Did you know?

Did you know that February is National Children's Dental Health month?

It's true! Developing good habits at an early age and scheduling regular dental visits helps children get a good start on a lifetime of healthy teeth and gums. Dr. Strong is an avid supporter of early dental education, and extends a big welcome to all of our young people to come in for an exam and cleaning during February.

We've come a long way! With excellent dental care from Dr. Strong, you will protect your teeth, look great, and feel even better. We're here to help!

Children's Exam and Cleaning! $79

Regularly $178. Children under age 16. Cash offer only. Expires February 28, 2014

Trip to Bountiful' next Playhouse show

The award winning play "The Trip to Bountiful" is coming soon to the Sprague Community Theater in Bandon. Presented by the Bandon Playhouse with director Jason Tree, the play opens Friday, Feb. 21, with weekend performances through March 9.

Written by Horton Foote, "The Trip to Bountiful" balances themes such as family discord with compassion and humor.

"The Trip to Bountiful" is a powerful script about a woman's yearning and journey to 'go home again.'" said Tree. "The play has everything: Drama, humor and wonderful characters. The author is a master. I joined this project out of respect for the writing and feel it is a great honor and challenge to attempt to bring this work to the stage and give it its due."

Set in Texas, 1953, "The Trip to Bountiful" follows the journey of widow Carrie Watts. Eager to quit the confines of a three-room Houston apartment — and the tense relationships between her son, daughter-in-law and herself — Carrie plans her escape, back to her beloved farmstead in Bountiful. As Carrie's story unfolds, each character she meets is drawn in by her fragility and resolve.

"Director Jason Tree has brought together a wonderful cast that has done an outstanding job at bringing this tale to life," said Bandon Playhouse President Dan Barnett.

Johnna Hickox, Bracken Barnett and Geneva Miller portray Carrie, Ludie and Jessie Mae Watts. Bandon residents Dan Barnett, Dulce Havill, Nicholas Martin, Cathy Underdown and Gareth Williams round out the cast, with Stephanie Precourt as assistant director.

Tickets are on sale now. Advance ticket purchase available in Bandon at the Bandon Mercantile Company, Bandon True Value Hardware and Billy Smoothboar's. Tickets are available at the door, or make a will-call reservation, 541-551-1498. Admission is $12 for adults, $10 for seniors and students and $8 for children under 12.

"The Trip to Bountiful" runs three weekends, Feb. 21 through March 9. Friday and Saturday performances are at 7:30 p.m.; Sunday matinees at 2 p.m. The Sprague Community Theater is located at 1202 11th St. SW in Bandon. Learn more about the play and the cast at thebandonplayhouse.org.

Author Night features kitchen literacy

Local author Ann Vileisis will be talking about her book, "Kitchen Literacy: How We Lost Knowledge of Where Food Comes From and Why We Need to Get It Back" at 7 p.m., Monday, Feb. 17, in the Bandon Library's Sprague Room.

Ask children where food comes from, and they'll probably answer, "the supermarket." Ask most adults and their replies may not be much different.

Today, most foods travel 1,500 miles before they reach us.

The industrialized eating that is so convenient has resulted in a host of health and environmental problems, including food-borne pathogens and water pollution. In response, a movement toward eating local and organic has been gaining ground and now gives us new opportunities to find healthier, better-tasting fare and to learn the stories behind our foods once again. By revealing the history of how we've known — and not known — our foods, "Kitchen Literacy" promises to make us think differently about what we eat.

There will be books available to purchase and Vileisis will be signing copies after her presentation.

There is no cost to attend and refreshments will be served.

Author Night is sponsored by Bandon Library Friends and Foundation.
