Did you know?

Did you know that sour candies erode tooth enamel and speed up decay?

It's true! Sour candies contain citric acid which erodes tooth enamel much faster than any other food. Most sour candies are more acidic than vinegar, and are in contact with teeth for prolonged periods as the candy is eaten. Rinsing after sour candy helps.

We've come a long way! With excellent dental care from Dr. Strong, you will protect your teeth, look great, and feel even better. With dental implants, you can now keep your smile for a lifetime! We enhance people's loves!

Community concert series begins Nov. 5

COOS BAY - The 2017-18 Coos County Community Concert Association's season begins with The Quebe Sisters.

As three of the fastest rising stars of their generation, The Quebe Sisters - Hulda, Grace and Sophia - have made their presence known in the country music scene, sharing the stage with Willie Nelson, George Strait and Ricky Skaggs and producing three acclaimed albums.

The fiddling siblings will be showcasing their tight harmonies and innate talent in a concert at 7 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 5, at the Egyptian Theatre in Coos Bay.

The concert begins at 7 p.m., with doors opening 45 minutes prior to the start of the concert. For information about the four-concert season, individual show ticket prices and other information, contact Mike Gordon at 541-269-1272 or visit the Coos County Community Concert Association's website at www.cccca.com.

Santa Paws is coming to town

NORTH BEND - Is it too early to think about Christmas? Not if you want an opportunity to have pictures taken with Santa. He is making a special appearance to pose with two-legged and four-legged family members for a holiday portrait at the annual Photos with Santa Paws event to benefit Pacific Cove Humane Society.

Pony Village Mall hosts the pre-holiday fundraiser from 1-3:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 4, in a store space inside the mall near Harry Ritchie's Jewelry. The fee this year is $20, which provides one portrait and one ticket for a prize drawing.

All well-behaved pets, from cats and dogs to more unusual creatures, are invited to have their photo taken with Santa Paws.

Their human friends are welcome to join the portrait sitting.

Professional photography services are provided by Julie Noggle of Brown's Studio & Camera Shop, who donates her time and photo processing for the event.

Pet owners are asked to bring small animals in carriers for their safety and to keep dogs on leashes. The event will feature goodie bags for pets and people, holiday bandanas crafted by Lynn Jochum and drawings for pet and people prizes.

Proceeds from Photos with Santa Paws support Pacific Cove Humane Society in its mission to build a centrally located pet care and adoption center for the South Coast region.

Holiday Craft Fair coming to Langlois

LANGLOIS - Start the season with a visit to the 22nd annual Holiday Craft Fair at the Lions Hall on Floras Loop Road just south of Langlois.

The Holiday Craft Fair will be held from 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Nov. 17 and Nov. 18 and is sponsored by the Langlois Lions and the Friends of the Langlois Library.

Talented South Coast artists and craftspeople will be displaying an array of creations, which will make shopping for holiday gifts a pleasure, according to organizers.

"Whether you are looking for a gift of wood, metal, fiber or locally grown food, you will find unique and surprising gifts at the Langlois Holiday Craft Fair," said a spokeswoman.

Bring a friend and enjoy lunch by Sandie McDonald. Friday, McDonald is serving her chicken pot pie. Saturday, Icelandic Meat Stew and thunder bread are on the menu. Vegetarian options are available.

Look for the Craft Fair signs on U.S. Highway 101. Parking is plentiful. For more information, call the Langlois Public Library at 541-348-2066.

Coat, blanket and sleeping bag drive underway

COQUILLE - The Bear Cupboard is holding its second annual coat, blanket and sleeping bag drive for veterans, school-aged children and the homeless in the South Coast area.

Bear Cupboard is an emergency food and clothing pantry located at the old Jefferson School, 790 W. 17th St., in Coquille. It is open every Tuesday from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. and the first Tuesday of each month from 4-6 p.m.)

Last year, Bandon donated carloads full of coats for all ages as well as tents, tarps, sleeping bags and blankets, said Sally McSherry, one of the drive's organizers.

"Please join us in our efforts to ensure no one is cold or wet this winter," McSherry said. "It is a great time to go through closets to collect coats for all ages and blankets and camping gear for the homeless. We accept all new and gently used clean items."

Bandon donations can be made by calling McSherry at 541-347-9130 for pick-ups.

This drive will run up to Thanksgiving, but school age children are already asking about coats.

Operation Christmas Child seeks donations

BANDON - A small shoebox full of school supplies, toys, necessity items and notes of encouragement can have a big impact on a child. Operation Christmas Child is a worldwide children's project of Samaritan's Purse that uses simple gift-filled shoeboxes to let hurting children know they are not forgotten.

In 2014, Operation Christmas Child reached a major milestone - delivering shoeboxes to more than 150 million children since the project began in 1993. Millions of hurting children who are victims of poverty, disease, natural disaster, war, terrorism, persecution and famine receive Operation Christmas Child shoebox gifts. For some of these boys and girls, it is the first gift they have ever received. Through the power of a simple gift and the message of hope, these children learn that God loves them. Operation Christmas Child shoebox gifts will be hand-delivered to children in more than 150 countries on six continents.

Boxes from this area will probably go to the Philippines.

Shoeboxes are available from Sally McSherry at 541-347-9130 until Nov. 17.

Quality Crafters Guild to hold sale

BANDON – Quality Crafters Guild presents their annual holiday sale from 10 a.m.-4 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 11, at The Barn in Bandon City Park. Local artisans will be selling quilted and knitted items, seasonal decorations, purses/totes and many collectibles and unique gifts. The sale will also feature jewelry, fleece items and handmade myrtlewood products and other hand-crafted items. New this year are vignettes from the seashore, cork decorations, local-inspired greeting cards and more.

Art for Health fundraiser set for Nov. 5

BANDON - The second annual Art for Health fundraiser will take place from 4-6 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 5, at the Bandon Community Center. Proceeds from Art for Health will benefit the 2018 quarterly art shows at Southern Coos Hospital & Health Center. Tickets are $35 each or $55 for a couple. Tickets are available at SCHHC's patient services desk or by calling 541-329-1040.

Ticket buyers will receive one 12-inch by 12-inch painting by a local artist, food and a drink ticket (for the $55 ticket, couples receive two paintings, food and two drink tickets). Local artists will be in attendance to offer insight into their artistic practice and the benefits of exhibiting at SCHHC's art shows.

Music will be performed by Contra Swings, led by Jennifer Sordyl Berg and Don Berg. Catering is by Edgewaters Restaurant.

Advance purchase is strongly encouraged. A limited number of tickets will be available at the door.

The Art for Health program will include hors d'oeuvres, a signature Art for Health cocktails, a short talk by Janice Horne, a local artist who regularly shows at SCHHC, and a small silent auction featuring pieces from Horne as well as a selection of local artist's artwork.

The event is hosted by the Southern Coos Health Foundation and the Southern Coos Hospital & Health Center. For more information, contact Scott McEachern, 541-329-1040 or smeachern@southerncoos.org.
