Did you know?

Did you know that the Mayas practiced cosmetic dentistry before Europeans arrived in the New World?

It's true! The Mayas of Central America were very concerned about the appearance of their teeth. Besides using inlays of gold and colored stones, they also shaped their teeth by filing them into sharp points. This was to honor their Sun God, Kinich Ahau.

We've come a long way! With excellent dental care From Dr. Strong, you will protect your teeth, look great, and feel even better. Keep your beautiful teeth and smile for a lifetime! We enhance people's lives!

Chinese brush paintings on display at library

BANDON - Chinese brush paintings by local artist Janice Horne will be on display
through Nov. 30 at the Bandon Library Art Gallery.

The subtle colors, delicate lines and spare composition of Chinese brush painting are very different from art made in the West.
While traveling in China 30 years ago,
Horne studied and practiced this ancient art, a discipline passed down through the generations by masters to new students.

Using their chi (one's own, intrinsic energy or life force) to guide them, students work to replicate the brush, composition and color techniques of the masters, until they are ready to create their own works, at which point they use these difficult and precise methods in original compositions.

Artistic satisfaction is derived from both the successful grasping and executing of the masters' work and from the ability to find one's own personal expression via the medium.

In this show, Horne displays both paintings that represent the work of the masters of the Lingman School of Art (of the Guangdong region), as well as her own,
original paintings.

Interesting Langlois event set for Oct. 25

LANGLOIS - Interesting Langlois presents local poet and author LilyMars at 6 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 25, at the Langlois Public Library.

LilyMars is the author of the book "Heart Stuck Open," her first book of poetry. LilyMars has been blessed to live in the small and glorious community of Langlois for the past 15 years. She has spent much of that time using her words to explore the extraordinary in our ordinary lives. LilyMars is honored to share her first book of poetry with the audience and to listen to their thoughts.

Cake will be served at this free author talk.

For more information call the Langlois Public Library at 541-348-2066.

Preppers to meet in Bandon

BANDON - Southwestern Oregon Preppers will be holding a meeting at noon on Saturday, Oct. 28, at the Bandon Public Library, Sprague Room, 1204 11th St. SW.

The main topic is "Earthquakes: Myths and Misconceptions." October is the month for the Great Oregon Shakeout. The time to prepare for a possible earthquake and tsunami is now. It is not a matter of if - it is a matter of when.

SWOP meetings always start with a question and answer period before the main topic so all in attendance get a chance to participate.

This is a free public meeting to get to know fellow local preppers in southwestern Oregon counties and to exchange information and ideas. It is important for individuals to understand that they will be "on their own" in the event of a disaster and not to depend on receiving outside help.

Join Southwestern Oregon Preppers on Facebook and/or meetup.com. Those who cannot attend the meeting can visit www.shakeout.org/oregon/index.html to learn more.

Operation Christmas Child seeks local donations

BANDON - A small shoebox full of school supplies, toys, necessity items and notes of encouragement can have a big impact on a child. Operation Christmas Child is a worldwide children's project of Samaritan's Purse that uses simple gift-filled shoeboxes to let hurting children know they are not forgotten.

In 2014, Operation Christmas Child reached a major milestone - delivering shoeboxes to more than 150 million children since the project began in 1993. Millions of hurting children who are victims of poverty, disease, natural disaster, war, terrorism, persecution and famine receive Operation Christmas Child shoebox gifts. For some of these boys and girls, it is the first gift they have ever received. Through the power of a simple gift and the message of hope, these children learn that God loves them.

Operation Christmas Child shoebox gifts will be hand-delivered to children in more than 150 countries on six continents. Boxes from this area will probably go to the Philippines.

Shoeboxes are available from Sally McSherry at 541-347-9130 until Nov. 17.

'Fabulous Fall Concert' offers classical, sacred music

BANDON - A memorable concert of quality classical and sacred music will be offered at 2 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 29, by the musicians of First Presbyterian Church, the Bandon Community Chancel Choir and friends.

In addition to several choral pieces, the concert will feature music director Tom Collins on the organ, piano and vocal solo offerings by Charlotte Pierce, and Steve Krajcir on trumpet. The soloists will also be joined by the Fipples Recorder Ensemble, directed by Charlotte Pierce.

This concert is part of an ongoing series offering a free quality musical experience to the community at least twice per year. This year, the Bandon Community Chancel Choir was invited to participate in the Thanksgiving weekend Carnegie Hall performance of "Appalachian Winter," a Distinguished Concert in New York series production which will be directed by the composer Joseph M. Martin. The Fabulous Fall Concert is being offered at no cost to the community, but a freewill offering will be received in support of the expenses for the choir's trip to New York. The church is located at 592 Edison Ave. SW, Bandon.
