Did you know?

Did you know that dental implants can help to strengthen bone and to save your existing teeth?

It's true! Dental implants exercise and strengthen bone which resorbs when teeth are lost. They also help distribute chewing forces, which reduces stress on existing teeth, and helps prevent damage to good teeth.

We've come a long way! With excellent dental care from Dr. Strong, you will protect your teeth, look great, and feel even better. With dental implants, you can now keep your smile for a lifetime! Dentistry with a difference!

Oregon Poet Laureate Kim Stafford to visit Gold Beach on Oct. 13

SALEM - Kim Stafford, Oregon's new poet laureate, is making good on his promise to connect with as many Oregonians as possible, with more than two dozen statewide appearances scheduled before the end of the year. He will visit close to 20 more communities before Dec. 31.

Appointed Oregon's ninth Poet Laureate in May by Governor Kate Brown, Stafford is the founding director of The Northwest Writing Institute at Lewis & Clark College. Constantly writing, Stafford has already been so inspired by his travels that he plans to release a book of poetry inspired by Oregon's natural beauty and vibrant communities.

On the South Coast, Stafford will visit Gold Beach on Saturday, Oct. 13. From 10 a.m.-2 p.m., he will hold a free exploratory writing workshop, followed at 7 p.m. by an evening poetry reading at the Curry County Library, 94341 Third St, Gold Beach.

Stafford was born and grew up in Oregon. He is the author of a dozen books of poetry and prose, and edited half a dozen others. His book, "Having Everything Right: Essays of Place," won a citation for excellence from the Western States Book Awards in 1986. He holds a Ph.D. in medieval literature from the University of Oregon, and has worked as a printer, photographer, oral historian, editor and visiting writer at a host of colleges and schools, and also offered writing workshops in Italy, Scotland and Bhutan. He lives in Portland with his wife and children.

The Oregon Poet Laureate fosters the art of poetry, encourages literacy and learning, addresses central issues relating to humanities and heritage, and reflects on public life in Oregon. Stafford will provide up to 20 public readings per year in settings across the state to inform community, business and state leaders about the value and importance of poetry and creative expression. The program is funded by the Oregon Cultural Trust.

To learn more about the Oregon Poet Laureate program, or to schedule an event with Kim Stafford, visit the Poet Laureate website.

Molly Tuttle is first Showcase concert of season

BANDON - Bandon Showcase presents singer-songwriter Molly Tuttle for its first concert of the 2018-19 season.

Tuttle will perform at 7:30 p.m., Friday, Oct. 12, at the Sprague Community Theater, 1202 11th St. SW, in Bandon City Park.

A virtuoso multi-instrumentalist and award-winning songwriter with a distinctive voice, Tuttle has turned the heads of even the most seasoned industry professionals. Her lovely voice, impeccable guitar playing and sensitive song writing make her a star on the rise.

Her 2017 win for Guitar Player of the Year from the International Bluegrass Association was history-making, as the first woman to ever be nominated for the honor. The accolades kept coming in 2018 as Folk Alliance International's International Folk Music Awards awarded her Song of the Year for her song "You Didn't Call My Name."

On her debut solo EP "Rise," Tuttle reveals the rich new ground she's discovered. Anchored by her lucent vocals, smart writing and incredible flat-picking, "Rise" is a direct reflection of Tuttle's personal and artistic growth over the last several years.

Reserved seating tickets are $25 each and are available at Bandon Mercantile, 541-347-4341, at www.bandonshowcase.org or at the door.

Visit Bandon Showcase's website at www.bandonshowcase.org for more information. For more information on Tuttle, visit www.mollytuttlemusic.com.

Tuttle's performance will also include a free outreach for local students in grades 5-12 earlier in the day. Those interested in the outreach opportunity can call Bandon Showcase Chairman MaryAnn Soukup at 541-329-0380.

New hospital art show opens Sunday with reception

BANDON - The Southern Coos Hospital & Health Center will host a show of artworks created depicting buildings of all sorts - shanties, shacks, barns, bridges and warehouses. All structural things man-made were considered subjects for the artists' consideration.

The show is titled "Shanties, Shacks &

Other Structures," and opens with a special reception from 1-3 p.m., Sunday, Oct. 7, in the hospital lobby, 900 11th St. SE. Refreshments will be served. The show runs through December and features the art of the Bandon Plein Air Group and the Coquille Painters. Some of the works are for sale.

The Gaels to present 'Bandon Burns!' for encore performance

BANDON - The voices of survivors of the 1936 fire that destroyed Bandon will be heard again in the Gaels Readers Theater production, "Bandon Burns!"

Originally performed last year, the Gaels partnered with the Bandon Historical Society to create a dramatic staged reading using actual narratives from the Historical Society's 2012 book, "Bandon Burns! Survivor Accounts of the Bandon Fire of 1936."

"Audience response was amazing, so we're fortunate to have a larger venue this year," said Neal Davis. "Our last collaboration, "Murder at Two Mile," sold out each performance. Bandon audiences appreciate our town's rich history and, with the Museum, we're proud to bring some of that to life."

Sponsored by Bandon Inn, the Museum and the Gaels will again stage "Bandon Burns!" for one performance only at 2 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 7, at the Sprague Theater, 1202 11th St. SW. After the performance, representatives from the Museum will take audience questions.

Tickets are $5 at the door. Ticket reservations can be made by emailing your request to: gaelstheater@gmail.com.
