicaid and Medicare.
“Everybody knows Bay Area Hospital has a high Medicaid and Medicare population. Understand, without any action, there will be an automatic cut in Medicare reimbursement to providers by 4% under sequestration. Democrats and “Fundamentally people are not going to be able to afford to be on the Oregon health plan. That's small business owners, that's low-income people, it's people with prior conditions... This is worth fighting for. We're seeing everything from a 65% increase to 1100% increase in healthcare premiums, and that is unsustainable.”

“I think the pain in the point. Prior administrations, we could work with them because they cared about people and didn't want Americans to feel pain. I will tell you rural communities are suffering more than urban communities because we already had less doctors, less access, higher Medicaid and Medicare populations. These are the areas that are getting hurt the worst, and these are areas that overwhelmingly voted for President Trump and this Administration...”

Bandon WESTERN WORLD

TheWorldLink.com/community/bandon

As I See It

By Mary Schamehorn

The headline in the April 10, 1958, Western World let the people of Bandon know that we might soon have a new state park, to be named Bullards Beach State Park (first photo).

“The abandoned Coquille River Lighthouse (second photo), opposite Bandon, together with an adjacent area of land may be made into a state recreational park.

“Since the U.S. Coast Guard has announced that the lighthouse together with some 11 acres of land is to be assigned to the surplus property list and offered for public sale, it has been learned through Congressman Charles O. Porter that the federal government may withhold the property from sale if it will be accepted by the state or a local government for park purposes.

“The matter has been referred to C.H. Armstrong, state park superintendent, who in turn has discussed it with the State Highway Commission. Western World has furnished the park superintendent with copies of all correspondence, and under date of April 4, received the following from the secretary of the highway commission:

“I am pleased to inform you that the State Highway Commission approved the recommendation of the State Park Superintendent to make a study of the area surrounding the old abandoned U.S. Lighthouse opposite the City of Bandon on the Coquille River, together with the area north of the Coquille River and east as far as Bullards bridge.”

I am not sure exactly what year the third photo was taken, but this is how downtown looked when I was growing up in the 1950s and 1960s. At the end of Second Street, across from the Masonic building, was the M&L Grocery, which is now a parking lot adjacent to The Minute Cafe. There was a grassy area between the Cafe and the Golden Rule, which is now the Continuum Center, but today the Cafe building, currently empty, has been expanded to include an extra room on the east side.

* * *
I was sorry to learn that Bandon Rural Fire District Chief Nick Siewell is leaving his post to pursue a new opportunity.

The City of Bandon has no fire department, and for the last several decades, we have contracted with the rural fire district for fire protection, which is a great deal for the City. So essentially, Nick is also our Fire Chief, as was Lanny Boston for nearly 50 years!

The Rural Fire District posted on Facebook to recognize and thank Nick for serving the department and the community “with dedication for the past 28 years. Over the last two years, he’s led as Fire chief, bringing experience, leadership and heart to everything he does.

“We’re proud to share that Chief Siewell will be pursuing new opportunities with the Oregon State Police. While we will miss him, we couldn’t be happier to see him continue serving the people of Oregon in this new role.”

His grandfather, the late Bandon firefighter Lyle Hall, was a long-time friend of mine, and he would be so proud of what Nick has accomplished.

Nick and his wife, Sheena Lakey Siewell, have two children.

* * *
The Coos County Board of Realtors posted Oct. 22 on Facebook about a scam that has hit Bandon.

“He strikes again! Our real estate goblin has put on a new mask, that of John Wisniewski, owner of land located at 700 Seacrest Drive in Bandon. You guessed it --the real John is not selling! However, someone posting as him would really love to sell his lots out from under him. Be advised this is the second report in as many days of a person posing as a property owner trying to sell property in the Bandon area. In both instances, the person made contact by phone and had a thick foreign accent. It’s getting scary out there.”

My faithful readers, who click on Bandon.tv every Monday morning to read As I See It, don’t know how close they came to being disappointed last week. As I have done for 16.5 years, every Sunday evening, I emailed my column and the three photos to Steve Buck (Mongo) for Bandon.tv. But at 3:45 a.m., I was jolted awake by the phone, which turned out to be a Bandon police officer doing a welfare check on me, as Mongo had not received my column, and he said that was very unusual. As soon as the officer told me the problem I immediately called Mongo to try and figure out what had happened. I spent close to an hour trying to figure it out and unplugged my router, turned off my computer, etc. and sent them again. This time, not only did the ones I sent after the phone call, but the original posts, came through all at once. Hopefully we won’t experience that same difficulty this week because I am not sure what happened!

I actually started writing my column in 1974 for Western World, and over the years, I have written many hundreds of columns. They would make an interesting book, but it’s not something that I want to undertake.

The Bandon High School Tiger football team continued its winning ways Friday night by defeating Gold Beach 29-26 on a rain-soaked and windy field for a 7-0 record. Friday (Oct. 31) was homecoming and the Tigers hosted the always tough Oakland Oakers, with game time at 7.

Depending on the outcome, this was a chance to secure their first league championship in over 20 years and the first undefeated regular season since the early 1990s.

There will be no Meet and Greet on Nov. 4, which is election day, but the hospital will present the Nov. 11 program on the new Senior Life Solutions program. The museum will host the Nov. 18 program and I understand representatives of Gravel Point development are also on the November schedule, but it may be an evening meeting. More later.

Southern Coos Hospital has entered into a contract with an experienced General Surgeon who will be working here one week a month for routine surgeries. Dr. Brett Schulte began on Oct. 20, and the hospital already had 14 referrals for him and at least two surgical procedures scheduled for the first week.

Dr. Schulte lives in Sunriver, and is retired from the U.S. Navy, and later practiced in the Grants Pass hospital for 20 years. Ray Hino, CEO of SCHHC, said “he is a great fit for our hospital.”

Southern Coos has also welcomed a new infection preventionist Amy Walter, RN, who comes to the local hospital from Bay Area Hospital.

The medical staff and board of directors also approved Dr. Ahmad Namous, DPM, a new Podiatrist in the community, who is expected to schedule podiatric surgeries in the local hospital.

As I mentioned in an earlier column, Dr. Bobak Baharloo, a local podiatrist, has purchased the former highway marketplace building along Highway 101 at Grand Avenue, which was torn down last week. I am assuming he will be constructing a new office building on the property.

People need to mark their calendars for the annual Night of 10,000 Lights, which is scheduled for Nov. 29, and the Lighted Vehicle Parade, which will be held Saturday, Dec. 13.

Recently saw a post on Facebook that Bandon Dunes Golf Resort has been voted the number one best golf resort in America by Golf Digest.

I recently received the rainfall totals for the three months of summer, which recorded a total of 2.44 inches of rain, with 0.09 in July, 0.48 in August and 1.87 in September. The same three month period for the previous year recorded a total of 1.05 inches. The same three months of 2023 recorded 3.27 inches.

Tax bills were sent out recently, and to avoid the loss of the 2% discount, payments must be received or postmarked by Nov. 17. The Real Market Value of property in Coos County increased 3.3029% over the previous year, while the Assessed Value increased 3.7779%. Total taxes due are $93,302,724.27, which is an increase of 1.9173% over the previous year.

As we endured our first strong wind storm Friday, my thoughts turned to Oct. 12, 1962, when the strongest non-tropical windstorm ever to hit the lower 48 in American history occurred 63 years ago. Measured wind gusts along the Oregon and Washington coasts hit 150 mph and more than 100 mph from Eugene to Vancouver, B.C.

I was a cub reporter at Western World, and had several full pages of storm damage photos, including those from Pacific High School where the south side of several classrooms were blown out not long after students had been released from school.

There were several giant windstorms in the 1980s and later, but nothing to compare with the Columbus Day Storm.

Don’t forget that day parking passes for Bullards Beach State Park and Face Rock are available for checkout at the Bandon Library. You must provide a valid Coos or Curry library card at checkout, and only one pass per card holder.

Coos County owns and operates the Beaver Hill Disposal Site, located along Highway 101 between Bandon and Coos Bay. The facility is undergoing significant improvements, primarily focused on the large pit where local refuse is collected and transferred to a landfill in Jackson County.

A new roof structure will replace the existing one, which has deteriorated beyond its useful life after 45 years. The original structure, built in 1980, was part of the county’s Solid Waste Incinerator and disposal facility, which operated until 2012. After the incinerator was decommissioned and removed in 2012, the facility was repurposed and has since operated as a waste transfer station, as well as a public recycling and household hazardous waste collection center. Staffing has decreased over the years from a peak of 19 to the current team of 5.

The $2.5 million cost of the new roof is being funded through reserves the Solid Waste Department has been setting aside over the past decade in anticipation of this project. The department is entirely self-funded though garbage fees, with no tax dollars used to support operations.

People are reminded that the free Household Hazardous Waste Collection event will be Saturday, Nov. 15, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the transfer site. No industrial or commercial wastes will be accepted.
