Did you know?

Did you know that without saliva you cannot taste food?

It's true! Saliva is necessary for tasting. It carries dissolved flavor molecules in food to receptors on taste buds, which send flavor signals to the brain. Saliva also contains substances which eliminate viruses, bacteria and fungi from the mouth.

Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail accepting applications

BANDON - Visitors and locals alike are looking more often for places in the region to get fresh and local food. At the same time, local growers, producers and eateries are looking for better ways to let folks know they've got the local food that everyone's looking for. Well, now there's an easy way for the two groups to connect, with this year's Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail.

The local agritourism team, Eat Fresh & Local, is asking local food growers, producers and harvesters, along with restaurants, brewpubs and B&B's who serve local food, to consider applying for a spot on this year's Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail.

The Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail is an expanded version of the original Wild Rivers Coast "Farm" Trail, which was started in North Curry County in 2015 by Cathy Boden, team leader for the Eat Fresh & Local Action Team.

The expanded Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail is open to producers or retailers of local food, in addition to all local breweries, distilleries and wineries that are located along the Wild Rivers Coast; specifically, Curry, Coos and Coastal Douglas counties.

Expansion into the rest of the Wild Rivers Coast, i.e. coastal Del Norte County, is being considered for 2019 or 2020.

To obtain an application for the Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail, producers or retailers of local food can contact Eat Fresh & Local team member, Elizabeth Gronert, via email at ddsouth@thepopscoscoast.com. Once the application has been completed and returned, the committee will review each applicant to ensure that the criteria have been met and, once approved, the applicant will receive signage, marketing materials, guaranteed listings with a variety of tourism-focused organizations and more, all for an annual $100 membership fee.

The Eat Fresh & Local Action Team is anticipating a 2018 opening date for the Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail of Earth Day, April 21, so the deadline for applications to be completed and turned into the team is Monday, April 9. For more information, contact Gronert at the email listed above, or visit the Facebook page, Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail (<https://www.facebook.com/wrcft/>).
