Heroes come in all shapes and sizes, they say. And as one instance showed, they come in all ages, too.

In many ways, Calvin Graham’s story was typical of many young men of his generation. His childhood was spent in a poor family, trying to get by amid the Great Depression. He sold newspapers to help make ends meet.

His dad died, his mom remarried, and Calvin was ready to leave home. Like many folks in his dire situation at the time, he saw joining the military as a way out. However, there was a problem. Calvin was 12 years old in 1942, not even close to being old enough to enlist legally.

That didn’t stop him. With meticulous planning, he started shaving (even though he didn’t need to), deepened his voice, and walked rigidly erect, all in a bid to appear older. He carefully forged his mother’s signature on his enlistment papers, and even memorized a fake birthdate.

And with that, he was in the U.S. Navy. While other kids his age back home were learning the three R’s, Calvin was undergoing basic training. With war raging in the Pacific, the youngster was assigned to the USS South Dakota and shipped off to sea.

His baptism of fire quickly followed.

November 14-15, 1942, the South Dakota came under withering attack in the brutal Battle of Guadalcanal. It wasn’t kid stuff. Though barely in puberty, he was now in life-or-death combat.

One shell after another slammed into the South Dakota as it bore the brunt of a savage Japanese assault. Burning shrapnel seared Calvin’s body. Bleeding profusely, the 5-foot-tall sailor helped rescue his injured crewmates as fire raged through the damaged ship, pulling as many as he could to safety despite his intense pain.

The South Dakota managed to stay afloat, though badly damaged. Forty of its crew were killed; an additional 180 were wounded, including Calvin, who received the Bronze Star and Purple Heart for his heroism, along with the respect of those who had witnessed his bravery.

However, trouble was brewing back home. His relatives got wind of his enlistment and wrote to the Navy Department, informing officials that he wasn’t even a teenager yet.

An investigation followed, and Calvin’s story swiftly fell apart. He was unceremoniously arrested, stripped of all his medals and citations, dishonorably discharged, and sent packing.

No one knew it at the time, but Calvin Graham left the Navy as the youngest American to fight in World War II.

A hard life followed. After he’d survived severe combat, he couldn’t just go home and hang out at the soda fountain in the local drugstore with other adolescents. He married at 14, became a father at 15, and was divorced by 17.

He also enlisted in the Marine Corps, legally this time, when he was 17. Bad luck still followed him. He fell off a pier and broke his back during the Korean War, ending his military service.

Calvin spent the rest of his life trying to clear his name. In 1978, President Jimmy Carter signed off on his finally received an honorable discharge.

In 1988, his story was turned into the TV movie “Too Young To Serve” starring Ricky Schroder. That same year, President Ronald Reagan signed legislation that allowed him to receive $18,000 to cover his past medical bills.

Fortune, it seemed, was finally smiling on the once young warrior. All too soon, it faded.

With many of the doctors who had treated him over the years now dead, he was unable to produce the required receipts for his treatment, and so he received only $2,100 of the $18,000 he was entitled to.

Even worse, although the film rights to his story had fetched $50,000, two agents took half of it, with another big chunk going to the author of an unpublished book about his wartime exploits. Calvin was left with just $15,000 — before taxes.

His heart finally gave out, and he died in 1992 at age 62, two years before the secretary of the Navy personally presented his Purple Heart to his widow.

Most of the 16 million men and women who served their country during World War II were later celebrated as heroes. Calvin Graham spent his entire life fighting for the right to be officially recognized as one of them.

Wreaths Across America, which honors our fallen veterans, is gearing up for its annual ceremony on December 13th and organizers are putting out a vital call for new volunteers to ensure the program's future.

Locally, the ceremony will be precisely timed to begin at 9 a.m. aligning with the 12 p.m. laying of the wreaths at Arlington National Cemetery. The Brookings' event will take place at the WJ Ward Cemetery.

This year's ceremony will feature a dual Master of Ceremonies role shared by Representative Court Boice and Brookings' Mayor Isaac Hodges, with Dr. Jessica Carlson set to perform the national anthem.

The commitment to honoring our local heroes remains strong. This year, the community raised an impressive $3,700, which will facilitate the purchase and placement of 257 wreaths for our fallen warriors.

"The fundraising drive typically runs from April to October. We're usually at the parking lots of Bi-Mart and McKays," said Bemis. "We have corporate sponsors too, from local businesses in addition to the people who give."

Beyond the ceremony itself, support activities are underway for the event. Tiny American risks nationwide, including in the southwestern most region of Oregon, which logged over 50 asbestos-linked casualties.

Equally alarming is the pervasive pollution caused by per- and polyfluoroalkyl substances (PFAS), artificial compounds widely used in firefighting foams and turnout gear. Because these chemicals are difficult to break down, they can slowly infiltrate soil and groundwater, exposing veterans and nearby communities to ongoing health risks, alongside various other pollutants.

The Urgent Call for Lasting Accountability
The commemorations

each November remind the nation of its enduring promise to veterans and their families; yet, such remembrance rings hollow if government reforms seriously falter in implementation.

To address this, lawmakers passed the Honoring Our PACT Act of 2022, which broadens access to healthcare services and disability benefits. Under this program, the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) has already received nearly three million claims, including over 30,000 from Oregon, while almost two million applications have been approved.

Building on this, the VA Home Loan Program Reform Act was likewise enacted to aid veterans struggling with mortgage payments.

Even with these promising measures, navigating the claims process and obtaining rightful benefits remains a challenge for many. Ensuring these measures achieve their full impact requires that policymakers and other stakeholders collaborate to simplify processes as well as expand outreach to guarantee that all veterans and their families get the care and support they direly need.

We're grateful for every opportunity to raise awareness of their toxic exposure, one of the many challenges they encounter during service. Many vets face illnesses from various exposures, in addition to everyday hardships such as healthcare gaps and housing insecurity. We urge citizens and policymakers to translate patriotic sentiment into tangible support.

Further, no action has been instituted to recover the debt, or any part thereof, now remaining secured by the trust deed, or, if such action has been instituted, such action has been dismissed except as permitted by ORS 86.752(7). Both the beneficiary and the trustee have elected to sell the said real property to satisfy the obligations secured by said trust deed and notice has been recorded pursuant to Section 86.752(3) of Oregon Revised Statutes. There is a default by grantor or other person owing an obligation, performance of which is secured by the trust deed, or by the successor in interest, with respect to provisions therein which authorize sale in the event of such provision. A conversation with Bay Area Hospital's new CEO

By NATE SCHWARTZ
Editor

Amid financial difficulties that led to massive turnaround efforts and a new-look Board of Directors at Bay Area Hospital (BAH), said board made the critical decision to appoint Gretchen Nichols as the hospital's new CEO last month. Before new board elections in May this year, the hospital's decision makers under former-CEO Brian Moore were adamant that BAH would have to sell to private equity-owned healthcare management firm Quorum to survive. Now, with new leadership at the helm, BAH faces the uphill climb of keeping the hospital independent under a worsening climate for rural healthcare nationwide.

We sat down with Nichols to hear her connection to the area, her journey through the healthcare industry, her ideas on the turnaround, and her leadership philosophies. A condensed version of that interview is presented below:

The World:

What is your connection to the South Coast? There have been a lot of comments about how you've chosen Coos Bay, chosen to retire here.

Gretchen Nichols:

Well, I grew up in California, in the San Francisco Bay Area. My undergrad program was at Humboldt State, not too far from here on the North Coast of California. Arcada, Eureka, lots of similar culture and communities to here. I lived for ten years in that community... Through job opportunities I moved up into the Portland market, had kids and a family up there. I worked in the Portland Market in healthcare, in executive leadership, and I decided that I wanted to retire early. I looked around for where I wanted to spend my time and wanted a community, culture, and environment that was different. I loved the coast and identified Coos Bay as an ideal community... It was more of a true community here, and I love the climate and the activities here. I'm an outdoors person. We love the beach, the woods, going up to the Elliot State Forest. We love fishing, crabbing. It just really fit for us. We found some great land here and wanted to build a house...

I also thought, I'm going to live in this community so I want to be a part of the healthcare that's delivered here, because I'm going to be a user of that. I got connected with the team here and started helping out in a part time capacity. Once I started working here, I just kept getting drawn into the work. It has so much potential here, there's so much we can do to make this place great... I kept offering myself up to do more... I ran a community hospital in Gresham for 15 years. Mt. Hood Medical Center is very similar in a lot of ways to [BAH]. I also led a level one trauma center, a 500-bed hospital in Portland as well. So, I have that experience in leading executive healthcare operations, and I knew I could add value...

The World:

You started at the bottom of the ladder in healthcare; can you talk about your journey up and the perspective it gives you?

Gretchen Nichols:

I was trained as a nurse at Humboldt State, and that was my entry into healthcare. I started as a CNA when I was in nursing school. When I think about my journey in healthcare, I literally have done every role. I was a CNA, then a nurse, then a charge nurse, an educator, assistant nurse manager, manager, director, CNO, president. I went all the way up the chain.

I think my clinical background definitely helps me with a broad perspective of the workforce, and the operations and work that's being done here...

Why I stay in the work that I do is because I love people, and I love investing in people. When I think about changes and impacts that we're making I always think, 'How does this affect the people that do the work?' How does this affect a CNA, or the person working in the cafeteria, or the engineer that's working on our

Gretchen Nichols:

When people talk about reducing costs, restructuring, I can imagine staff gets antsy. They worry about lay-offs, they worry about downsizing. Do you have a message to staff who might be

Flags have been purchased and a few days prior, the flags will be meticulously placed at each grave site.

The Elks Lodge is helping out by allowing the wreaths to be offloaded at their parking lot, because the shipment requires an 18-wheel truck to get them here.

“They’re delivered to the Elks Lodge parking lot because there’s no other place for that,” said Bemis. “The truck can’t get to the cemetery. It’s usually an eighteen-wheeler.”

On the day of the event, there will be refreshments in the morning and the local Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) will provide an honor guard and rifle squad to kick off the ceremony.

In addition, Dan Brattain, founder of Cal-Ore Life Flight, has arranged for special flyovers during the ceremony.

The remembrance is capped off just after Christmas, when the cemetery staff performs the somber duty of removing the wreaths.

While the ceremony is a staple of the holiday season, the five-year stewardship of long-time organizers Don Bemis and Debbie Salzman is beginning to wind down.

Due to age, they can no longer commit the same level of energy to the program, so the search is on for dedicated community members to take the reins and ensure the tradition thrives for years to come.

“Volunteers are needed not just for the day of the ceremony, but to spearhead the program so that this important tribute is not lost to the community,” said Bemis.

According to the website: Wreaths Across America was founded in 2007 to continue and expand the annual wreath-laying ceremony at Arlington National Cemetery begun by Maine wreath maker Morrill Worcester in 1992.

The organization’s year-long mission—Remember the fallen, Honor those who serve, Teach the next generation the value of freedom—is carried out, in part, each year by coordinating wreath-laying ceremonies in December at thousands of participating locations in all 50 states and beyond.

For more information, or to become a volunteer, contact: Don Bemis at: dieselair47@att.net or 541-661-0462 or Debbie Salzman at dgailsalzman@att.net or 760-985-3339.

Obituaries

Gerald Russell Danielson

June 3, 1934 – September 15, 2025

Gerald Russell Danielson passed away peacefully at his home with family in Coquille, Oregon, on September 15, 2025, at the age of 91.

Born on June 3, 1934, in Brownsville, Oregon, to Russell and Edna (Halter) Danielson, both originally from Coos County. Gerald spent his childhood in Albany, Pendleton, Myrtle Point, and Portland before moving to Coquille in the fourth grade following the passing of his father. He graduated from Coquille High School in 1952, where he played on the football team and formed lifelong bonds with classmates.

In the fall of 1952, Gerald began studies at Oregon State University before transferring to Linfield College. His education was interrupted in 1954 when he was drafted into the U.S. Army. He trained at Fort Ord in Monterey, California, and served as a military police officer with the 25th Infantry Division at Schofield Barracks in Oahu, Hawaii. Gerald often shared stories from his time in the service, recalling the names of fellow servicemen and officers with whom he had served.

After two years of service, Gerald returned to Linfield to complete his degree. During a night out dancing with friends, he met his future wife, Donna Halvorson. They married in the fall of 1958, shortly after his graduation. Together, they made their home in Coquille, where they shared nearly six decades of marriage until Donna's passing in 2017.

Gerald began his career in real estate with his stepfather, Cecil Little, before becoming a probation officer for the State of Oregon in 1960. After 26 years of dedicated service, he retired from the department. Finding extra time on his hands, he later went to work for Conrad Lumber in Coos Bay, until his second retirement.

He enjoyed camping, hunting, reading, and golfing. From 2001 to 2016, he and Donna spent their winters at their second home in Yuma, Arizona. They could often be found playing washoes; Gerald was a regular at the golf course and Donna at the swimming pool. They enjoyed traveling and attending potlucks with friends and family. In his later years, he enjoyed going on drives and road trips. He also loved teaching his grandchildren how to play dominoes and board games. He was a longtime member of the Coquille Valley Elks Lodge and the First Christian Church. While in Yuma, Gerald and Donna attended the Assembly of God Church.

Gerald was preceded in death by his wife, Donna; his parents; sister, Lila Spalding; brother-in-law, Bill King; and nephew, David Spalding.

He is survived by his children: Kurt and Faye Danielson, Karen and Rick DePriest, Eric and Verissa Danielson, Todd and Paige Danielson, Megan and Tim Rosario, and Chaya Sutphin. He is also survived by his sister, Phyllis King; twelve grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren. His beloved dog, Daisy, will continue to be cared for by Verissa and Eric.

Gerald will be remembered for the love he carried for his family, his humor, stories, and his love of Jeopardy!

A service will be held at Coquille Christian Community Church in Coquille on November 29th at 11:00am, followed by a gathering at the home of Karen and Rick DePriest in Coquille. Donations may be made in Gerald's memory to Shriners Hospitals for Children.

Arrangements are under the direction of Amling/Schroeder Funeral Service-Coquille Chapel 541-396-3846. On-line condolences and remembrances may be shared at www.westrumfuneralservice.com

Jacqueline Ida Church

May 20, 1966 – October 24, 2025

Jacqueline Ida Church was born May 20, 1966 to Arthur and Magdalena Mann in Lompoc, California. She was 59 years old when she went to walk with our Lord and Savior on October 24, 2025. She is survived by her husband, Greg Church; her son, Steven Church; her daughter, Serenia Church; her sister, Dolores Kirk; her sister, Mary Shaw, and her grandson, Eliot Horton. She is preceded in death by her father, Arthur Mann; her mother, Magdalena Mann; her sister, Patricia Purvine and her sister, Rosie Stella and her baby brother, Johan.

Her life was full – full of love, full of laughter, and full of memorable moments. She loved crabbing, fishing, and camping. She cherished meaningful conversations with family and friends, beach days, and quality time with her grandson, Eliot. She had so much life to live, but I guess God had other plans for her. Although this is a tragic event that's extremely hard for us to grasp, Jackie would've wanted us to keep our spirits high, because that's who she was. Her laughter and light shone brightly, casting a glow on our lives that will never dim.

We will always have you to look over us, and will miss you forever. Rest in peace Jackie.

Arrangements are under the care of Coos Bay Chapel, 541-267-3131. www.coosbayareafunerals.com

John Fryer

January 08, 1933 – October 04, 2025

John Fryer, 92, of Reedsport passed away in the early hours of Oct 4, 2025. John passed away from throat cancer and complications from dementia.

John Roscoe Fryer was born January 8, 1933, in Gardiner, Oregon, to Roscoe Hedden Fryer and Minnie Alberts Fryer of Scottsburg, Oregon. John attended grade school in Scottsburg and graduated from Reedsport High School in 1951.

After graduation, he was drafted into the US Army where he served in Korea. He was honorably discharged as a Tech Sergeant in 1953. John married Marjorie Kolander on June 19, 1965, in Carson City, NV and they enjoyed 60 years together.

John drove trucks most of his adult life, several years as the #1 gypo for Chuck Royer Trucking. He then started his gravel/rock trucking/excavating business 'John R. Fryer Trucking'. He had 2 trucks, and the last truck (big yellow) drove 1.3 million miles within a 50-mile radius of Reedsport. He truly loved driving trucks and the trucking industry. On 2/14/2016 John retired, selling the business and his 'big yellow' 1979 Kenworth truck. John also enjoyed car shows and working on his 1949 Mercury.

He was preceded in death by his younger brother Henry Fryer of Scottsburg. He is survived by his wife Marjorie 'Margie', nephew Brian Fryer and wife Betty of Gresham OR, niece Robin Fryer Moore and husband Scott Moore of Winnemucca NV; 3 grandnieces, 1 grandnephew; and 2 great-grand nephews.

The celebration of life will be at 1:00 pm on November 16, at the Scottsburg Hall. Food will be provided. 10-4 Good Buddy!

Txanton Cleverley

December 03, 1989 – October 07, 2025

Txanton Cleverley died October 7, 2025 from liver disease. She was born December 3, 1989 in Salt Lake City, Utah. She graduated from North Kitsap High School in 2007 and spent a year as an exchange student in Paraguay. She attended UNLV and met Anthony Moore. They moved to North Bend, Washington where the loves of her life, sons Atlas and Asher were born. They moved to Reedsport where she owned Crabby's Bar & Grill.

Txanton was a pirate at heart and loved puzzles, mysteries, throwing surprise parties and treasure hunts. She loved her staff and the people in Reedsport. She secretly dressed up as the Easter Bunny and left Easter eggs all around Winchester Bay. No birthday ever went unnoticed.

She was happiest with her boys, making endless games and treasure hunts for them. They loved her, and she will be missed greatly.

She is survived by sons, Atlas Moore, 9, Asher Moore, 7, and bonus son Ayden, 16, (Anthony); parents, Matthew Cleverley (Melissa), and Jennafer Christopherson; two siblings Wylee (Jason) Rizzitello and Kynan (Brooke) Cleverley; and two nieces and two nephews. A memorial service will be December 6, 2025 at 11:00 AM at the LDS church in Reedsport.

Raymond Coburn

January 19, 1935 – October 25, 2025

Raymond was a devoted Catholic and longtime member of his church community. Known for his steadfast nature and honesty, he was a man who said what he meant and meant what he said. He always had a prayer for everyone and faithfully included loved ones in his daily devotions. He found joy in singing and often called family and friends on their birthdays to share a song and a smile. He loved spending time with his family and was especially proud to be known as "Papa" to his great-grandchildren, Luca and Sophia. He enjoyed traveling all over the world, and has visited the Philippines, Hong Kong, Thailand, Australia, Sweden and Europe.

Raymond was called home on October 25, 2025 at the age of 90. He was born January 19, 1935 to Ella Marie Sandberg Coburn & Elbert Lee Coburn in Sioux City, Iowa. From a young age, he was passionate about serving his country and enlisted in the Army National Guard at just fourteen years old and served between 1949-1951. Due to being underage, he was honorably discharged. He went on to serve his country between 1953-1956 as an Engineer Equipment Operator during the Korean War in the United States Marine Corps and rose to the rank of Sergeant. As a proud veteran, he was rarely seen without his red Marine Corps jacket and hat.

His military service was simply the beginning of his life devoted to protecting others. After moving from Iowa to California, he worked for the Pacific Bell Company for three years while attending Fullerton College. During that time, he took the entrance exam for the LA City Fire Department and passed with flying colors. He carried that spirit of service into his civilian career, serving in the Los Angeles City Fire Department, as a firefighter and search & rescue scuba diver from 1963-1985. He later became a fire inspector for the city and, after retirement, continued that role on movie sets from 1985-1995.

After a full retirement from being a fire inspector, he relocated to Haynes Way in North Bend, Oregon in 1990. In 1994, he settled down in Green Acres in Coos Bay where he lived until his passing.

Raymond is survived by his wife, Grace Cruz Coburn of 35 years; children, Debbie, Larry and wife, Rocio, Tim and wife, Myrna; grandchildren, Cindy, Chris, Kelly, MJ, Raymond, Arcel, Brittany, Todd, Michael, Rachelle, Melissa, Brendan, Ashley and Matt, and numerous great-grandchildren.

A funeral mass was held at Holy Redeemer Catholic Church followed by a graveside at Sunset Memorial Park in Coos Bay. Arrangements are under the care of Coos Bay Chapel, 541-267-3131 www.coosbayareafunerals.com

Coos County Deputies execute search warrant, arrest one in connection to Kidnapping and Assault

RELEASE FROM COOS COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

On October 31st, 2025, at around 8am, Sergeant Slater of the Coos County Sheriff's office began investigating a report of kidnapping and assault, where a female stated she was pulled out of a car, kicked, and held in a residence against her will at gunpoint.

As a result of the investigation, Sergeant Slater, along with Deputies Vitek, Burgo, and Lay, arrived at a residence outside of Coos bay to contact the involved male, Zachary Maver (32). A search warrant for the residence was applied for and granted, and Maver was arrested without incident.

Maver was transported to the Coos County Jail where he was booked on the charges of Kidnapping II, Assault IV Domestic, Unlawful use of a Weapon, Menacing, and Strangulation.

“Police action is not indicative of guilt. All persons are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.”

Gretchen Nichols:

There is always change in health-care... In our case, we do have to right-size the organization. With the reductions in reimbursements, the changes in the economy and the payer mix here, and the volumes that we're seeing, we have to react to that. If we don't it has a broader impact on our survivability. So unfortunately, we do have to make those changes.

It's so hard. It is devastating to people because it's lives and livelihood. It is a really tough thing for everybody, not only to people leaving the organization but their co-workers who have to say goodbye to their friends. And the worry and fear about 'Is there more?' We can't ever promise that there won't ever be more reductions in force. We're doing our best to make the best decision, the most strategic decision, that is carefully planned so that we don't have to keep doing more and more...

We're always checking against the decisions that we're making to be sure that they are the right decisions... We do have some culture work to reestablish here. Any time an organization goes through disruption like this, it impacts the people. We really need to build that back so that people aren't concerned about 'Am I going to lose my job next?'

Part of my strategy is right-sizing the organization, which we are already underway with, and then growing the organization. Getting the physicians in here that build the volumes so people can have jobs, and the people who are still here have jobs in the future. That's what we're trying to focus on right now...

It would be wrong for me to say, 'This is it. We're not going to lay-off anybody again.' And we don't know what's happening with the federal government and the 'Big Beautiful Bill'. Unfortunately, worried about restructuring in those terms?

Gretchen Nichols: Bay Area Hospital CEO Gretchen Nichols

if there are more Medicaid cuts, and that comes down to impact us, we have to respond... Its scary for rural hospitals, we're all very concerned about what is going to happen to our reimbursement...

In Conclusion

We went on to discuss BAH's legislative priorities, which have been covered in previous articles on the hospital. The hospital is hoping primarily for help from the State Treasury in refinancing their loan with Bank of Montreal, and is feeling hopeful about that possibility. In fact, Nichols' closing comments were hopeful in general:

"I'm excited about our opportunity here. Everyday, more good things are happening and I am very hopeful. We're engaging with people who hadn't been engaged with us before. We are revitalizing things that had slipped away," closed Nichols.

"One of the things that I find extremely hopeful about this community is: I have had more community partners reach out to me since taking this role. Not just to introduce themselves to me, but to offer help. That's what is so special about the Coos Bay/North Bend area, and this whole region, is the whole community banding together to help... You don't get that elsewhere."

"We've spent a lot of our energy and time focused on the dollars, and we have to because it's critical. But we should be spending more of our energy on investing in our employees, and delivering the finest quality care... As we're getting stabilized with our finances, that is my principal area of focus: supporting my team here, the staff and independent providers that are part of this team, so that we can deliver the finest care to this community."

EUGENE — The South Coast had a big day at the cross country state championships Saturday with an individual champion and a pair of runners-up, several other podium placers and two teams that took home trophies. The individual champion was Coquille sophomore Ella Henthorn, who overcame illness during the season to dominate the Class 3A-2A-1A girls race. Bandon's Beckett Pahls was second in the Class 2A-1A boys race to lead the Tigers to second as a team. Marshfield's Jaxson Stovall was second in the Class 4A boys race and Siuslaw won the Class 3A boys title.

Henthorn won her race in 18 minutes and 14 seconds, finishing 27 seconds ahead of Lily Nichols of the combined Heppner-Ione-Condon team. Henthorn's mom, Holli, won the state title for Coquille when she was a junior in 2004. Henthorn, who was fourth as a freshman, has been eyeing the state title since then. "I am ecstatic," she said. "We've been talking about this all season. That was my goal." She started pulling away from Nichols and Banks senior Sophie Schoolmeester at about the 2,000-meter mark in the 5,000-meter race. "My plan was to leave her as fast as I can," Henthorn said, knowing Schoolmeester has great speed in a sprint as one of the state's top 800-meter runners. Being able to compete at state, much less win, was a blessing for Henthorn, who came down with mononucleosis during the season. Doctors told her she probably wouldn't be able to come back this fall. "By the grace of God I was healed," she said. "We all prayed about it and asked for healing and it worked. I think the reason he healed me was so I could be here today and tell everyone about it."

Though Schoolmeester finished third, she also got a big prize when Banks won the team trophy. Bandon's girls competed in the team race, placing 10th. Jael Legutki just missed the podium for the Tigers, placing 12th in 19:19. The other Tigers were Lilly Iverson in 50th (21:13), Safaa Dimitruk was 67th (22:17), Jada Ryder was 72nd (22:51) and Claire Briggs was 94th (24:08). Siuslaw also was in the team race, placing sixth. Adylin Holbrook was 32nd (20:31), Pearl Jensen was 48th (21:10), Mia Goss was 51st (21:17), Abigail Jones was 53rd (21:21), Claire McNeill was 58th (21:42), Cloer Holbrook was 59th (21:46) and Afton Linton was 78th (23:06). Henthorn was among many South Coast runners who had a lot to be thankful for Saturday.

In the first race of the day, Bandon's boys put up a fabulous performance as a team, finishing second behind favorite Knappa. Pahls led the way, pushing Knappa's Wyatt Jacobson to the finish and coming up just short of the individual title. Jacobson finished in 16:17 and Pahls in 16:18. Bandon's Sawyer Miller also made the podium, placing seventh (16:46).

The Tigers had all five of their scoring runners in the top 20 and scored 55 points. Noah Brown was 16th (17:23), Jonah Brown 17th (17:23) and Trask Wehner 20th (17:27). The Tigers' other two runners were Max Wales who was Siuslaw's boys captured the Class 4A team title.

Coquille sophomore Ella Hanthorn ran away from the field to win the state title in cross country on Saturday at Lane Community College.

Sawyer Miller had a top-10 finish for Bandon in the state meeting Saturday.

52nd (18:41), and Jackson Simonds who was 67th (19:32). Unfortunately for the Tigers, Knappa had three of the top five, with Rowdy Justice third and Gavin Jasper fifth, and also had their other two scoring runners in the top 20. Knappa finished with 35 points. Still, the Tigers were delighted with their performance. “It was definitely a good day,” Pahls said. “It was great to see the guys running well.” Pahls had hoped to stay with Jacobson, who finished in the top three each of the past two years and had the top time coming in. “That was the goal,” he said. “I’m especially happy with how the team did. All the boys have been working really hard.” Miller, the team’s only senior, also got to enjoy a podium finish. “Top-10 was definitely my goal,” he said. “I’m happy to achieve it.” Myrtle Point’s Eli Nicholson was 31st (17:46). In the Class 4A boys race, Stovall and Marist Cath-olic’s Corbin Sage ran at the front all race. Sage pulled away late to beat Stovall, finishing in 15:56 to 16:00 for Stovall. “I’m OK with it,” Stovall said, adding that he ran out of gas when the runners neared the finish. “I would have liked to win, but the last few years I haven’t placed, so I can’t be upset.” North Bend’s Angelo Pedrini finished 19th in 17:11. The Pirates finished 12th in the team race, which was won by La Grande. Marshfield’s other runners were Charlie Hatch in 47th (17:47), Donald Brice in 70th (18:30), Barrett Thomas in 94th (19:51), Liam Rasley in 96th (20:11) and Ayden McNamee in 98th (20:27). In the Class 4A girls race, North Bend’s Addison Horning earned a spot on the podium with a 10th-place finish and teammate Ellie Massey just missed the top 10. Horning finished in 19 minutes and 34 seconds, best among runners from the Sky-Em League. Massey was 12th in 19:38 and the Bulldogs were eighth in the team race, won by La Grande. Lauren Wolfe was 36th

Cascade Christian had 102, Neah-Kah-Nie 103 and Banks 106. “It means so much,” Stone said. “We were disappointed last year when we came up a little short. We really felt hungry for this year.” The Vikings feature five sophomores and all seven team members also play for Siuslaw’s soccer team. “All the guys are my best friends,” Stone said. Stone finished in 15:52. Bentley Nelson was 12th (16:37), Ezra King 15th (16:48), Camden Linton 31st (17:32) and Kale Jensen 37th (17:53) for the Vikings. Marshfield places fourth in state volleyball tournament

Marshfield’s volleyball team wasn’t able to repeat as state champions when the Pirates hosted the Class 4A state tournament over the weekend. But at least the squad earned a trophy. Marshfield bounced back from a tough quarterfinal loss to eventual runner-up The Dalles on Friday with a pair of wins Saturday, including topping Philomath in the fourth-place match. “I am proud of how the girl fought back today after the tough loss yesterday,” Marshfield coach Tammie Montiel said. “They responded well and were bound and determined to end the season with two wins. They showed some grit when they could have decided to fold.” Marshfield lost in the quarterfinals Friday to The Dalles 32-30, 25-22, 25-22, unable to consistently come up with key plays that could have turned the tide in the Pirates’ favor. But in the consolation semifinals, the Pirates outlasted Pendleton 25-11, 25-10, 15-25, 20-25, 15-10 to earn a spot in the trophy round. There, Marshfield topped Philomath 23-25, 28-26, 28-26, 25-20. “The senior leadership and play set the tone and some of our young girls really stepped up,” Montiel said. “A trophy at the tourney four straight years is a huge accomplishment and something for our younger athletes to strive to extend the streak.” Marshfield’s seniors include Mackenzie Fitzgerald-Thornton, Chloe Runn, Sierra Sauers and libero Anna Lemmons. Runn had a team-best 16 kills in the win over Philomath, while sophomore Caroline Knutson had 13 and Fitzgerald-Thornton added nine. Runn also had a team-best 26 digs, while Knutson had 20 and Lemmons 18. Setters Kendall Johnson and Tia Reiber combined for 31 assists. In the earlier win over Pendleton, Knutson had 21 kills, Fitzgerald-Thornton 14 and Runn 11. Johnson had 21 assists and Reiber 14. Knutson had 24 digs and Lemmons and Runn 18 each. Marshfield’s Sky-Em rival Marist Catholic won the title, sweeping The Dalles 25-15, 25-10, 25-20 in the championship match. Henley outlasted Cascade for third place, 26-24, 16-25, 26-24, 23-25, 15-12. In the Class 3A tournament at North Bend, Valley Catholic beat Westside Christian in the final for its second straight title. The Valiants won 22-25, 25-20, 25-23, 25-22. Cascade Christian topped Dayton for third place, 25-22, 25-23, 23-25, 13-25, 15-11. Burns beat Catlin Gabel 26-24, 25-14, 22-25, 25-23 in the fourth-place match. This was the second straight year Marshfield and North Bend have jointly hosted the two tournaments. “A big shoutout to the community for coming together and putting together an amazing tournament that gives these athletes memories for a lifetime,” Montiel said.

Bobcats fall in state tourney

NB girls, Marshfield boys fall in soccer playoffs

Myrtle Point lost both its matches at the Class 2A volleyball tournament. The Bobcats were making their first appearance at the final site in 11 years. Clatskanie beat the Bobcats in the quarterfinals 25-23, 25-17, 25-14 and went on to play for the state title, falling to top-ranked Crosshill Christian 25-19, 25-10, 25-8. Myrtle Point was eliminated in the consolation semifinals Saturday morning, falling to Trinity Lutheran 25-20, 25-17, 19-25, 25-22. Trinity Lutheran went on to outlast Weston-McEwen in five sets for fourth place. Heppner beat Portland Christian in four sets for third place. Myrtle Point was unbeaten champions of the Sunset Conference and only had one loss in the regular season.

North Bend’s girls and Marshfield’s boys both saw their soccer seasons end in first-round playoff losses at Klamath Union last week. In the Class 4A girls playoffs, North Bend fell to the Pelicans 1-0. Adalie Giampietri scored the only goal of the match on a crossing pass from Allie Nelson in the 20th minute. North Bend was the Sky-Em League runner-up and finished with a season record of 8-5-2. Klamath Union went on to face No. 2 seed The Dalles in the quarterfinals Saturday, but lost 3-0. The Dalles will host Scappoose in the semifinals after Scappoose beat Philomath 2-0. In the other semifinal, Sky-Em League champion Marist Catholic hosts Henley. The Spartans blanked

North Marion 5-0 and Henley beat Gladstone 3-1. In the Class 4A boys playoffs, Marshfield fell to the Pelicans 7-0. Marshfield finished second in the Sky-Em League and had entered the playoffs on a six-match unbeaten streak. The Pirates finished 8-7-1. Klamath Union, the No. 4 seed, hosted Ontario in the second round

Saturday, winning 2-0 to advance to the semifinals. The Pelicans visit top-ranked Stayton, which edged Tillamook in a match decided by penalty kicks. Henley hosts North Marion in the other semifinal. Henley blanked Newport 2-0 and North Marion edged The Dalles in a match decided by penalty kicks.

Coquille Hall of Fame banquet is Nov. 15

Coquille High School will add five individuals and one team to its hall of fame in a banquet that will be held Saturday, Nov. 15, at the Coquille Community Building. This year’s inductees include 1999 graduate Mariah Grami, 2007 graduate Josh Frasier and 1967 graduate Wayne Van Burger (being honored posthumously), as well as this year’s George Johnson Booster Award recipients Renee Marineau and Harold Brice. The team being honored is the 2006 girls cross country team coached by Kori Frasier that finished second at the state meet and is the only Coquille girls team to receive a trophy at state. The banquet starts at 5:30 p.m., with dinner served at 6:30, with the menu including tri-tip, chicken, salad and sides. Tickets are $20 or $150 for a table that seats eight. Grami was a volleyball standout on several Coquille teams that advanced to the state tournament and was the Far West League most valuable player and an all-state selection her senior year. She also was valedictorian of her graduating class. Josh Frasier was a standout cross country and track and field runner for the Red Devils. He won state titles in both the 800 and 1,500 as a junior and senior and was second in the 1,500 and fourth in the 800 as a sophomore. He also was ninth in the state cross country meet his junior year. The 2006 girls cross country team placed second behind Catlin Gabel, the best finish in school history. Coquille’s success came through pack running. In the state meet, Emily Halsel was 21st, Vanessa Ferrer 22n, Brandi Crisp 25th and Francesca Frasier 26th. They all finished within 20 seconds of each other. Coquille’s fifth runner, Delaney Wheeler, was 88th, high enough for the Red Devils to secure the trophy. Van Burger, this year’s distinguished alumni, was a standout football player for the Red Devils, representing Coquille in the annual East-West Shrine All-Star game, and went on to a long coaching career for Marshfield High School. He died in 2020. In addition to being in Marshfield’s Hall of Fame, he also received the Lifetime Service to Wrestling Award from the Oregon Chapter of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame in 2005. He also was involved in production of “The Joy of Fishing,” which won several Emmys from the Northwest Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences. Marineau and Brice, who both graduated from Coquille, have been among the school’s boosters for many years, present at sports events throughout the school year. The Coquille Hall of Fame is sponsored by the Coquille Booster Club.

South Coast Accelerator Honored with Statewide Award for Business Development Success

PRESS RELEASE

The South Coast Development Council (SCDC) has received the 2025 Oregon Economic Development Association (OEDA) Award of Excellence in Economic Development for Business Development Success, recognizing the South Coast Accelerator’s role in driving entrepreneurship and economic growth on Oregon’s South Coast.

Launched in 2024 through a U.S. Economic Development Administration grant and in partnership with Southwestern Oregon Community College (SWOCC), the cities of Coos Bay and North Bend, and SCDC, the South Coast Accelerator (SCA) turned a long-term 2015 vision into a fully operating business hub in just one year. The accelerator opened in July 2024 with its first tenant, Willis Aerial Imagery, and quickly reached full occupancy with 10 diverse businesses – from tech to wellness to professional services.

“This award celebrates the power of collaboration and the entrepreneurial momentum of our region,” said Lexie Woodward, executive director of the South Coast Development Council. “The South Coast Accelerator embodies what’s possible when local nonprofits, colleges, municipalities, and federal partners unite behind a shared vision for innovation and business growth.”

The SCA is the first business incubator of its kind on Oregon’s South Coast. It co-locates key resources – the Southwestern Small Business Development Center (SBDC), Oregon APEX Accelerator, CCD Business Development Corporation, Business Oregon, and SCDC – to create a one-stop hub where entrepreneurs can access advising, financing, procurement assistance, and strategic guidance in one place.

Building a Stronger Regional Economy

In its first year, the accelerator helped create new jobs, recruit businesses from outside the region, and strengthen the local economy through programs such as CO.STARTERS, Pitch Nights, and the Morning Grind Mastermind. These efforts give founders practical tools, mentorship, and a peer network to grow and stay rooted in the South Coast business community.

“Being part of the South Coast Accelerator has genuinely changed the course of my business and my life,” said Rafael Lopez, founder of Alpha Stretch Balance. “The support, guidance, and high-caliber resources provided here are unmatched. This is a place that believes in people, invests in their success, and stands beside them through every step of growth.”

A Model for Rural Innovation

“We’re proud to see the South Coast Accelerator honored with this statewide award,” said Tanya Rasley, entrepreneur OEDA’s Awards of Excellence recognize projects that deliver measurable economic impact, strengthen partnerships, and improve quality of life in Oregon communities.

South Coast Organizations Receive $33,000 in Grants from Oregon Arts Commission

Grant awards totaling $ 1,759,580 will be distributed to 355 Oregon arts organizations through the Oregon Arts Commission’s Sustaining Arts Program for fiscal year 2026.

In 2025, the Arts Commission reimagined this grant program to provide a more equitable distribution of funds to arts organizations. Awards are determined based on a newly updated funding formula that considers an organization’s annual expenses, number of applications and available grant funds. Grant awards range from $1,000 to $20,000, and these unrestricted awards are available to nonprofit arts organizations that offer public arts programs throughout the year.

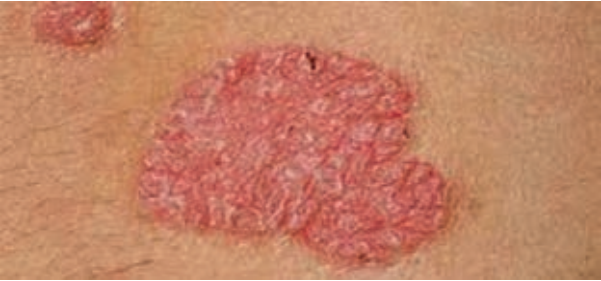

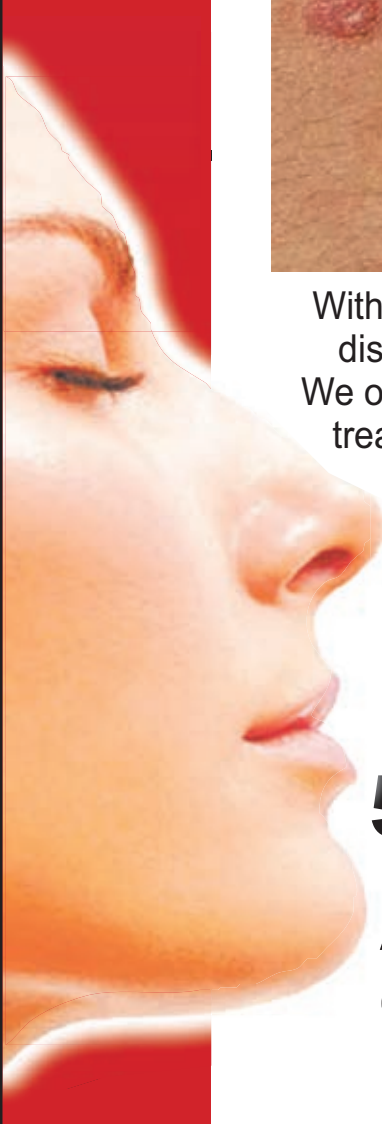

“This program is an important example of how the Oregon Arts Commission fulfills its commitments to continue invigorating the economic, cultural and creative expressions of our diverse state,” shares Commission Chair Subashini-Ganesan Forbes. “The extensive grantee list highlights the number of arts organizations operating with impeccable vision to nourish and energize their respective communities.”
