MarLo Dance Studio presents 'Peter Pan'

BANDON - Be a part of one of MarLo Dance Studio's most popular productions as the "boy who would not grow up" flies from London to Neverland, does battle with Captain Hook and his cowardly pirates and revels in the adventures of childhood.

MarLo Dance Studio will present "Peter Pan" on May 18, 19 and 20 at the Sprague Community Theater, 1202 11th St. SW. in Bandon. Friday and Saturday shows are at 7 p.m., with two Sunday matinees, at 2 and 4:30 p.m.

This classic tale will feature dancers from Bandon, Coos Bay, Port Orford, Langlois, Brookings, Coquille and Myrtle Point and a guest alumna performer from Eugene's Ballet Fantastique.

MarLo's "Peter Pan" is a fast-paced adaptation of the classic story by J.M. Barrie told through dance and mime. This original MarLo Dance Studio adaptation first flew across the Sprague Theater stage to sold-out audiences in 2010. MarLo produces an annual spring production every May and "The Nutcracker" bi-annually (coming Dec. 2018).

Peter and company will take to the stage with a little fairy dust and happy thoughts through a grant from the Coos County Cultural Coalition. The grant supported bringing in acting specialist Mike Dempsey to coach both young and adult dancers in mime, swordplay and comedy. In turn, MarLo dancers will be presenting some of that fun in a free mini-performance for Bandon's Ocean Crest students on May 15.
