Did you know?

Did you know that a fractured tooth may be completely painless, but cause very serious infection, bone loss and even the loss of the tooth?

It's true! Tiny cracks in a tooth are perfect routes for bacteria to get into the bone, where they multiply and erode bone tissue. If you notice a small bump in your gum, in the area of a tooth root, get it checked as early as possible! You may be saving your tooth and health.

We've come a long way! With excellent dental care from Dr. Strong, you will protect your teeth, look great, and feel even better. Dentistry with a difference!

Free showing of film 'Mending the Line' at Bandon library

BANDON - Everyone is welcome to attend a free showing of the film
"Mending the Line," at 6 p.m., Wednesday,
Feb. 28, at the Bandon Public Library
Sprague Room, 1204 11th St. SW.

The free showing is co-hosted by the Coquille Watershed Association and the Wild Rivers Land Trust. "Mending the Line" is a beautiful story of a World War II veteran, conservationist and Oregon fly-fishing legend who returns to Normandy, France to see the country during peaceful times and fish the rivers he had seen during the war.

According to Coquille Watershed Association board member Tom Jefferson, the film is a "gentle, loving, sensitive story of a man who fought at Normandy and 69 years later returned, for the healing, and for the completion of his story. It's a film that speaks of the healing that rivers offer us.

He and his wife owned the Steamboat Springs Resort on the North Umpqua and have been part of the efforts there to sus-tain the salmon in that river, which is consistent with our work here on the coast and in the Coquille watershed."

March 6 First Tuesday Talk features fashion

COOS BAY - The March First Tuesday Talk will begin at 6:30 p.m. March 6 at the Coos History Museum. Guest speaker Kay Demlow, who is a designer, dressmaker and fashion historian, will give a presentation called “From the Skin Out: What They Were Wearing Underneath.”

Demlow is the owner, designer and dressmaker of Lavender’s Green Historic Clothing, a home-based business in Hillsboro. The business began with a love of the craft of fine sewing and a deep appreciation of historic preservation. Demlow has created authentic reproduction clothing for historic sites, pageants, Oregon Trail wagon train travelers, media productions, theaters and living history reenactments. She creates and presents interpretive programs and fashion shows.

Demlow is active in local and national historical groups. She not only studies and sews historic clothes, she wears them at historic events throughout the year. Tuesday Talks are free to Coos History Museum members and free with a paid admission of $7. The museum is located at 1210 N Front St. on the waterfront of Coos Bay. For more information visit www.cooshistory.org.

First Baptist Church is Red Cross blood drive partner

BANDON - The American Red Cross has been working hard to find new locations for regular blood drives on the Oregon Coast. Every two seconds, someone in the United States needs a transfusion of blood, and with less than 10 percent of eligible donors actually donating blood currently, there is a crisis-level shortage of blood in the U.S.

That’s why when area Red Cross coordinator, Patti McCollum, reached out to Pastor Greg Fodrea at First Baptist Church of Bandon as a potential blood drive host, the small Bandon church opened the doors to its auxiliary building and started spreading the word.

After three relatively successful drives, each larger than the last, First Baptist Church has now been deemed a successful blood drive partner. The historic church will host Red Cross blood drives every other month, with the next drive happening from 11 a.m.-4 p.m. Friday, March 9. Signing up is simple and can be accomplished by calling the church at 541-347-2273 or by contacting the Red Cross directly at 1-800-RED-CROSS or on their website at www.RedCrossBlood.org.

“Hosting community blood drives is an excellent opportunity for us to help people in Bandon make a difference in people’s lives,” Fodrea said. “Being selected as a permanent Red Cross donation site fits perfectly with our church’s mission to minister to all people, at home and around the world.”
