Wine tasting event set for Nov. 16

BANDON - Calling all wine enthusiasts who crave more knowledge about wine. The invitation is out to join fellow wine lovers in the annual celebration of "the new wine" of the 2017 season.

In France, the "new wine" celebration has a focus around a familiar well-known wine, beaujolais.

Beaujolais wines are rather humble in origins and remain low man on wine lists in French restaurants. But on the third Thursday in November the minor player beaujolais becomes the King of Wines.

To learn more about beaujolais wine and do research by sampling some other fine wines, all are invited to attend an open house from 5:30-7:30 p.m., Thursday, Nov. 16, at Bread & Wine and the Hickory Club, located at 340 and 350 Second St. in Old Town Bandon.

Guest wine experts will be pouring samples of vintage French Beaujolais plus the Nouveau of 2017. The world famous French winery Joseph Drouhin label Beaujolais Nouveau will be offered with food pairings with a holiday theme.
