Did you know?

Did you know that without saliva you cannot taste food?

It's true! Saliva is necessary for tasting. It carries dissolved flavor molecules in food to receptors on taste buds, which send flavor signals to the brain. Saliva also contains substances which eliminate viruses, bacteria and fungi from the mouth.

Langlois Library presents events

LANGLOIS - The Langlois Public Library presents a Night at the Library - a free movie night at 6 p.m. Friday, March 9. Everyone is welcome to come watch "Wonder" and snack on some popcorn. Based on the New York Times bestseller and starring Jacob Tremblay as August Pullman, "Wonder" is about a boy with facial differences that have prevented him from attending public school.

This touching movie follows Auggie in his first year of public school with all the subsequent up and downs. This movie is Rated PG for thematic elements including bullying, and some mild language. For more information contact the Langlois Public Library at 541-348-2066.

Southwestern Oregon Prepper's will be presenting an initial organizational meeting at noon on Saturday, March 17, at the Langlois Library. The group will be addressing prepper-related topics and will be discussing upcoming monthly preparedness meetings which will be held at the Langlois Library. SWOP meetings always begin with introductions and questions. Everyone is welcome. For more information, contact the library at 541-348-2066.

Veterans Outreach Day will be held at the Langlois Public Library from 11 a.m.-5 p.m. Wednesday, March 21.

Cape Arago Audubon Society offers birding, presentation

BANDON - The public is welcome to join in the Cape Arago Audubon Society's March field trip. They will be birding Bandon on Saturday March 10. Meet at either the Coos Bay library at 7:30 a.m. to carpool, or meet at 8 a.m. at Ray's Food Place parking lot near the coffee drive-through. The group hopes to spot a rock sandpiper or rare wintering wandering tattler. There are plenty of places to bird around Bandon and the group will try to cover as much as they can up to around lunch time. Bring full rain gear, wet weather boots, water and snacks.

The public is also invited to Cape Arago Audubon's free presentation of "Coquille Watershed Salmon Spawning Surveys" at 7 p.m. Wednesday, March 14, at the Bandon Community Center, 1200 11th St. SW. Local naturalist Joe Metzler will be sharing his observations. Call Harv Schubothe at 541-297-2342 for additional details.

Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail accepting applications

BANDON - Visitors and locals alike are looking more often for places in the region to get fresh and local food. At the same time, local growers, producers and eateries are looking for better ways to let folks know they've got the local food that everyone's looking for. Well, now there's an easy way for the two groups to connect, with this year's Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail.

The local agritourism team, Eat Fresh & Local, is asking local food growers, producers and harvesters, along with restaurants, brewpubs and B&B's who serve local food, to consider applying for a spot on this year's Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail.

The Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail is an expanded version of the original Wild Rivers Coast "Farm" Trail, which was started in North Curry County in 2015 by Cathy Boden, team leader for the Eat Fresh & Local Action Team.

The expanded Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail is open to producers or retailers of local food, in addition to all local breweries, distilleries and wineries that are located along the Wild Rivers Coast; specifically, Curry, Coos and Coastal Douglas counties.

Expansion into the rest of the Wild Rivers Coast, i.e. coastal Del Norte County, is being considered for 2019 or 2020.

To obtain an application for the Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail, producers or retailers of local food can contact Eat Fresh & Local team member, Elizabeth Gronert, via email at ddsouth@thepoplescoast.com. Once the application has been completed and returned, the committee will review each applicant to ensure that the criteria have been met and, once approved, the applicant will receive signage, marketing materials, guaranteed listings with a variety of tourism-focused organizations and more, all for an annual $100 membership fee.

The Eat Fresh & Local Action Team is anticipating a 2018 opening date for the Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail of Earth Day, April 21, so the deadline for applications to be completed and turned into the team is Monday, April 9. For more information, contact Gronert at the email listed above, or visit the Facebook page, Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail (<https://www.facebook.com/wrcft/>).
